BATCHELOR AND McCULLOUGH ALSO WINNERS

SEVERAL DEMOCRATIC BATTLES ARE CLOSE

Alice Longworth Says

(Special To The News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—The administration has not come forward, after the lapse of several days, with any concrete suggestions as to how to carry out the wishful thinking of the president's Jefferson Day speech.

The Democracy as represented by Mr. Roosevelt has so far departed from Jeffersonian traditions that it would have been sheer humbug to claim that it still follows in those illustrious footsteps. At all events he didn't make the attempt. He contented himself with ringing the changes on his desire to see re-employment and reduced taxes, in which everyone joins. But his figures on the return of prosperity offer small comfort to those on relief and to those who must pay the taxes to keep them there.

His meain emphasis was on the Farmer-Labor combination that is being so well cemented together by the public money.

There may be no grass growing in the New York streets, but the writing on the wall is plain. The budget is unbalanced and 12 million unemployed are wanting jobs.

ALICE LONGWORTH.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

In a very short time several thousand baby ringnecked pheasants will be darting about in the Jordan State Game Farm brooders. About 3,000 eggs comprise the first setting which will be hatched May 9. There are 8,000 eggs in the incubators.

Down at the Pottsville band contest the Kleckner family of Vine street, was well represented—four members of the family play with the band. They were Stephen, Jr., Dorothy Jane, Emily Lou and Loyal. Dorothy Jane also plays the bassoon and trombone and Loyal the piccolo and flute, and are members of the school's orchestra. At Croton school two younger Kleckner children, Mary Alice and Earl, are under Prof. Hoffmaster's direction in the Croton band.

One of these days the Free Public Library will issue in The News a list of reading suggestions for "young people from 14 to 84." Every now and then Miss Alice M. Sterling, the capable librarian, makes suggestions. They are worthwhile. The News carries them with the hope that readers find them helpful. And the library, of course, is glad to be of service.

There seemed to be little excitement around the polling places early this morning, few voters being at the polls at the opening hour.

Pa Newc notes that many farmers have been taking advantage of the past few days to get a lot of plowing done. Many fields have been plowed in the past week.

McCULLOUGH WINS IN CITY CONTEST

T. WILBER McCULLOUGH

With 822 votes plurality, T. Wilber McCullough, of 122½ North Walnut street was named by the Republicans on Tuesday for the nomination to the General Assembly from the first district of Lawrence county. Mr. McCullough received 2314 votes.

Charles B. Mayne finished second to McCullough, receiving 1382 votes and closely following him was Mrs. Grace Womer Crawford with 1212 votes. C. L. McMillen was fourth with 857 votes and George L. Lewis was fifth with 562 votes.

This was Mr. McCullough's first appearance in a city wide political contest and his success is most pleasing to his followers. His home ward, the third, was especially kind to him and gave him a tremendous vote. He received handsome pluralities in many of the second and fourth ward precincts and ran a consistent race throughout the city.

STEWART—EROE BATTLE IS CLOSE

At five o'clock this morning the race between Assemblyman W. J. Eroe, Jr., and H. L. Stewart for the Democratic nomination to the State Senate was so close, at least insofar as Lawrence county was concerned that no winner could be named.

In 48 precincts out of the 91 in Lawrence county Mr. Eroe had 1548 votes and Stewart 1424. Just how the other precincts will go is a matter of conjecture.

This race was a close one although early in the primary it was assumed that Mr. Eroe would not have opposition. Mr. Stewart entered into it rather late and set about making an intensive campaign.

No returns were available from Beaver county at five o'clock this morning and any definite information on the final result will have to wait until the precincts are reported.

Young-Greer Are Delegates

Elected As Delegates To National Convention In Cleveland

YOUNG POLLS HIGH VOTE IN LAWRENCE

Attorney Charles H. Young of New Castle and Dr. Robert B. Greer of Butler, will be the Republican delegates to the national convention in Cleveland in June. Both of them received handsome votes in Lawrence county and from early reports from Beaver and Butler counties James March, the only other candidate for delegate has little chance to win out

In Lawrence county out of 47 precincts reported of the 91 in the county Mr. Young received 5263 votes and Dr. Greer 4375. Inasmuch as Lawrence county is Mr. Young's home county it was expected that he would lead his Butler county running mate. Mr. March received 1549 votes in Lawrence county. In Butler county, Dr. Greer was leading Mr. Young by about the same proportion as Young led Greer here. Butler is Dr. Greer's home county.

Second Of Seventh First With Returns

First honors for reporting election returns went to the second precinct of the seventh ward Tuesday night. At 7:16, the precinct reported the results in the race for the Republican nomination for General Assembly. The first precinct of the Seventh ward followed in short order.

For a complete return of both parties, the third precinct of North Beaver township was the first, reporting at approximately eight thirty.

Because of the light vote cast the returns were called in much earlier than usual and a fine spirit of cooperation upon the part of the election boards was manifest.

King Of Egypt Taken By Death

Throat Infection Proves Fatal To King Fuad I, This Morning

HEIR TO THRONE 16 YEAR OLD SON

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

CAIRO, April 28.—King Fuad I of Egypt, who was stricken with a throat infection late last week, died today.

The king lapsed into a coma yesterday and his case was declared "hopeless," but early today an official doctors' bulletin stated he had rallied. Death followed by a few hours announcement of the improvement.

King Fuad, who was placed upon modern Egypt's throne by the British in 1922, remained throughout his reign a bulwark against the Egyptian Nationalist tide, which is strongly anti-British. His death leaves Egypt's political situation tense.

Heir to the throne is the 16-year-old Crown Prince Farouk, who prepared to leave school in England for Cairo tomorrow. Egypt probably will be ruled by a regency until he becomes of age, and a group of three men was expected to be named. Those mentioned most prominently are Prince Mohamed Aly, King Fuad's nephew; Tewfik Nessim Pasha, former premier, and Mahomed Fakhry Pasha, minister to Paris and a son-in-law of King Fuad.

King Fuad died of infectious stomatitis. His condition became serious last Friday, when a hemorrhage developed. From then he sank rapidly until his brief, predeath rally today.

QUINTUPLETS ARE WELL

(International News Service)

CORBEIL, Ont., April 28—The Dionne quintuplets are 23 months old today and you can take it from their medical guardian, Dr. A. R. DaFoe, they are in excellent physical condition.

In reporting the progress made by his little charges during the past month, Dr. DaFoe said the quints had cut six teeth since March 31.

Batchelor Is Re-Nominated

Lead Of State Senator This Morning Indicates He Is Winner

BOTH COUNTIES GIVE HIM LEAD

SEN. A. S. BATCHELOR

With 54 precincts reported out of the 195 in the 47th senatorial district which is comprised of Lawrence and Beaver counties there appears to be no doubt that Senator Alonzo S. Batchelor has been nominated by the Republicans for a second term.

In the 54 precincts reported, Batchelor has 4828 votes, Virgil E. Bennett 2530 and Miss Wilhelmina C. Behnaman 1543. All three candidates are from Beaver county.

In his home county of Beaver, Batchelor had 2203 votes in 17 precincts as against 1090 for Bennett. In Lawrence county Batchelor had 2625 votes in 37 precincts and Bennett 1090. Miss Behnaman trailed in both counties.

Senator Batchelor has served in Harrisburg for the past eight years. He first served in the House in 1929 and was sent back in 1931. In the session of 1933 he went to the Senate and is now serving. His home is in Monaca.

Few Gather To See Bulletins

Inexplainable Lethargy Surrounded The Primaries Of Tuesday Locally

With a light vote recorded in the primaries in the city and county on Tuesday, the situation was reflected in the lact of interest in the outcome last night.

The crowd that surrounded The News office to see the returns flashed on the screen probably the smallest that has witnessed any election bulletins in years.

It is difficult to explain the apparent lethargy that surrounded the primaries yesterday.

Perhaps all of the election excitement and enthusiasm is being saved for the major battle of the year which will come in November.

Gangster's Wife Posts Bail For Sum Of $100,000

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 29.—Bail of $100,000 is not too much for Johnny Torrio, ex-Chicago ganglord, held under charges here of defrauding the the federal government of $250,000 in alcohol taxes.

Anna Torrio, his wife, walked into federal court today and posted the bail in cash—ninety-seven $1,000 notes, four $500 notes and ten $100 notes. However, she was not given her husband immediately, but a receipt.

Torrio's attorneys yesterday appeared before federal Judge Goddard in an attempt to have the bail reduced, but met stiff opposition from federal district attorneys.

Hundreds Write Landon's Name On Ballots Here

Governor Alfred M. Landon of Kansas is the choice of hundreds of Lawrence county voters for the Republican nomination for president. In spite of the fact that Landon's name was not entered in the Republican primary several hundred voters wrote the name in. Almost without exception Landon's name was written in, in the 91 precincts of the county.

Fullerton And Luke In Close Race In County

Luke Has Lead This Morning With All Of Ellwood Included

RURAL VOTE MAY CHANGE STANDING

One contest in the Republican primary election of Tuesday that will take more precincts to decide was that between W. Sharp Fullerton of North Beaver township and Randall B. Luke of Ellwood City for the nomination to the General Assembly, from the second district.

At five o'clock this morning 18 precincts had been reported. These gave Luke 922 votes and Fullerton 807. Included in this total were all of the Ellwood City precincts which was conceded to be Luke's stronghold. With the rural vote still to be reported it is possible that Mr. Fullerton may overtake and pass Mr. Luke.

In the same 18 precincts Dr. H. S. Gold of Ellwood City had 372 votes and W. R. McKee of Hickory Township 260. There seemed to be little possibility that either would be able to bring their votes up to a point where they would be contenders.

Preston Wins Over Levine By Close Vote

Race For Assembly In Democratic Primary Is Neck And Neck

KELSO RE-NAMED IS UNOPPOSED

Fighting neck and neck all the way, Carmi Preston and Attorney Sherman K. Levine staged a pretty battle for the Democratic nomination to the General Assembly from the first district on Tuesday, Preston winning by 226 votes. Preston's vote for the 34 districts, complete, was 1388 and Levine's 1162.

Both of them are young men, under 30, both of them are newcomers to the political arena, both of them are bachelors. Their campaign was probably the most interesting of all the Democratic contests and the result kept see-sawing from one to the other for the first three hours after the polls closed. Preston then began to pull away and won out.

In the second district Assemblyman James B. Kelso of North Beaver Township was unopposed and is the candidate of his party for a second term.

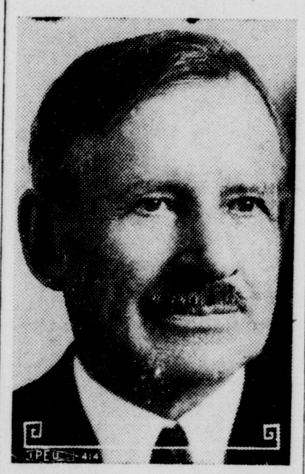
Delegates Slates Also Nominated

With the Republicans and Democrats agreed on their slates for delegates-at-large to the national conventions, no tabulation was kept of the results in Tuesday's primary elections. The Republicans had a slate of seven candidates with one candidate independent of the slate. The Democrats had a slate of 16 candidates with one candidate independent of the slate. The slated candidates received the bulk of the vote.

Congressman Re-Nominateed

Democratic Voters Re-name Chas. R. Eckert For Congress

COUNTY GIVES HIM MAJORITY



CONGRESSMAN C. R. ECKERT

With 47 precincts out of the 91 in Lawrence county reported at five o'clock this morning, Congressman Charles R. Eckert of Beaver county seems reasonably sure of renomination. Eckert's vote for the 47 precincts was 1786 and P. A. Garrett, also of Beaver county 1158.

Beaver county is expected to give Mr. Eckert a substantial majority over Garrett and if the remaining precincts in Lawrence county follow out the 47 reported, Eckert will have over 1000 majority here.

Landon Gets 117 At College Town

Large Number Of Voters Write Name Of Kansas Governor On Ballot

Westminster College students may nominate Herbert Hoover for the presidency of the United States on the Republican ticket but the townspeople who did the voting Tuesday want Governor Alfred M. Landon of Kansas.

In spite of the fact that Governor Landon did not enter the primary his name was written in by Republican voters 117 times. Senator William E. Borah of Idaho who was on the ballot received but 80 votes. Herbert Hoover received 8 votes, Col Frank Knox 2 and Senator Arthur H. Vandenburg one.

Reveals Huge Jewel Robbery

Winter Estate Of Capitalist Looted Of $250,000 In Jewels

(International News Service)

CAMDEN, S. C., April 28.—Kept a secret in the hop.. that recovery might be expedited, a $250,000 jewel robbery at the winter estate of Ernest L. Woodard, retired Leroy, N. Y., capitalist and sportsman, was revealed today.

The jewelry was stolen March 28 from the Woodard home at Holly Hedge while Mr. and Mrs. Woodard were at the Carolina Cup Steeplechase. The police stated the jewelry was stolen from a box in a dresser drawer on the second floor of the Woodard home. No fingerprints or any other clues were left by the robbers, police declared.

A $5,000 reward had been posted for the return of the jewelry by a New York insurance company. The jewelry was insured for $180,000, it was stated.

MAY ABROGATE RULE

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Abrogation of the two-thirds nominating rule by the Democratic convention which meets in Philadelphia on June 23 was predicted here today by James A. Farley, national chairman and postmaster general

BROWN IS WINNER OF NOMINATION FOR CONGRESS IN G. O. P.

Attorney Orville Brown of New Castle is the Republican nominee for congress from the 26th district.

With 106 precincts out of 280 in the district Brown had 10,243 votes at the time this extra went to press, J. Campbell Brandon of Butler had 4209 and E. F. G. Harper of New Castle had 3234.

Brown did unusually well in Lawrence his home county and in Beaver. In Butler county Brandon was expected to carry the county by about 3000 but this plurality will not affect the result.

In Lawrence county 47 precincts out of 91 give Brown 4863 votes, Harper 1480 and Brandon 1221.

In Beaver county 42 precints out of 104 give Brown 4682 votes, Harper 1580 and Brandon 1889.

In Butler county 17 precints out of 85 give Brown 698 votes, Harper 174 and Brandon 1099.

Brown made a runaway race of the primary from the start. Heavy pluralities in the early precincts indicated that he would have no trouble in his home county and as the night progressed it became apparent that his plurality would be even greater than his supporters had claimed.

He is the first Republican nominee for congress from New Castle since the late Congressman Charles Matthews who served a quarter of a century ago. Mr. Brown resides on Lincoln avenue.

Several Win In Easy Style

Get Party Nominations In Tuesday Primaries Without Opposition

OTHER RESULTS AS EXPECTED

Because many of the candidates entered in the primary elections of Tuesday were unopposed The News did not tabulate their vote their nominations being foregone conclusions.

The candidacy of William E. Borah for the Republican presidential nomination attracted only about half of those who voted. Many of the voters wrote the name of Governor Alfred M. Landon of Kansas in.

In the race for state treasurer Republican nomination Frank L. Pinola of Luzerne county was opposed by Frank P. B. Thompson who seems to make a habit of entering primaries. Mr. Thompson did not get many votes.

For auditor-general, E. Arthur Sweeny of Westmoreland county had no opposition.

In the Democratic primary President Roosevelt and Henry Breckinridge were entered as candidates for the nomination for president. Breckinridge received a scattering vote, the president getting the bulk of them.

For the Democratic nomination for state treasurer F. Clair Ross of Butler was unopposed. For auditor-general Senator Warren Roberts of Northampton had little opposition from W. J. Zimmerman of Philadelphia.

MOTORMAN KILLED

(International News Service)

URBANA, O., April 28.—One motorman was killed and six persons were injured today in a head-on collision of two Cincinnati and Lake Erie interurban cars at Donovan Hill, three miles south of here.

C. F. Patterson, Toledo, motorman of the northbound car, was killed.

Work On Viaduct At Edenburg Will Be Started Soon

Holmes Company Given Contract By State For Improvement

Actual work upon the construction of the Edenburg viaduct can be expected within the immediate future. The contract for the erection of the viaduct and the building of 1.35 miles of road in connection with it was awarded in Harrisburg today to the Holmes Construction Company of Wooster, O., at their bid of $369,402.34.

The contract calls for the erection of a plate girder bridge and a reinforced concrete bridge, nearly 500 feet long, a steel truss and plate

President Back At White House

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—President Roosevelt returned to the White House this morning after inaugurating his re-election campaign in New York Saturday night.

The president plans to remain in Washington until the end of the congressional session and he will urge Democratic leaders on Capitol Hill to drive for adjournment by June 1.

Like snow flakes on a mountain side, like raindrops in the spring, the votes are being cast today, the folks are balloting. And candidates are bustling round to stir the voters out, in hopes that other candidates will soon be put to rout. The paper slips are vital things, the messages they bear will make some candidates rejoice and other ones despair. But soon the balloting will cease, the voters will be through, and we shall know just what is what, the weather's seventy two

JAPANESE RENEW ACTIVITY

Chinese Circles Much Aroused

Report Says Japanese Garrison In Tientsin Has Been Increased

RUMOR NEW PACT HAS BEEN SIGNED

(International News Service)

SHANGHAI, April 28—Sensational reports of suddenly renewed Japanese activities in North China, today aroused profound misgivings in Chinese political circles here.

One of these reports stated the Japanese garrison at Tientsin had been increased from 2,000 to 10,000 men.

Another report was that a semi-military pact had been signed between Japan and Hopei-Chahar political council governing the northern provinces torn from Chinese control and established as an autonomous region upnder Japanese auspices.

Under terms of this pact, it was understood in Chinese circles here, Japanese troops may be stationed along the borders of Chahar and Hopei province, and also at strategic railway points within them.

Grave fears were aroused that the pact, which is anti-communist in nature, but gives Japan highly important new military rights in North China, may be a strategic prelude to further inroads on territorial sovereignty of the Nanking government.

aboard the flagship Pennsylvania, a long line of battleships, destroyers and submarines stood out from Los Angeles harbor.

This mighty unit was joined "somewhere at sea" by a similar contingent from San Diego harbor—and the nation's "first line of defense was off to war."

It is known the fleet will be divided into attacking and defending units as soon as it is clear of regular steamship lanes. Particular emphasis will be placed on testing the fighting efficiency of the planes and the submarines, units developed by the veteran Admiral Reeves, who retires after these games.

The fleet will arrive in Panama May 12. There the ships will undergo overhaul and more maneuvers will be held testing the navy's ability to defend the Panama Canal.

Pointing out amendments to the state constitution can be brought in for consideration at any legislative session without notice, state officials said Governor Earle included the amendment in his call merely to place special attention upon it.

"This amendment would aid materially in reducing the time needed to get rid of obsolete provisions of our state constitution," the governor said in outlining his legislative program.

measures to raise $3,000,000 a month for state relief, or at least until after the next scheduled session of the legislature Wednesday morning.

Meantime, comrades of the besieging demonstrators throughout the state were hastily attempting to formulate a new party—the Farmer-Labor party—and get candidates in the field in at least one, the Fourth Congressional District, of the state, before the May primaries.

Communists Edging In

At the same time, leaders of the Workers' Alliance kept up their fight against the persistent efforts of Communists and professional agitators from taking over control of the movement which has attracted such widespread attention.

In the latter effort they appeared to be waging an uphill battle. For though seven Communists have been ejected in the last week, more of them were in evidence among the demonstrators last night and arly today than even before. In fact, it was largely the impassioned appeals of professional spellbinders of this ilk which kept the "mock legislature" in session after last night.

Although the legislature's session last night was surrounded by the most tumultous conditions ever seen in the historic state house, there was no trouble. The small army of state troopers who, in uniform and plain clothes, which augmented the regular capitol police force, was not needed, nor was a single one of the store of tear gas bombs which were held in readiness throughout the evening.

And though the assembly gallery was packed to the last inch with several hundred Workers' Alliance members and the state house steps outside overrun with 1,000 others, bearing placards and banners, there was no disorder; not even when the assembly adjourned after an hour and 15 minutes without taking any action whatever on the relief problem. The senate adjourned in 15 minutes.

Ugly Situation

Only once did it seem possible that an ugly situation might arise. That was during an interchange between Ray Cooke, one-time circus performer and now state chairman of the Workers' Alliance, and Assemblyman J. Parnell Thomas, Bergen Republican.

Cooke was allowed the privilege of the floor for consenting to move the demonstrators from the assemblymen's desks up to the gallery before the session started. He first introduced a resolution of protest of agricultural workers' conditions in southern Jersey which alleged a state of peonage exists there. Then he turned his attention to Thomas, who Saturday declared the Workers' Alliance is being led by a group of professional agitators.

"I have something personal with Mr. Thomas," said Cooke. "He telegraphed Governor Hoffman that those persons who have been in the assembly the past week are led by professional agitators.

"I want to tell Thomas to his teeth that he's a liar."

Assemblymen leaped to their feet. Assemblyman Hugh C. Baldwin, Sussex Republican, shouted:

"No member can attack personally another member. We can not allow an outsider to do so. I move this man be ejected."

BATTLES IN DISTRICTS OF STATE ARE CENTER OF PRIMARY INTEREST

session convening May 4—than to the state-wide preferential presidential balloting.

Chance For Protest

Opposed in the Democratic presidential primary were President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Col. Henry Breckinidge, New York constitutional Democrat entered ostensibly to collect "protest" votes of anti-administrationists. Senator William E. Borah, Idaho, was the lone candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

In addition to balloting on legislative candidates, Pennsylvanians were to nominate congressional contenders in 34 districts and elect both party delegates to the national conventions and members of Republican and Democratic state committees.

Sixteen delegates-at-large and as many alternates were to be named to attend the Democratic national convention in Philadelphia while seven delegates-at-large and an equal number of alternates were to be elected to represent Pennsylvania at the Republican national meeting in Cleveland. Both parties also will elect two national delegates and two alternates from each congressional district in the state.

Half State Senate At Stake

Twenty five seats from the odd-numbered districts, half the state senate, were at stake in the legislative selections. In the house of representatives 208 places, the total membership, figured in the primary. Democrats were hopeful of matching their control of the lower body by nominating senate candidates whose strength will enable the party to win the upper house in November.

Only Edward B. Zimmerman, Independent Democratic candidate for auditor general, carried his campaign through election eve. His opponent, Sen. Warren H. Roberts and Deputy Attorney General F. Clair Ross, organization choice for state treasurer reached primary day with little campaign activity.

Republican organization candidates E. Arthur Sweeny, for auditor general and Frank L. Pinola, for state treasurer, were similarly silent. Pinola is opposed by Frank P. B. Thompson, Philadelphia, while Sweeney has no opposition.

It is believed that the average well-educated American knows from 60,000 to 70,000 words, and every well-read person of fair ability and education will be able to understand as used 50,000 words.

Junior Chamber Meets At Hotel

Dr. Bissell Tells New Hospital Care Plan; Business Up

The Junior Chamber of Commerce "safe driving" campaign committees will join Governor George H. Earle's newly named Lawrence county safety committee in a mass meeting at The Castleton on Monday evening, May 4, at which time the one general safety campaign of the county will be outlined before the representatives of the county's industries.

That was announced at Monday night's semi-monthly meeting of the junior chamber at The Castleton.

With President W. Herbert Smith presiding, the organization last night heard full reports of its current activities.

The "safe driving" campaign was one item before the meeting while the coming benefit show which the junior chamber will sponsor to raise funds for the publication of a New Castle handbook was another.

The guest speaker for the evening was Dr. Wayne W. Bissell, superintendent of the Jameson Memorial hospital, who reviewed in detail the new "Jameson Hospital Pre-Paid Care Plan."

New appointments for future activities were made by President Smith and other activity chairmen.

The next meeting of the junior chamber, which last night marked its first anniversary, will take place Monday evening, May 11. The first "inaugural dinner" of the organization occurred a year ago.

"Back Scrubbing" Stories Differ

Scrubbee And Scrubbed Stories Jibe, But Indignant Husband's Story Differs

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 28.—Michael Farber was all wet about the back-scrubbing incident on which he bases his $25,000 suit for alienations of affections against Charles Parker.

Michael testified he came home from a hard day at the office, found Charlie sitting in the bathtub with his wife, Georgia, vigorously scrubbing his back.

Georgia, 28, a stately brunette and a former choir singer, testified yesterday Mike dared her to scrub Charlie's back.

The three of them, Georgia, Mike and Charlie, who is 65, had been having a party at the Farber's, she said, and about 11 o'clock Charlie decided to retire.

Very Amusing

Charlie filled the tub, got in, and yelled, "Will someone wash my back?"

Georgia yelled, "I will," but she didn't, so Charlie yelled, "who's going to wash my back?" and Mike yelled, "go in and scrub his back," so she went in the bathroom and scrubbed Charlie's back and Mike thought it was "very amusing."

Charlie testified he had about a dozen baths in the Farber tub. "Did she scrub you the other eleven times?" he was asked. "Mrs. Farber scrubbed my back but once," Charlie answered in an injured tone.

"Who scrubbed it the other eleven times then?"

"It wasn't scrubbed."

Bespectacled Michael testified it burned him up to have Charlie spend the night at the Farber home so often.

"The third time he stayed all night my dander was aroused," he testified.

Kentucky Colonels Get Appointments

(International News Service)

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 28.—Officially, Kentucky colonels can again raise their eyes to the sun.

Senator James E. Wise, acting as governor in the absence of Gov. A. B. Chandler and Lieut.-Gov. Keen Johnson, issued an executive order today restoring 17,000 colonels, admirals, captains, etc., to the state staff.

And to prove his "authority" he appointed Elijon-Smith Boteler, of New York, and Lawrence W. Leeper, of Dallas, Tex., as colonels.

The colonels themselves didn't pay much attention to it, but several weeks ago Attorney General B. M. Vincent ruled there was nothing in the constitution to permit Kentucky colonels.

ETHIOPIANS ARE FLEEING BEFORE ITALIAN TROOPS

disaster continued to roll into the capital, along with the retreating soldiers.

The British Red Cross received messages from their forward sections asking that trucks be sent to Debra Birhan to collect a large number of Ethiopian wounded and transport them to hospitals.

Still Think Defeat Can Be Evaded

It was not known here whether these wounded had been deserted by their retreating comrades, or were the victims of fresh battles waged by Ethiopian commanders in a last-ditch effort to stem the on-rushing Italians.

Despite the ordeal of bombs and shells, the retreating troops refused to admit final defeat. They still seemed to think that something would happen to thwart the Italians.

Several warriors even declared they had not been beaten, but were returning to Addis Ababa because they were ordered back by the Ethiopian government. They said they were willing to return to the front and defend their country.

Several chiefs who went to war five months ago riding bravely and proudly at the head of their armies on prancing chargers returned afoot, while seriously wounded soldiers clung to their battle-jaded mounts.

Advance 87 Miles

Rome, April 28.—An advance of 87 miles toward Addis Ababa by an Italian motorized column pushing southward from Dessye was announced by the government today along with official news of victorious fighting in the south and submissions in the northeast.

Announcement was contained in the daily official military communique, which was read eagerly by the public in view of the absence of the usual daily statement yesterday. Today's bulletin was unusually comprehensive.

Police Sergeant Killed By Bandits During Gun Fight

Bandits Shoot It Out With Indianapolis Police And Make Getaway

(International News Service)

INDIANAPOLIS, April 28.—Police Sergt. Richard Rivers was dead today, the victim of the bandit quartette that robbed a Lima, O., jewelry store of $15,000 in gems yesterday.

Several hours after the robbery Indianapolis police were tipped off that the gang had driven here to have wounds received in a gun battle with Lima police dressed. The informer gave police the location of the hideout.

Last night police surrounded the house and the four bandits came out shooting. They shot their way through the police cordon and fled southward in an automobile, killing Rivers in the gun battle.

Earlier Patrolmen Ed. Swaney of the Lima police received a broken neck when the squad car in which he was pursuing the bandits crashed into another car. He was reported near death.

WORK ON VIADUCT AT EDENBURG WILL BE STARTED SOON

girder nearly 150 feet long, 1.35 miles of highway, reinforcing, surfacing and shoulder grading, and a spur.

Needed Improvement

The Edenburg viaduct has been a badly needed improvement for many years. Located in Mahoning township on U. S. Route 224, it is one of the few major improvements needed on the Benjamin Franklin Highway, a short route between the east and west.

Three dangerous grade crossings will be eliminated by the new viaduct and travel from New Castle will be expected and safeguarded. New Castle is almost the geographical center between New York and Chicago and one of the few hazards on the route between the two metropoli has been the situation at Edenburg. This will now be eliminated.

The Holmes Construction Company is well known in Lawrence County having built many miles of road, among them the Perry Highway.

No announcement as to the date of the start of the work is made but it is anticipated that it will be within the immediate future.

President Enters Georgia Primary

Sign Papers Necessary To Become Candidate At White House

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—President Roosevelt today signed the necessary papers to make him a candidate in Georgia's presidential primary early in June.

Senator Russell (D) of Georgia, and Marion H. Allen, Roosevelt manager in George, brought the papers to the White House.

Referring to the recent regulation promulgated in Georgia requiring each presidential primary candidate in Georgia to post $10,000, Russell said the money would be forthcoming. Whence it would come or how much of it already has been raised, the Georgian declined to state.

The regulation, engineered by the state executive committee and allegedly a move sponsored by Governor Eugene Talmadge, arch critic of the administration, stipulates that if there is but one candidate, the $10,000 is returnable. In case of a contest, however, the money is kept by the state.

included in his formal call, in addition to 10 others, some of them not mentioned previously. The chief executive broke with his "Harmony" committee in asking for legislation to provide flood control and funds for the relief of overcrowded conditions in state institutions.

Most important of the "new" subjects presented were the governor's recommendations for a constitutional amendment to permit more frequent submission of amendments to the state constiution to the electorate, and for appropriations to aid financially distressed school districts.

In addition to these subjects, Governor Earle asked for unemployment relief appropriations for the remainder of the year, including an allocation to the state veterans' commission to provide relief for needy Pennsylvania veterans or their dependents. Last year's veterans' allocation of $350,000 has been exhausted, the governor said.

OFFICER HALTS BRIDGE LEAP

Eighteen Year Old Girl Is Rescued By Alertness Of Motor Cop

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—Tired, hungry and discouraged, Mary Lou Wallace, 18, was snatched to safety by an alert motorcycle policeman early today when she attempted to leap 200 feet from a bridge railing into the water of the Monongahela.

"No man had anything to do with it," she protested in Central police court where she was charged with disorderly conduct. "I'm not in love. I was hungry and discouraged."

The girl said she came here three days ago from West Virginia, had no friends, no job, nothing to eat for three days and only 11 cents in her purse.

NURSES ALUMNI HEARS TALK BY DR. BISSELL

An interesting and informative talk on the "New Hospital Plan," was given by Dr. W. W. Bissell on Monday evening, before members of the Jameson-Shenango Alumni Nurses Association, when they assembled in the Solarium of Jameson Memorial hospital for the regular monthly event at 7 o'clock. Miss Matilda Sobeski presided as hostess.

Dr. Bissell stressed the benefits derived from the "prepaid hospital care" plan and went into detail on many interesting facts, concerning the system.

At the conclusion of a short routine period of business when items of interest were given consideration, plans were formulated for a benefit dance which is to be held on Friday evening, May 22, in The Castleton Hotel ballroom. Miss Jessie Kildoo was named chairman of the committee on arrangements, including Mrs. Irene Casillo, Mrs. Louise Isaacs, Grace Parker, Betty Blackford, Elizabeth Taylor, Mary Margaret Adams and Margaret Laurel.

Indications point to making this occasion, a gala celebration, with a popular orchestra furnishing pleasing music. In addition to the dance feature, card tables will be provided for those desiring to devote their attention to contests in bridge or 500, throughout the evening.

Lo-Cour-Chee Club

Lo-Cour-Chee club members were entertained in the home of Mrs. Earl White, Ray street, Friday evening, with the usual round of card playing featuring the leisure hours. Mrs. Willis Campbell, Mrs. William Gregor and Mrs. Thomas McClurg carried off the honor score prizes. The serving of a dainty repast concluded festivities.

On Thursday, May 7, Mrs. Thomas McClurg, of Croton avenue will be hostess.

Junior Council And Hadassah

This evening, members of the Jewish Junior Council and Junior Hadassah May dance committee, will hold a joint meeting at the home of Esther Grossman on Laurel boulevard, for the purpose of rounding out plans for their May dance event.

Chapter Of Youth

On Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, members of the Chapter of Youth will meet in the Tigers Club rooms on South Mill street, for an important session.

MUSIC CLUB HEARS PROGRAM OF MERIT

The Music Club enjoyed a program of genuine merit Monday evening in Highland U. P. church with Mrs. Jay L. Reed as hostess.

The audience manifested its pleasure and friendliness throughout the evening as the technical and musical values of the program were given excellent expositions.

The program began with an informative talk by Joseph F. Replogle on "Present and Future in High School Music," after which Camilla Smith, pianist, played with taste, the Second Movement of the Beethoven Sonata Pathetique and Mendelssohn's Rondo Capriccioso. The string quartet from the Senior High School followed with a Minuet and Adagio by Haydn, which were played with a fine blending of tone and unity of feeling. The quartet is composed of Arvo Aho, first violin, Vance Dufford, second violin, Paul Paupenhausen, viola and Mary Conrad, violincello.

In a group of works of Bach, played with clarity and unassailable justice, Miriam Johnson of Ellwood City, and Elizabeth Nicholson Eiler of Pittsburgh, revealed the expressive intent and quality of the music. Included in the group were In Dir ist Freude, an organ choral-prelude arranged for piano by Sangeish, the Sarabande in A Minor and an Invention in F, arranged by Cyril Scott.

Mrs. Clinton D. Keagy, soprano, accompanied by Mrs. Alan B. Davis sang admirably, Elisa's Dream from Wagner's "Lohengrin," after which Miriam Johnson and Elizabeth Nicholson Eiler closed the program with the Poldini arrangement of the Schubert Impromptu in E Flat.

Ushers for the evening were Martha McGill and Mrs. Clifford Propst. On Saturday afternoon, May 23 at 2 o'clock the Junior program will be given with Ruth Drescher and Margaret Reeher as hostesses.

The final program of the year will be given on May 25 when the club will present its Spring Choral program which will include choruses for male, female and mixed voices, under the direction of Albert A. Taylor. Mrs. Burr Rogers will be hostess for this meeting which will also be held in the Highland church.

1936 Sewing Circle

1936 Sewing Circle will be received Thursday evening, in the home of Mrs. Joseph Cungini, Blunston Ave.

ALBERTA MAY REEHER IS ENGAGED TO MARRY

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Reeher, of County Line street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Alberta May, to William Leroy Beveridge, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., son of Mrs. William D. Beveridge, of Salem, N. Y.

LE DEJEUNER CLUB HAS DINNER PARTY

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan, of East Washington street, entertained associates of the Le Dejeuner club in their home at a beautifully appointed 7 o'clock dinner in their home. Spring flowers were used in an attractive decorative arrangement throughout the rooms and a cluster of the same adorned the center of the dining table, where a delectable menu was served.

Afterwards contests in cards claimed attention of the assemblage with lovely trophies going to Mrs. Leon J. Lawton and John Morgan. The traveling award fell to Mrs. Jack Melvin. A short period of conversation ensued, until time to depart.

Plans were completed for a 1:30 o'clock luncheon to be held Thursday, May 14. Mrs. A. Hoyland, of East street, will be hostess to members on this date.

LOCAL QUOTARIANS GOING TO BUTLER

This evening several Quotarians will journey to Butler to attend a birthday party which will be given by the Butler Quota club, in the Nixon hotel. In the group will be Mrs. Reva Gormley, Misses Mae Cummings, Lenore Taylor, Martha Bigley, Mary R. Clarke, Lila Henshaw of this city, and Lois Fenton of New Wilmington.

Monday evening's regular program in the Elks club was postponed owing to the death of J. H. Moore, father of Miss Neva Moore, Quotarian president.

ANNUAL DINNER FOR WILLING WORKERS

Plans are complete for the annual dinner party, to be held Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock by members of the Willing Workers Class of the First Congregational church.

The affair will take place at the Y. W. C. A. Green Room, and after the serving, an informal social period will be featured.

Birthday Honored

Friday evening, April 24, Mr. and Mrs. John Balint entertained a group of girls in honor of their daughter, Dorothy Mae, the occasion being her thirteenth birthday anniversary. The hours were from 6:30 until 9 o'clock and a program of games and appealing contests held attention of the assemblage. Those winning prizes, included Maxine McKenzie, Patricia Loy, Mary Skundor and Aurora Ambrus.

A delicious lunch was served with appointments being carried out in tones of pink and white. Mrs. Balint was assisted by another daughter, Hazel, with the menu.

The guest of honor was the recipient of many pretty gifts, as mementoes of the day.

M. S. S. Bridge

Sylvia Zanoni was a pleasing hostess Monday evening, when she entertained the M. S. S. Bridge club in her home on Finch street. Dancing, chat and games were amusements, the club token falling to Mary Sansosti. A daintily appointed collation was served to the several guests among whom was Trena Bosco.

On Friday evening of this week, Angelyn Zonglose of Home street, will be hostess to the club at another assembly.

Prominent Local Speakers At Woman's Club On Monday

Declaring for a thorough and sensible study of war as a direct means for cure of the so-called 'madness", Rev. J. J. McIlvaine, D. D. of this city, gave a stirring and inspirational main address on "World Relations" to the Woman's club Monday afternoon, in Highland U. P. church. He was introduced by Mrs. J. L. Matthews, vice chairman of the International Relations department which had charge of the program at 2:30. Hostesses were Mrs. J. Q. McBride and Mrs. W. W. Wallace.

At 1:30, two other prominent local men were heard, Dr. H. C. Harper who spoke on "Cancer", and Dr. Donald Eckles, who discussed, "Birth Control". The Department of Welfare supervised the earlier program, Mrs. Harry Dinsmore, chairman, introducing the latter speaker, and Mrs. J. C. Leohner, vice chairman, the former.

Dr. McIlvaine, himself a Legionaire, spoke at random, as he said, giving his own ideas about the present critical war situation and conflict in Europe. He sees inevitable war abroad within five years, due: (1) overpopulation; (2) need for raw materials to supply needs of the peoples; (3) conflicting commercial policies, including tariff, trade and transportation problems; (4) greed for power.

He pictured the friction among foreign powers; Mussolini, and his dream to restore the Roman Empire; Hitler and his idea of saving the German people and the development of the German Empire; Stalin and his control of Russia destinies; present day leaders in France, Japan and other big nations.

Vividly portraying horrors of the World War, he made the emphatic statement, 'War never settled anything; it has unsettled everything". While admitting the present situation is dark, it is not hopeless, according to Dr. McIlvaine, for millions of peoples in all the countries love peace and hate war, even as great leaders of American wars.

Dr. McIlvaine stressed the importance of teaching true patriotism in America, as against the false, the former embodying ideals of fairness, generosity and liberality; appreciation of our heritage for which the American flag is symbolic, and finally, an aim to make the world a family of contended nations with a view of "ultimate peace on earth to men of good will."

To make his talk more realistic, the speaker read from a letter sent recently to him and Mrs. McIlvaine from Dr. Robert N. Montgomery, a brother of the latter, who with his wife is now traveling abroad. Dr. Montgomery is president of Muskingum college, at New Concord, O. Writing from Italy, the visitors pictured a day in Naples where they were impressed by the poverty of the people. It was significant that in a whole day's drive, they did not see one well dressed person. There are very few automobiles, gasoline being too high priced, if obtainable at all.

Later, they visited Palestine and then expected to travel on to Germany and Russia before returning.

Mrs. McIlvaine was present at yesterday's meeting, and had charge of an unusual "museum" of rare articles from far-away countries, one of which had a most interesting bit of history. It was a scarab tie pin set in pure gold which had been given to Mrs. McIlvaine's mother on her travels, by the present Queen of Ethiopia.

Another exhibit was the 1935 press project recognized by the National Council on the Cause and Cure of War, which was in charge of Mrs. W. L. Cosel, chairman of Lawrence County Council.

On equal importance, and as worthy of serious consideration as Dr. McIlvaine's address, were the talks of the other two speakers of the afternoon, Drs. Harper and Eckles who necessarily spoke briefly.

In his discussion of 'Cancer" Dr. Harper told of methods used for cancer control, especially a program of education as adopted by the American Society of Cancer Control. He emphasized the fact that when the public realizes that much of the high mortality from cancer is preventable, value of this program should be easily manifest.

Cancer is curable, the same as tuberculosis, diabetes and many other human ills, but must be recognized and attacked early, properly and vigorously. Several conditions enter vitally, into successful treatment of the horrible malady; (1) early recognition; (2) prompt removal by surgical interference; (3) by irradiation with radium, and finally X-Ray treatments.

Stress was laid on necessity of close co-operation of the patient with attending physician in effecting a cure.

On the subject of "Birth Control" Dr. Eckles mentioned the growing importance of the problem and its political and medical implications. He emphasized the fact that birth control measures constitute a medical problem and should not be commercialized.

Woman's club will have its next meeting on May 11, in Highland church, with the department of Conservation arranging the program.

KIRKER-PYLE WEDDING MONDEY

A quiet marriage took place Monday morning at 11:30, at New Cumberland, W. Va., when Jean Kirker, daughter of Mrs. Nettie Kirker and the late Frank Kirker, of Hamilton street, became the bride of Frank Pyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Pyle, of Meyer avenue.

The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Don P. Hawkins, pastor of the Christian church. Attendants were Dorothy Fletcher and Frank Miller, both of this city. The bride was attired in a navy blue ensemble with harmonizing accessories, and her flowers were gardenias in a shoulderette. Miss Fletcher wore a brown ensemble.

Last evening following their return to New Castle, the newlyweds were tendered a dinner at 6 o'clock, in the Pyle home on Meyer Ave. Covers for eight members of the immediate family and attendants were arranged at a pretty table decorated with spring blooms and tall tapers. The hostess was assisted in serving by her mother, Mrs. H. R. Mershimer.

The bride and groom will make their home with the latter's mother on Hamilton street. The bride attended Senior High school and for some time has been connected with the Blau store on Long avenue. The groom also attended New Castle High, being graduated from Windsor-Walkerville Technical School, at Walkerville, Ontario, Canada. He is employed with the A. S. and T. company in New Castle.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Pyle are well and popularly known among a large circle of friends who are manifesting their esteem by means of handsome gifts which are being received by the young couple.

Jolly Twelve Club

Jolly Twelve club members will be entertained by Mrs. Charles Gardner, of East Brook at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. B. McConnell on Round street, Thursday evening.

RUTH FERRY WEDS JOHN M. ETTER

Mrs. Lucy Ferry, 821 East Washington street, today announced the marriage of her daughter, Ruth, to John M. Etter, Gary, Ind., the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Etter, 508½ Spruce street.

The ceremony took place on Monday, April 27, at New Cumberland, W. Va., with the Rev. J. R. McDivitt, Jr., pastor of the New Cumberland Presbyterian church, officiating.

The couple will reside in Gary, Ind., where Mr. Etter is affiliated with the American Sheet & Tin Plate company. Both Mr. and Mrs. Etter are well known throughout the New Castle district.

RABBI KATZ GIVES ADDRESS ON "MOTHER"

Featuring Monday evening's monthly meeting of the Tifereth Israel Sisterhood, held in the Tifereth Israel Synagogue, South Jefferson street, was a most enjoyable address on "Mother", given by Rabbi Pinchos Katz. About 35 persons were in attendance to hear the address which proved most interesting.

During the customary business session, plans were made for an annual outing to be held on Sunday, July 12. At an appropriate hour, dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses: Mrs. A. Shapiro, Mrs. David Levine, Mrs. Anna Balter, Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, Mrs. Cecelia Pittler, Mrs. Jake Aronson. Miss Betty Aronson assisted. Mrs. Goldman, of Boston, Mass., was a special guest.

The May meeting of the organization has been called off, the date of the next session being set for Monday, June 8.

Hugus, of Highland avenue. Mrs. McDowell is a former resident, widow of the late Rev. J. Q. A. McDowell who was pastor of the Second U. P. church for many years.

YUCATAN CLUB MEMBERS GUESTS

Monday evening, the regular gathering of Yucatan Club members was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. White, Hazelcroft avenue. The hours were pleasantly whiled away with card contests, seven tables being in play, with lovely awards going to those winning distinction afterwards.

A delicious lunch was served as the concluding feature, with seasonal appointments prevailing.

REV. R. B. WITHERS HONORED AT PARTY

Members of the Greenwood Methodist Episcopal church gave their pastor, Rev. R. B. Withers, a complete surprise when on Monday evening they gathered at his home on Garfield avenue to celebrate his birthday.

They passed the evening very enjoyably with social chat and games. The high point of the program was the presentation of a most beautifully decorated birthday cake and the very practical gift of a set of new automobile tires to the honored minister.

Ellis Shaffer made the presentation in behalf of the congregation.

At the close the committee in charge, composed of women of the church, served a delightful birthday lunch.

Rev. Withers received hearty felicitations from everyone. He was given a number of other nice gifts in addition to those from the congregation as a whole.

GRETCHEN SMITH NEW SUB JUNIOR PRESIDENT

Sub Juniors met Monday evening with Dorothy Blim, of Logan avenue, to elect officers for the new year. Results were: Gretchen Smith, president; Donna Jean Beall, first vice president; Sarah McKee, second vice; Jane Allen, recording secretary; Burdeen Johns, corresponding secretary; Betty Cole, treasurer.

After the business was transacted a program on France was instructive and entertaining with these members taking part: Mildred Gill, Betty Ramsey, Jeanice Finch, Sarah McKee and Gretchen Smith.

The next meeting will be in the form of a dinner at the Castleton on Thursday evening, May 14.

VETERAN JOE RILEY HONORED AT PARTY

One of the most pleasing events of the season took place Monday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Price on Frank avenue, when a party was given for the hostess' brother, Joseph Riley, who is visiting here from Rutland Heights, Mass., where he is a patient at the United States Veteran hospital.

The evening was enjoyably spent with games and the guest of honor was presented with a handsome gift. An appetizing lunch was served by Mrs. Price, assisted by Mrs. John Morrissey and Mrs. David Riley.

As this was the first visit back home of Mr. Riley since 1932, the many relatives who were guests, were happy to have him with them again, showing their regard and best wishes in the gift presented.

Plaingrove Classes Gather

The Sunday School classes of the Plaingrove Presbyterian church, taught by Mrs. Glenn and Miss Gertrude Eppinger, had their quarterly party on Friday evening at the home of Mary Elizabeth McCommon.

Miss Bettymae McComb was a special guest.

Bingo and games were the diversions of the evening. At a late hour lunch was served by the teachers and mother of the hostess. All had a very enjoyable evening and look forward to another class party in the near future.

Pearson-Pander Marriage

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Georgia Pearson, daughter of Mrs. Laura and the late John Pearson of Pulaski, to Raymond L. Pander, son of Mrs. Jessie and Harry Pander, this city, which took place on April 4, this year, at Wellsburg, West Va. The Rev. Frayer officiated, at his Wellsburg home. The couple had as their attendants, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnston of Cannonsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Pander will make their home in New Castle.

Woman Sleeps 5 Years Sitting Upright In Bed

A lady said she couldn't breathe when she slept unless she was propped up in bed with pillows. This was due to the large quantity of gas that formed in her stomach from undigested food, causing a croked-up, breathless feeling. She hadn't enjoyed a night of sound rest in five years. Then she took the double-acting stomach alkalizer, called WHITE SWALLOW, which is the new, scientific formula of FOUR different remedies for the relief of common stomach distress. This lady said she slept like a normal person the second night; now her food digests properly and the breathlessness and gas bloating has vanished.

Quick Relief

WHITE SWALLOW neutralizes acids in the stomach, expels gas, relieves pain, bloat, swelling and headaches. Relief comes immediately. It is not habit-forming like soda, and pleasant to take. Settles the stomach at once.

Costs a Trifle

You can have this relief for less than 1c a dose. Therefore, it would not be sensible to continue suffering. We are advertising this new, scientific remedy because it has helped nearly everyone who has taken it.

SPECIAL SESSION CALLED

GOVERNOR EARLE has issued his long indicated call for a special session of the Pennsylvania State Legislature, the session beginning on next Monday.

It has long been anticipated that a special session would be required to provide for the relief needs of the state, and when the session was first discussed, it was believed that it would be a brief one, and would take such action as was necessary to provide for relief.

However, when the call was finally issued by the governor, it provided a list of some seventeen different subjects to be taken up at the May 4 session, including many not affiliated with the idea of state relief.

There is every chance that the session, now that the primaries are out of the way, may run wild with politics, and that instead of a brief session it may be an extended and prolonged one.

Relief must be provided, and the session is justified on that score, it is admitted, but necessity of adding a large number of other matters to the scope of the session, is not so readily accepted.

We are probably in for a long session of political maneuvering at Harrisburg.

WHY NOT USE BOTH HANDS?

The Viennese psychologist, Dr. Alfred Adler, who says that forty per cent of the people are born left-handed, naturally concludes that it is a mistake to force a child to use his right hand when instinct prompts him to use the left.

Apart from any question of percentages, his theory is perfectly logical. Since we have two hands, the inescapable inference is that we are intended to use both. Actual left-handedness may be awkward at times, and this may well be corrected if possible. But insistence upon the predominant use of the right hand is none the less ill advised. As Dr. Adler points out, we use both feet without distinction in walking. Why should we make ourselves practically one-handed?

The right hand is certainly the more convenient for the use of the pen or the sword. On the other hand, the left is almost always applied to the fork. In many instances the whole left side, eye, hand and foot, is stronger than the right, in which case it will be observed how naturally it is given to lifting weights, for example. A painter or a draughtsman will frequently use both hands indiscriminately, to the advantage of his work. Why should the all but exclusive use of the right hand be forced on children by precept and example?

Charles Reade, who was nothing if not a reformer, once wrote a vigorous essay on this subject, pointing out that parents or nurses were doing harm by interference with natural impulses. His conclusion was then regarded as fantastic. Now science vindicates him.

SAFETY CAMPAIGN WINNING

A cheery bit of news is that issued by the State Department of Revenue showing that motor vehicle accidents in the state decreased 4.5 per cent during March as compared with February.

This news is interesting because it affects not only the motorists but pedestrians as well and shows that the campaign for highway safety is bearing fruit.

Those of us who are pedestrians, however, must watch our step more closely as our record for the month of March is not as good as that in which motor cars alone were involved.

Accidents involving pedestrians, says John B. Kelly, revenue secretary, increased eight per cent during the month and "clearly indicates that greater care must be observed both by the pedestrian and the motorist."

The decrease in the number of accidents is all the more remarkable when it is remembered that without question more automobiles were on the road during March than in February, when for the most part weather conditions were so severe that many persons gave up driving except in emergencies.

A fair percentage of the driving in March likewise was done on roads made almost impassible by floods and many times risks were taken in order to get supplies through to flooded districts.

We should strive to make an even better record as the ideal driving season nears and we must remember that full co-operation is necessary if the accident record is to be further reduced and to this end Secretary Kelly urges widespread organization of local units of the Governor's Highway Safety Council.

Haile Selassie doubtless realizes that if this latest European crisis is settled peaceably, no matter how it is settled, the settlement is going to cost him plenty.

"If these Ethiopian atrocities were stopped," said Baron Aloisi, of Italy, in reply to a complaint that Italy was using poison gas against their African opponents, "the war might be conducted on a more humane plane." Well, for that matter, if Ethiopia had surrendered to Italy without resistance, it wouldn't have been necessary to have a war at all.

WHEN HE RETURNED HOME—!

A lady was entertaining her friend's small son.

"Are you sure you can cut your meat?" she asked, after watching his struggles.

"Oh, yes," he replied, without looking up from his plate. "We often have it as tough as this at home."

A RUDE SHOCK

A British tourist journeyed from Cairo to the Pyramids. Fired by romantic tales, he felt sure he had reached the land where nothing savoring of western civilization would be allowed to disturb the Arabian Nights atmosphere.

When he reached the Pyramids and was hoisted to a camel by a picturesque Arab, he quivered with delight. But he had a rude awakening. "What's your camel's name?" he asked the Arab.

"Greta Garbo," was the answer.

AH—THAT'S IT!

"Was he such a poor man when she married him?"

"No, he was a multi-millionaire."

LAS VEGAS, N. M., April 28

ONE COAL deposit in Colfax County, if all the power it contains could be actually applied, would run all the machinery in the United States for a century.

If all the power locked up in the ATOMS that make up the thirty thousand million tons of coal could be released and utilized, that power would run the present machinery of this nation for one million years with plenty of power left over.

CROSSING the continent on the surface seems slow after the round trip by air, leaving New York at four in the afternoon, breakfasting in San Francisco next morning at eight-thirty.

But rail travel has one great advantage—you see the country and keep track of it. In the air, clouds look much alike, except when they develop what the pilot calls "angry lightning."

THIS TRAIN stops at Shopton, Iowa. You see the Mississippi, very wide just there, feel that you are beginning to reach "out west" and are glad to see each little house and big barn as you go.

ON THE platform at Marceline, Mo., stands a sample of American energy, defying depression, a very small girl about fourteen. The young lady carries a pasteboard box filled with neckties, offering them for sale, eager and courageously.

"My mother makes these neckties," she says, "and I help her. They are very good, they will last as long as you live."

The last statement, considering her customer, might be true.

Twenty-five cents, some silk, fifty cents. Sorry that she cannot change a dollar, she suggests, successfully, that the entire dollar be invested.

"You can give them to friends, you know," says she.

Business over, "Say, mister, what do you do for a living?" Told that you write, she says, "That is my ambition too. I sent a novel to Good Housekeeping Magazine, my mother reads it, but they sent it back with a nice letter. That is just luck, you know. I have written three more novels.

That young lady will write good novels, and they will be printed.

JUST NOW, which is the next morning the heavy train puffs and pants up the steep eastern side of the Rocky Mountains to Raton, New Mexico, six thousand and thirty-five feet above sea level.

At the front end, two enormous locomotives pull, at the rear another pushes, all pouring out thick clouds of black smoke.

On the winding, well-built road beside the railroad track, small automobiles, carrying whole families, often with bedding on one end, a dog or a goat on the other running board shoot up the hill, despising it.

It is difficult to think of man and his petty accomplishments, with the great mountains around you, but you must do it, for all that men will ever have is what they make out of this earth.

CONSIDER how differently POWER has been applied. Once the Indians walked up these trails, their squaws carrying the load. Then oxen and horses wearily struggled and panted upward, stopping often to breathe.

Then came the marvelous steam engine, dragging its thousands of tons.

Then the more marvelous automobile, defying gravity, reducing the cost of travel to almost nothing.

Then the airplane that starts its journey ten thousand feet up, flies over mountains, trains and automobiles, with a supreme contempt for lakes and rivers.

What man can imagine he can do and his descendants will fly around this earth in the twenty-four hours in which the sun seems to fly around it.

MAN'S REAL possession is POWER whatever form it may take, his own muscles, tamed buffaloes, expansion of steam, the explosion of gas, invisible mysterious power of electricity. Power does all, digs the ore, changes the ore into steel, edects skyscrapers, digs the canals and ditches. It will never be lacking.

This train now rolling down the western slope of the Rockies, leaving Raton behind, runs through Colfax County, and that one country of New Mexico possesses coal deposits of THIRTY THOUSAND MILLION TONS.

Remember that when anybody asks:

"How rich is the United States, how much power is in that one coal deposit, how much in the billions of tons of lignite in the Dakotas, how much in the oceans of oil that lie deep in the earth?"

MEN WASTE their power now, fortunately if they retain and actually use ten per cent of the energy consumed. Steadily methods improve to those "labor saving" devises that are the hope of civilization and the despair of fools.

The steam shovel has replaced the man with his pickax. Soon the man lying on his side in the coal mine will give way to machinery, reducing the coal to dust, shooting it out of the mine in power, through

There is nothing that gives the average man as much pleasure as shedding his overcoat in the spring. Among the other shedders are the dogs which cause a lot of worry when they strew their hair on the over-stuffed furniture and Persian rugs. Wise housewives can save their tempers by deferring house-cleaning until the dogs get through shedding.

A third ward citizen who has been interested in nudism but never tried it, says that from what he can learn, it is more popular among the women than the men. Well, it ought to be; what's a man going to do with his hands if he don't have pockets?

Newspaper owners in convention in New York spent considerable time dealing with the freedom of the press. In days gone by when we moulded our conduct along constitutional lines, we didn't have to bother about such matters. When we asked a girl to see her home and she said, "yes," we knew what to expect at the end of the journey.

ONE FOR THE BOOK

A young man working for a merchant asked for a raise. The man got out his pencil and started to figure. "There are 365 days in a year," he said. "You work eight hours a day, which makes 122 days that you work. There are 52 Sundays which leaves 70 days. Then there are thirteen legal holidays and three Jewish holidays, which leaves 54 days. You get one hour off for lunch, which makes 40 days, leaving just 14 days. Then I give you a two week vacation every year. Say, when in the heck do you work?"

Jack and Mary had been in love for three years, but there had been no mention of marriage. At last the girl thought it high time to throw out a gentle hint.

"Jack," she whispered shyly, "they are all saying we are going to be married soon."

"Are they?" said Jack. "What a joke it will be for them when they find out we aren't."

Sometimes we wonder whether we are having a nightmare, or are really in the wild and wooly west. Nearly every place we go we find boys running around with guns and pistols. Some of them are dressed like Indians, fringed leggin's and turkey feathers in their hats. It's pretty hard to get away from the cave man in us.

Good Taste

By FRANCINE MARKEL

By FRANCINE MARKEL

DEAR MISS MARKEL: This Spring, my daughter will go abroad for about three or four months. Can you suggest clothes for her to take along? She has two Spring suits, five blouses, two knitted dresses, two prints and a swagger coat. She expects to buy her Summer clothes while abroad. Will she need anything else?

Answer: She has sufficient daytime clothes for her voyage, as well as her travels after she lands in Europe. The passenger who travels light has fewer worries and a more leisure, for she does not have to spend endless hours attending to her excess baggage.

I hope her swagger coat is heavy, for she may encounter some chilly weather while in mid-ocean. She should also take along a pair of comfortable walking shoes for promenading the deck, and a beret or other tight-fitting hat that will not blow off.

If she intends to take advantage of the swimming pool one or two bathing suits should also be included in her wardrobe.

And evening clothes—two dinner dresses and a formal evening dress will be sufficient; or perhaps two dinner dresses having jackets that might be removed for decollete purposes.

Steiwer Talk Goes On.
Has Backing Of Powers.
Landon Gains Delegates.

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

AS THIS COLUMN remarked six weeks ago, wealthy powers-that-be in the Republican party have "decided" on Senator Frederick Steiwer of Oregon, as the Republican nominee. Others pooh-pooh this—but the wealthy powers-that-be still are for Senator Steiwer for president.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is reputed to be behind the movement for Senator Steiwer.

That movement may be too late, for Governor Alfred M. Landon of Kansas has been "cleaning up" on the delegates. If they "stay put" beyond the first ballot, Governor Landon will win the nomination. If not, Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, may win. If he cannot, in turn, obtain a majority, the swing will be toward the "dark horse" secretly picked — Senator Steiwer.

Senator Steiwer has this advantage—both the big money men and Senator Borah could compromise on him. Senator Borah is not averse to him.

MANEUVERS

There have been many back-stage maneuvers preceding the rise of the curtain on the Republican convention. In that respect, this convention resembles the Democratic convention of four years ago.

All that makes for an exciting play when the curtain does rise.

Eastern observers say that there is no question as to who is doing the most bossing. That person is J. Henry Roraback, Connecticut utilities magnate who directs from his office in Hartford. Charles Hilles, veteran New York political boss, works in concert with Roraback.

Hilles has had another adept politician, C. Bascomb Slemp, of Virginia, rounding up delegates in the south. Thus Roraback-Hilles-Slemp now have a bloc of 190 southern delegates for "trading" purposes. The chief purpose is to stop Landon and to force through a "favorable" candidate.

AND SNELL

Choice of Senator Steiwer as keynoter of the Republican convention is satisfactory to the groups opposing the Roraback-Hilles-Slemp combination in the convention. But the choice of Representative Bertrand H. Snell, of New York, as permanent chairman of the convention is not to their tastes.

Representative Snell is an ultra-conservative who is in thorough agreement with the Roraback-Hilles-Slemp group.

Furthermore, New York state is to have still another dominant figure in the convention—Representative James W. Wadsworth, who has been mentioned for the vice presidential nomination. Wadsworth likewise is ultra-conservative, although a shrewd vote getter, and a tactician of considerable ability.

Yes, the chief actors are putting on their robes. But who will play Caesar? And who will gain the upper hand as stage director? Some men would give a fortune to know.

LITTLE ORPHANT ANNIE REVISED

(With apologies to the beloved Riley)

Little Orphant Annie's come to our house to stay
Coz the revenue department's took her money all away.
For all the life insurance which was once her daddy's pride
Was swallowed up in taxes just the minute that he died.
He hoped to leave her plenty, so she wouldn't have a care,
But it took up every dollar to give Uncle Sam his share.
Now it isn't imps and witches that she sits and tells about
But the govern-munt 'at gits you Ef you
Don't
Watch
Out!

Once her daddy used to tell her he was working for the day
When she might be left an orphant an' he'd have to go away.
An' he never shirked his duty an' he never guzzled beer,
An' sometimes he wouldn't order from his tailor for a year.
He was saving up for Annie, as a father ought to do,
But the more he earned by working, more and more his taxes grew.
An inheritance was something he'd forgotten all about!
An' the govern-munt will git you Ef you
Don't
Watch
Out!

Onct Ohphant Annie's daddy had some money laid aside,
But the taxes saved by living were assessed the day he died.
They taxed him for the city and they taxed him for the state.
If they caught him staying even then they doubled up his rate.
An' sometimes it makes us wonder as we listen to her tale
If it pays to be successful? Aren't we better off to fail?
For with tax collectors trailing everybody round about.
The govern-munt will git you Ef you
Don't
Watch
Out!

Today's Yesterdays—April 28, 1794—Jehudi Ashum was born in Champlain, N. Y., destined to be the only American to establish a foreign nation—and remain an American. He was 28 and a Congregational minister, when he set up the colony in Africa for freed American slaves which became Liberia.

April 28, 1797—The most famous mutiny in maritime history broke out. Mutineers led by Clark Gable—I mean Fletcher Christian, rebelled against the discipline of Lieut. William Bligh and set the commander and 18 men adrift in a small boat in which they made a remarkable voyage to safety.

The Hollywood movie version makes it appear Bligh's official cruelty was extraordinary in the British navy and that the mutiny caused whipping of sailors to be ended. It wasn't extrordinary, and sailors continued to be lashed for another 100 years.

April 28, 1817—Richard Rush, 37-year old Philadelphian who was minister to London, signed for the United States the pact with Canada (known as the Rush-Bagot treaty), which created the longest undefended frontier in the world.

There is no parallel elsewhere for the 119 years old unbroken peace between the two neighbors resulting from the treaty.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

GOOD OLD TIMES

Gone are the good old days
In mansion, cot and hall,
Of roller towels, and roving tubs,
Or, maybe, none at all.

Dim candle light, or kerosene
Could not be burned high or low;
We cannot now subdue the bulb
To a sentimental glow.

Then no blare of radio;
"Wrong number," none could say;
If we wished to speak with friends
We just drove out their way.

No auto menace froze us then—
There were none at that day;
Big Dobbin brought us safely home—
Unless he ran away.

It's too bad the Italians are licking Haile Selassie's amateur army. They'll never be able to turn professional now.

Bible Thought For Today

For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was anything kept secret, but that it should come aboard.—St. Mark 4:22.

Hints On Etiquette

A hostess should lead the conversation when her guests are strangers to one another. After the usual introductions she should try to steer the conversation into channels that might interest the entire group.

INDEFINITE THREAT

"Boy I'm scared! I just got a letter from a man, telling me he'd shoot me if I didn't stay away from his wife."

"Well, all you have to do is keep away from her."

"Yeah, but he didn't sign his name."

Westwood Takes Case To Highest Court In State

Former Justice Of Peace Makes Appeal To State Supreme Court

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—Former Justice of the Peace James J. Westwood has carried his legal battle to escape a life sentence in the penitentiary for the slaying of his wife, Martha, to the state supreme court.

Attorneys for the former squire and political leader filed a petition for a new trial with the supreme court prothonotary. No reasons were filed but Attorney William H. Coleman said these will be drawn up later. Westwood's attorneys said it had not been determined whether he will take a pauper's oath, thus thrusting the cost of the appeal upon Allegheny county.

Mrs. Westwood was shot as she lay in bed in her home in the McKees Rocks "bottoms". Westwood maintained he was innocent and presented an alibi but the commonwealth produced testimony designed to show he killed his wife in order to be free to carry on romances with other women.

INJURES ANKLE STEPPING FROM CAR

Mrs. Bessie Payne, of South Jefferson street, was brought to the Jameson Memorial hospital at 12:45 last night, suffering with injuries to her ankle, sustained when she stepped from an automobile in the Seventh Ward. The injury was sustained at 9:30 in the evening, it was stated.

The News By Mail, One Year $5.00

On Court House Hill

There is no race suicide in the ranks of some who are filing applications for naturalization papers. In one day last week each of two applicants reported nine children.

Forty-nine instruments of all kinds were filed at the register and recorder's office last week. Of this number twenty-five were deeds and ten were mortgages. The deeds included some sheriff sales.

Among the cases listed for argument at the coming session of argument court is that of Richard R. Lewis, who was convicted of irregularities in connection with the last November election, and who has made an application for a new trial.

An interpleader has been filed in the case of Jesse B. Syling against Tony Dittka, of Wayne township, whose personal property was seized by the sheriff. Mrs. Telko Dittka claims that she is the owner of the property. She says that she bought it with money which she brought from Poland. A hearing will be held to determine the ownership.

It is claimed that 13 per cent of the titles to lands in Pennsylvania are defective, because they fail to show a transfer of ownership from the commonwealth to the first individual owner. There are said to be a few of this kind in Lawrence county. However, it is not likely that they will give any trouble.

The average property carrying a loan by the Home Owners Loan Corporation is salable at a price exceeding the mortgage held by the corporation, according to figures from different sections where sales have been made. So far there have only been two sales in Lawrence county. In cases where sales are made if the property sells for more than the mortgage, the home owner is given the balance.

Will of the late Rev. Robert G. Roscamp has been admitted to probate at the register and recorder's office. To his daughter-in-law, Annie W. Roscamp, he left $2,000; to a granddaughter, Ruth Irene Roscamp, $500; to a niece, Mary Jane Clark, of St. Catherines, Ont., Canada, $1,000; to George Clark, son of Mary Jane Clark, a gold watch. The remainder of his estate is to be divided equally between his daughter-in-law, Annie W. Roscamp, and niece, Mary Jane Clark. Former Judge J. Norman Martin is named as executor.

Vacancy caused by the death of John Pearson, a tipstaff at the court house, has not yet been filled. The duties of a tipstaff are to look after maintaining order in the court room and take charge of juries when they retire to the jury room. The tipstaff usually sits on a chair outside the jury room. If a jury wishes to communicate with the court it is the tipstaff who carries the message. The jobs are generally given to men of advanced years, or those who are unable to do manuel work.

According to word from Harrisburg, Representative Marshall L. Shepard, a negro minister from Philadelphia, will offer most of the invocations at the opening of the daily sessions of the forthcoming special session of the legislature. Rev. Shepard is now the only minister member of the house. At the last session he shared the work of offering invocations with Representative Frank W. Ruth, of Berks county who is now seeking a seat in the senate.

Under the will of the late Mary A. McClelland, of Plaingrove township, a niece, Mrs. Lola Eppinger, is to receive seven-tenths of decedent's estate; Mrs. Mary O. Winder, another niece, two-tenths, and a nephew, R. W. Breckenridge, one-tenth. Charles Eppinger, of Plaingrove, is named as executor.

Will Present Two Shakespearean Plays At High School

"Merchant Of Venice" And "Hamlet" At School Auditorium On April 30

Sponsored by the English department of the Senior high school, two Shakespearean dramas will be presented by the James Hendrickson and Claire Bruce Company on April 30, it was announced today. In the afternoon the company will present the "Merchant of Venice" and in the evening "Hamlet." The plays will be presented in the high school auditorium.

The James Hendrickson and Claire Bruce Company is composed of well known Shakespearean players who have a record of nine successful seasons back of them. They have selected the two plays mentioned because of their popularity among all the Shakespearean dramas.

Miss Frances McClaren, head of the English department believes that high school students of today have seen all too little of the Bard of Avon's works, some of them have never seen them as a matter of fact. Because the plays should be a part of every high school student's education, the players have been secured for April 30.

The plays will be open to the public as well as the student body. Student admissions in the afternoon for the "Merchant of Venice" will be 26 cents, including tax, and adults 55 cents. The afternoon production starts at 2 o'clock. The evening prices are students 37 cents, and adults 55 cents. This performance starts at 8 o'clock.

March Accidents Take 111 Lives

Department Of Labor Presents Statistics For The Past Month

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 28.—Industrial accidents took the lives of 111 workers in Pennsylvania during March, the department of labor and industry reported today.

Contrasted to the 111 fatal accidents in the state, there were 8,118 non-fatal accidents, the department announced. Accidents were 2.2 per cent lower than the previous month's total of 8,410 but 8.9 per cent higher than the 7,559 accidents recorded during March of 1935.

The month-to-month decrease, it was explained, was caused principally by transportation equipment, anthracite mining and state municipal establishments. A 9.8 per cent decrease in the number of accidents to anthracite miners, the department pointed out, was largely responsible for the downward swing in all industries.

Thirty-three anthracite miners were killed during the month, while a total of 1,380 accidents were reported, compared with 1,530 for the previous period.

In the bituminous fields 13 miners were killed and 1,171 injured, a total increase over February of 20, or 1.7 per cent.

Roosevelt Plan Attack Target

U. S. Chamber Of Commerce Speakers Assail Unemployment Scheme

SECRETARY ROPER TO MAKE REPLY

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Four United States chamber of commerce speakers today showered verbal bombs on the efforts of President Roosevelt to put unemployed millions back at work.

And meanwhile the chamber itself, mouthpiece and dynamo for organized business, set forth on a reemployment program all its own. Acting under provisions af a resolution adopted by the board of directors, president Harper Sibley picked a special committee to study and survey reemployment needs and possibilities. Names of committee members were to be made public later.

Today's sessions of the 24th annual meeting of the chamber's some 2,000 delegates were primarily given over to discussion of unemployment, its relief and elmination. During the day, the caustic criticism of the chamber delegates was to be answered by a member of the Roosevelt cabinet—secretary of commerce Daniel C. Roper.

Lewis H. Brown, president of the Johns-Mansville Corporation, New York City, led the attack on Roosevelt reemployment methods for the chamber. He and a trio of business leaders from as many different sections of the country derided the employment program of the present administration as an expensive failure, and a futile waste of the peoples money.

Wins Renown As Rescuer Of Cat

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—A shinny up a pole and a tear in his pants has won for city fireman W. F. Baird the American Red Cross Star Animal Relief emblem, given in recognition of his rescue of a helpless cat.

Baird, recalling how he skidooed up the 50-foot tree, was a little surprised to learn that he had been given the award.

"I remember we had a hard time getting that cat," he explained, "I had to shinny up the tree. I tore my pants but I finally reached the animal. It must have been up there for a week by the time we got to it."

The award was made as part of the Humane Week observance in western Pennsylvania.

GRAND OFFICERS AT NEW CASTLE CHAPTER

New Castle chapter 105 Order of Eastern Star of which Mrs. Margaret Whieldon is worthy matron, and William Reed worthy patron, held a banquet Monday evening in the Cathedral to honor Worthy Grand Matron Mrs. Anna W. Paul and other grand officers from out of town.

The banquet was served at 6:30 in the west dining room to 160 guests who were seated at several long tables beautifully decorated. Stems of green fern, placed flat in an unbroken line with fragrant sweet peas in pink and white here and there, added color. Centering the table where the visitors were seated, a brigh bouquet of other cut flowers, pink roses and snapdragons, added other beauty.

At 8 o'clock, the impressive installation and lodge meeting was held in the East room with Worthy Grand Matron Mrs. Anna W. Paul installing officer, assisted by Past Grand Worthy Matron Mrs. Louise Lindeman.

Following the services, a playlet entitled "Barabus" was presented by officers of New Castle chapter directed by Louise Davies. Those taking part were: Mettie Round, Margaret Shaffer, Matilda Chapman, Ruth Weir, Dorothy Stoddard, Marjorie Brinton, Dorothy Long.

Special guests of the evening were Mrs. Anna W. Paul, worth grand matron of the Order of Eastern Star of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Louise Lindeman, past worthy grand matron and a large number of other grand officers from different parts of the state, and Mrs. Lucy B. Round, district deputy grand matron. Nearby cities represented were: Beaver Falls, Pittsburgh, Mercer and Evans City.

In concluding the outstanding occasion, lunch was served in the west dining room.

Junior C. D. Of A.

Junior C. D. of A. held their monthly meeting recently, at which plans were discussed for a Mothers' Day tea. Different committees were appointed but the date will be determined at the next meeting.

JUNIOR GUILD GUESTS AT WIGNALL RESIDENCE

The home of Mrs. William Wignall, Maryland avenue, was the scene of an enjoyable gathering on Monday evening, when she entertained members of the Junior Guild of St. Andrews church, the occasion honoring four of the group who had birthdays this month. They were, Mrs. David Riley, Thelma Kerber, Katherine Smith and Mrs. Donald Barber. Each received a shower of dainty handkies, as mementoes of the organization.

As the girls entered the room, they formed a circle and joined in singing "Happy Birthday" to the four honored ones. Immediately afterwards, contests were in progress in 500, with prizes going to Virginia Kerber, Mrs. Stanley Jones and Mrs. Denny Sturdevant. The drawing prize of a thirty-two piece crystal set, was won by June Evans. Radio music also contributed to the evening's pleasures.

The dining room table attractively set in an array of pastel hues, with blue and gold predominating, later claimed attention, when the assemblage took their designated places and were served a delicious lunch. Covers marked for twenty-four and Mrs. Wignall had as aides, her two nieces, the Misses Ann and Florence Hitchin.

On Monday evening, the weekly meeting of the Junior Guild will be held in the church, and at this time plans will be completed for their May birthday party.

PLAYFAIR CLUB HAS EVENING GATHERING

Miss Lillian Dorsey of Wildwood avenue, received associates of the Playfair club in her home Monday evening, for an informal period of cards. Pretty favors fell to Mrs. Alice Black, Mrs. Frank Hill and Mrs. Carl Wallace, and afterwards, a delicious lunch was served in the diningroom. Unique miniature glass potted plants, were given as favors, and a cluster of spring flowers adorned the table center, flanked on either side by tall tapers. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Frank Dorsey.

Next meeting of the club will be held Monday, May 11, at the home of Mrs. Russell Shields on Laurel avenue.

pipes, as oil is carried through pipes.

STILL LATER chemists and physicists will transform the coal underground into electric current, carry it to the factory or steel mill over a wire. Such labor saving processes have hardly begun.

The thing is for human intelligence to meet them with better wages, shorter hours, work for all, greater enjoyment of products by everybody.

The most difficult problem is for the human being to use increasing leisure wisely. That will be harder than changing coal into electricity, for man is the most obdurate of all "raw material."

STATE LAUNCHES NEW SEED SERVICE

HARRISBURG — Small grains certification covering wheat, oats and barley has just been inaugurated by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, secretary J. Hansell French announced today.

This new service for the farmers of Pennsylvania will be an extension of the seed certifying work of the Bureau of Plant Industry. Potato, tomato and berry growers have had this protection for a number of years.

GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP SIX

Girl Scout Troop No. 6 held their regular Saturday morning meeting in the Orr Social Hall. The meeting was opened with a knot game. Songs were sung, followed by patrol corners.

Interest groups were conducted by Mrs. Thomas Clark, who was visiting the troop, and Marian Connor. At an open Court of Honor, which closed the meeting, plans were made for a hike to be held next Saturday morning, in place of the regular meeting. The troop is to meet at Oak Park Cemetery at nine thirty.

Scribe, Joan Thompson.

WAHNETA TROOP

The Wahneta Troop of Girl Scouts had a weekly meeting on Thursday in St. Mary's church auditorium. The meeting was opened with songs, followed by patrol corners. The scouts who passed their cooking tests were, Virginia Brincko, Dolores Burgoon, Margaret Stinard, Rose Jennings and Jean Skunder.

A horseshoe formation was made and the scouts shaped plans for court of awards. The meeting was closed with a game, "Streets and Alleys," and court of honor.

Scribe, Stella Habib.

KEYSTONE TROOP

Keystone Troop No. 1 met at the city hall Saturday evening. The meeting was opened with a game. Patrol corners followed and plans were made to sell poppies. Interest groups were formed and tenderfoots studied first aid while the second class scouts had home-nursing. The meeting was closed with songs and taps, followed by court of honor.

Scribe, Virginia Jones.

TROOP NO. 2

Girl Scouts of Troop No. 2 had a weekly meeting Thursday evening in Highland school, with their leaders, Virginia Armstrong and Becky Carson, in charge. The meeting was opened by a relay game, after which the girls went into patrol corners and answered a "Do You Know" questionnaire. Games were played the remaining part of the evening and announcements were made about the Girl Scout dinner to be given May 7. The meeting was closed by a goodnight song.

Scribe, Marian L. Duff.

Husband Refuses To Believe Reports His Wife Is Suicide

Wealthy New Englander Puts Detectives On Case In Hope Of Finding Her

(International News Service)

HOPEDALE, Mass., April 28.—Clinging to the hope that his missing wife is still alive despite reported suicide notes, Eben S. Draper, wealthy textile magnate and former Republican party leader was in virtual seclusion at his home today awaiting reports from private detectives and police searching throughout the east.

Mrs. Praper, 42, socially prominent and talented, vanished from a Katonah, N. Y. sanitarium eight days ago where she was undergoing treatment for nervous disorders, and was feared to have jumped overboard from the trans-oceanic steamer Georgic.

Conflicting stories, however, arose about this possibility. New York police claimed to have received a wireless message from the ship's master stating a woman jumped overboard and was drowned when the vessel was 150 miles at sea. When the Georgic docked at Cobh, Ireland, however, the captain denied he had reported the drowning. Other reports however, stated that a stewardess aboard the ship had reported a woman calling herself Mrs. Draper had borrowed a coat from her the first night out, and had vanished.

Attorneys To Speak On Tariff Question

Cause And Cure Of War Council To Hear Discussion On Thursday

Two attorneys, Clarence A. Patterson and Charles H. Young, will be guest speakers before the regular meeting of the Lawrence County Council on the Cause and Cure of War in the Y. W. C. A. on Thursday evening, April 30.

Mr. Patterson and Mr. Young will present different viewpoints on the foreign trade of the United States. The choice of high protective tariff, reduction of tariff by reciprocal agreements, or expansion of home markets, will be discussed.

Dr. Charles B. Wingerd pastor of the Central Presbyterian church will preside as the discussion chairman. The meeting, open to the public will start at 8.

Valuable Gifts Come From Rome

President Frank Gillest Of Local Order Makes Report Of Gifts

From Rome, Italy, the local Unione Calabro-American Poeta Fianco Berardelli has received two valuable gifts.

President Frank Gillest recently received an artistic bronz bust of the late young poet Franco Beraldelli whose sonnets to Shakespeare, John Keats, P. B. Shelley, Chopin, Ludwig Von Beethoven and others aroused immense interest in the literary world, together with a photograph of the renown poet and also a beautiful bronze plaque of the Divine Poet Dante. These gifts were sent by Commendatore Dott, Giulio Berardelli, former Counsellor of the Court of Appeals and at present director of an important division in the Ministry of Justice, in Rome.

The bust is the work of the great sculptor Paonessa. Commendatore Dott Berardelli, father of the famous poet, sent the emblems as a token of appriciation. The local branch bears the name of the young poet who passed away a few years ago.

At a meeting of the organization, Sunday afternoon, in their clubrooms, 211 East Division street, Supreme President T. Marziano and Angelo Fiala, orator of the local branch, gave most interesting addresses pertaining to the life of Poet Berardelli. The speeches were thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd present.

Birthday Honored At Allen Residence

Children Make Merry At Afternoon Party Given At Local Home

Mrs. Clarence Allen of 414 Sixth street entertained at a delightful party in her home Saturday afternoon a group of 18 boys and girls, friends of her son Lewis Allen, who helped celebrate his seventh birthday anniversary.

The occasion proved most enjoyable and lasted from 2 to 5 o'clock. During this time an interesting program of games and contests were featured.

Upon being invited to the dining room, the guests were seated at a long table attractively decorated in tones of green and white. A huge birthday cake, topped by seven glowing candles, formed the centerpiece. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Lewis Bush and Mrs. Thomas Foster.

A collection of beautiful and useful gifts was received by Lewis in remembrance of that happy occasion.

Physical Education Course Is Planned

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 28.—A uniform four-year professional course of preparation for public school physical education instructors has been prepared by the American Physical Education Association and will soon become effective.

The course was announced here by W. G. Moorhead, recently elected president of the association who is chief of the division of health and physcial education in the state department of public instruction. Moorhead said the course, drafted by a committee of which he was a member, was designed to raise the physical education standards of schools.

The exact origin of the custom of sleeping on a piece of wedding cake is obscure. It has been traced back to the early Britons and is found not only in England, but in almost all European countries.

Rural Eighth Grade Pupils To Take Tests

Final Examination For High School Entrance Will Take Place May 9

SYLING NAMES PLACES FOR TESTS

Final high school entrance examinations for the pupils in rural schools which do not have accredited high schools in their district will take place on Saturday, May 9, at nine a. m., eastern standard time, County Superintendent of Schools John C. Syling announced today.

Committees will be appointed by the school boards of the various districts to assist in conducting the examinations.

The examinations will take place at the following places:

Chewton, Wampum, Enon Valley, North Edenburg, Ellport, Hillsville, Neshannock Public, New Wilmington, Ellport, New Bedford, Shenango-Taylor Joint, Princeton, South New Castle, West Pittsburg, Volant and Hopedale. Perry township pupils will take their examination at Ellport.

A preliminary examination was conducted a month ago, when the pupils were given an idea of the kind of questions which will be asked in the final examination. This test was taken by all the eighth grade pupils of the county.

My New York
By James Aswell

(Copyright, 1936, by Central Press Assn.)

NEW YORK, April 28.—Theatricals: No oldtimer has the gusto of Jim Kirkwood, director of many stars, whose hangout is the Players Club. . . . Katharine Cornell has joined up with the drama league guilders. . . Now the summer theaters bloom and blossom; Ivor Novello's new comedy is called "Party," sedately, and will have its premiere at the Ann Arbor Drama Festival in May. . . . Dan Healy, the night club man, is one of the few all-night bistro entrepreneurs who continues to hold the affections, year after year, of the run-around set. . . .

The only new comedian who has soared to recognition this year is Milton Berle at the Paradise; his clowning is drawing crowds that formerly haunted the revues for laughs. . . . The Marx Brothers, I am told, have the most headaches getting people to compose their gigglers. . . . Humorists, with genuine talent, are the scarcest of writers on the Coast, commanding salaries in three to five figures weekly. . . . H. N. Swanson, who began by editing College Humor, is now the second most important author's agent in Cinemaland. . . .

Most annoying problem: how to deal with folk who say I am beginning to look like Heywood Broun, with increasing plumpness. . . . The only retort is to insist that the resemblance is only pounds-deep. . . . This reporter has never yet devised apologies for failure. . . . Parlor Pinkos have depressed me since early Greenwich Village days. . . . Franklin P. Adams, the humorist, is at work on a saucy new revue to be labelled "Spring Tonic". . . .

Pert daughters of notable men: Leslie Ruth Howard, who is headed for a career at the painter's easel. . . . Marcia Tugwell, daughter of the sleek young Brain-Truster, who has her own dog-laundry at 35 cents per pooch. . . . Marlene Dietrich's youngster bids fair to be as much of a knockout for looks as her mom. . . . Basil Fomeen, the tango chef, is a Russian who bounced to Greece after the arrival of the New Dispensation and More Abundant Life in Czardom. . . Later he played for the Queen of Greece and the King of Spain and ended up in sanctuary on the Waldorf Starlight Roof this spring. . . . The Joseph Urban decor for the St. Regis Roof has been discarded, which should make news for a generation of collegiates. . . . Lawrence Colwell, who concocts movie sets, has redone the jernt to resemble a pastel Italian palace and garden of the Seventeenth Century.

Anne Nichols, who wrote "Abie's Irish Rose," is presenting a new show to be called "Pre-Honeymoon". . . . The critics are whispering among themselves, in some concern, because they all predicted failure for Miss Nichols' other effort, and it was one of the greatest hits of all time. . . . Everett Marshall, the baritone, will be whisked down to Fort Worth, Texas, to appear on the spinning stage that has made Billy Rose a Southern news item. . . . Chald up pleasant success number two for this season: Gus Edwards, the old-time picker of vaudeville talent and his new vaudeville-revue that is clicking on Broadway. . . . The other most warming hit was "Ethan Frome," from Edith Wharton's memorable novelette.

To Start Plans For Memorial Day

Representatives Of Veterans Organizations Will Map Plans For Celebration

Plans for the annual celebration of Memorial Day here will be discussed at a meeting of representatives of the various veteran organizations of the city, which will take place in the Legion Home Thursday evening at 7:30.

Coroner Orville Potter is chairman of the meeting called for Thursday evening. A chairman will be named and committees will be appointed to further arrangements for the day.

GAS, GAS ALL THE TIME, CAN'T EAT OR SLEEP

"The gas on my stomach was so bad I could not eat or sleep. Even my heart hurt. A friend suggested Adlerika. The first dose I took brought me relief. Now I eat as I wish, sleep fine and never felt better." — Mrs. Jas. Filler.

Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels while ordinary laxatives act on the lower bowel only. Adlerika gives your system a thorough cleansing bringing out old, poisonous matter that you would not believe was in your system and that has been causing gas pains, sour stomach, nervousness and headaches for months.

Dr. H. L. Shoub, New York, reports: "In addition to intestinal cleansing, Adlerika greatly reduces bacteria and colon bacilli."

Give your stomach and bowels a REAL cleansing with Adlerika and see how good you feel. Just one spoonful relieves GAS and chronic constipation. Sold by all druggists and drug departments. Eckerd's, New Castle Drug Co.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

MAKE PAL OF DAUGHTER

From the "State Treasury, State Capitol, ——, ——," came the following:

"Dear Dr. Myers: There must be many working parents who are perplexed as to how to give enough of themselves and their time to the children of the family, so that they will not feel neglected, so that they will feel that they are wanted. We think that we have solved that problem for our family, at least, and I thought I would pass on the idea to you. . . .

"Besides working all day down town, I do all of my own housework. I take it seriously, too, cleaning, canning, washing, ironing, even to the business of crocheting and knitting little dresses for my five-year-old daughter. Altogether, I must spend not more than three hours a day in the company of my daughter. During that time I am working, working, working. At first I let her help me with the work, thinking that in that way I could show my real interest in her. We made beds together. I let her dust the furniture, sweep the floor, help with dishes. But this was not enough. Children should feel, I think, that there are times when parents want to drop everything to devote their entire thoughts to their children. . .

"Tentatively, we tried this plan. All work must be completed by Saturday night! No working on Sunday except dishes and necessary cooking. We take turns planning the day. First we had 'Daddy's Sunday'. He was very mysterious about his plans, and Martha nearly died from curiosity. His Sunday included a special dinner, with surprise dessert, and long hike with picnic at the end of it. (Schnitzel, our police dog, enjoyed 'Daddy's Sunday' as much as we did.)

Baby On Martha's Day.

"We thought that Martha's Sunday would be a series of sodas, movies and expenses of an extravagant nature, since she was to plan as she liked, 'within reason'. But, no; she got us up at 7:30 a. m. . . . We had pancakes for breakfast, for Martha likes them. Then she telephoned a young married couple with a baby, and invited them to a picnic supper. The baby was to be her guest of honor. She helped me to make a pumpkin pie, beating the eggs, and so on. We popped that into the oven with a ham and sweet potatoes. . . .

"Next Sunday is Mother's Sunday. Don't you wish you could join us?"

I wrote her that I certainly wished I could join them, but wondered why her Sunday had to come last.

It seems to me that this mother has worked out a very ingenious plan to make the most of her limited time with her family. I am sure my readers wished with me that she did not have to work away from home until Martha were several years older. And I might add that I wish that many hundreds of mothers who don't work would choose to spend more time with their young children, and a little less time gadding about and clubbing.

To Women who suffer from Piles

It is no longer necessary for you to suffer the agony caused by piles. Science has at last developed a new modern treatment that gives immediate relief from the soreness, itching, burning and bleeding.

IRIL Suppositories were first used by doctors who specialize in rectal disorders. They have a five-way action that makes them the ideal treatment for the quick relief of the horrible discomforts. They stop all pain within a few seconds; they check bleeding quickly; they promote healing of broken tissues and fissures; they soften and lubricate, making bowel movement easy and painless. Containing no narcotics or harmful drugs, they are safe for home use.

IRIL is also made in the form of an ointment to relieve the itching, burning and bleeding of external or protruding piles.

IRIL Suppositories come in two sizes—6 treatments for 50 cents and 12 treatments $1.00 per box. IRIL Ointment comes in a 50¢ tube. IRIL Suppositories and IRIL Ointment are sold by all druggists.

Tonnage Grows In Philadelphia Port

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—Another sign of better times, shipping in the port of Philadelphia hit an all-time tonnage record during the first three months of 1936, the Board of Commissioners of navigation have reported.

Gross tonnage of both foreign and domestic vessels totaled 14,547,938 for January, February and March. The figures showed substantial improvement over 13,651,516 tons for the first quarter of last year and the 12,923,116 tons in the port's 12-month peak in 1930.

TO BE HONORED

(International News Service)

CARLISLE, Pa., April 28.—Chief Justice John W. Kephart of the state supreme court will be honored at a testimonial dinner to be given here next Thursday night, April 30, by the Dickinson Law school.

Lump sugar should be taken from the sugar bowl and drop into tea or coffee with the fingers, if no tongs are provided.

Plan Reception For New Pastor

Rev. T. B. Shearer, new pastor of Central Christian church, and Mrs. Shearer, will be honored by their congregation at a welcome reception on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church.

A program is being arranged for the affair. Refreshments will be served.

Rev. Shearer preached his first sermons as pastor of the church on Sunday morning and evening.

Senate Orders Some Publicity

All Payments Over $10,000 Must Be Made Public By Secretary Wallace

RESETTLEMENT FUNDS ARE NOW ATTACKED

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—After forcing the administration to order complete publicity on all large AAA benefit payments, a Republican "corporal's guard" in the senate today turned its best guns on the resettlement administration.

Charging federal funds were being squandered on some resettlement projects, Senator Barbour (R) of New Jersey, demanded a public accounting of all moneys expended by Rexford Guy Tugwell in the resettlement administration.

The Republicans won a victory when the senate adopted the Vandenberg resolution, calling for publication of all AAA benefit payments in excess of $10,000. This information was asked of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, who privately announced some time ago that one sugar benefit payment to a Hawaiian concern totalled $1,022,037. At the same time, he admitted 46 cotton planters received in excess of $10,000 and 227 more than $5,000, while 732,075 were getting less than $100.

Pupils' Program Given For Editor

Terrace Youngsters Repeat 'Bird Unit Program' Before Notables

A prominent editor of a school nature study magazine came to New Castle on Monday to watch a talented group of Terrace Avenue school pupils present, primarily for his benefit, a special "bird study unit program" at the Terrace school.

The honor guest was Dr. Lawrence E. Palmer, head of the science education and nature study department of Cornell university at Ithaca, N. Y., and editor of the "Nature Magazine," a publication which the Terrace pupils had to aid them in their study of birds.

With Dr. Palmer was Superintendent of Schools C. C. Green and other school principals and out-of-town guests.

The afternoon performance was given by the fourth grade pupils, directed by Miss Helen Green.

Dr. R. A. Waldron, head of the science department at Slippery Rock State Teachers' college, who had requested the demonstration, was present with Dr. A. B. Brooks, state forester and ornithologist and a nature training instructor at Oglebay park at Wheeling, W. Va.; President Charles S. Miller of Slippery Rock State Teachers' college; Kellar Shelar, of the Slippery Rock college; Miss Turner, member of the Carnegie Tech faculty; Miss Weible, a teacher in the Pittsburgh schools; Mrs. S. D. Pearson, Principal B. K. Thacker, Principal James M. Hughes, Mrs. Meeham, Miss Iretta V. Dart, Mrs. Earl Dart, Mrs. Ruth Lewis Crowl and six Slippery Rock college girls.

Rachel Rebekah Lodge Officers Installed Monday

Installing Staff From Ellwood City In Charge Of Ceremony Here

Rachel Rebekah Lodge No. 40 had an impressive installation service at Monday night's meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall. Mrs. Minnie Swick, district deputy, and her staff from Ellwood City, were in charge of the ceremony. There was a number of guests present from Ellwood and Youngstown to witness the procedure.

Officers installed were as follows. Noble grand, Mrs. Gladys Cramer; vice grand, Mrs. Lula Schetrom; recording secretary, Miss Ninnie Howard; warden, Mrs. Lilliam Sumners; conductor, Mrs. Jennie Smith; chaplain, Mrs. Peg Stanley; supporters to noble grand, Mrs. Viola Buell, Mrs. Sara McCormick; supporters to vice grand, Mrs. Nellie Houk, Mrs. Sadie Park; inside guardian, Mrs. Marie Roof; oueside guardian, Mrs. Nellie Tribby.

A delicious lunch was served at the close. The retiring noble grand, Mrs. Mary Martin, had placed small gifts, artistically wrapped and bound with the colors of the order at the table place of each retiring officer, much to the appreciation of the receivers.

Plans were made to have a social time at the next meeting date, May 11.

Cunning Pet For Some Local Child

Will Be Given Some Child At Concert At Cathedral Friday Afternoon

There is a lucky child in New Castle, who will win a cunning pet on Friday afternoon at the Cathedral. To the holder of the lucky ticket number for the concert of the Womens Symphony orchestra of Pittsburgh, this unusual prize will be given. The baby kid has been donated by the Swiss Goat Dairy for the occasion.

Mrs. Gula Keagy will be the soprano soloist with the orchestra. Her beautiful voice and lovely personality need no introduction to New Castle music lovers.

All school children are admitted for fifteen cents. Adults may attend the afternoon performance at the general admission charge of fifty cents. Tax free tickets are on sale at the Donati and Fleming Music Stores.

Missouri Gets Behind Landon

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, April 28—Missouri Republicans today were on record as "heartily" endorsing Gov. Alf. M. Landon of Kansas for the presidential nomination.

The one-day Republican state convention came to a dramatic close here last night when a resolution to endorse the candidacy of the Kansas governor and to instruct the four delegates at large to support his nomination was adopted by a large majority.

Thus of the 30 delegates to be sent by Missouri to the National Republican convention at Cleveland, 20 have been instructed to vote for Gov. Landon, six are from districts which indorsed him at their conventions, while the remaining four are uninstructed.

WOMAN'S QUICK WIT SAVES HUBBY'S $700

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., April 28.—A quick-witted grocer's wife prevented robbers from running away with several hundred dollars. Mrs. George Linck heard the men order her husband to open the door after he locked it for the night.

At gun point, Linck complied. But Mrs. Linck, taking advantage of the darkness, removed $700 from a cash register and dropped the money to the floor.

Negro Attacker Is Lynched By Mob In Georgia

(International News Service)

DANIELSVILLE, Ga., April 28.—A few hours before he was to go on trial for assault with intent to murder, Lint Shaw, 50-year-old Negro, was found hanging from a tree near Colbert, Ga., early today.

Shaw was indicted by a Madison county grand jury yesterday for attacking a white girl near Colbert and then stabbing two peace officers after they had placed him under arrest for the assault.

Sheriff T. L. Henley, of Maddison county, brought the Negro to the jail here last night from Atlanta where he had been held for safe keeping. Shortly after the prisoner was lodged in jail a mob appeared, and Sheriff Henley decided to transfer him to the jail at Royston.

Break Down Doors

There a few minutes after midnight, night policeman W. A. Dickerson reported a group of about 50 men appeared at the jail demanding the Negro.

"I told them I didn't have the keys," he said.

"Then they searched me, and when they found I was telling the truth broke down the jail door and took the prisoner."

The Negro was transferred to Fulton Tower in Atlanta April 11, the day after his arrest. The transfer was made after a company of national guardsmen had been called out to disperse a mob which congregated at the county jail.

STRICKLER LEAVES TO ATTEND FUNERAL

Mrs. R. P. Strickler, wife of Dr. R. P. Strickler, Professor of Greek at Southwestern university, died at Memphis, Tenn., last Sunday.

UNWED MOTHER FACES CHARGE

(International News Service)

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md., April 28.—Still shocked over the sudden revelations that their unwed daughter was a mother and the self-confessed murderer of her new-born baby, all the parents of Alma Ogden, 18, would say today was "the man should be punished, too."

Today Alma was in the hospital in a grave condition because of her action in giving birth to the child alone without medical attention. State's Attorney Dowell said a warrant would be sworn out against her charging murder.

Deceiving her parents of her condition and failing to hear from her betrayer, the police said the grief-stricken girl gave birth to the child at her home. Hysterical she staggered to her parents and told them, Dowell said, she had become a mother during the night and had killed the baby with a penknife.

The infant's body was found in a flour can by Dr. Everett Bristoe. The child was a boy and the neck had been slashed.

Under police guard at the hospital, Miss Ogden said the father was a Washingtonian she met near here during her vacation last fall. She said she loved him but never saw him after their two-weeks vacation ended.

Aged Slayer Is Denied Appeal For New Trial

(International News Service)

GREENSBURG, Pa., April 28.—Denied a new trial by Judges Charles D. Copeland and Charles E. Whitten, Henry J. Ralston, 76, of Lower Burrel township, today faced the possibility of spending the remaining few years of his life in prison for the brutal hatchet and nail slaying of his friend, James Coulson, 81, last June 13.

The new trial motion was rejected by the judges after hearing pleas from counsel for the aged man, who was found guilty of murder by a jury. Coulson was attacked with a hatchet and a nail was driven into his skull, according to the testimony. A jury found him guilty and recommended mercy, making a life term mandatory.

NEW TIRE SAVES LIVES

Gives months of extra mileage, too

MOST motorists would no more gamble on tires they knew to be unsafe, than a card gambler would "open blind" in a big poker game. And here's why. Today's high speeds generate terrific heat inside the tire. This heat causes rubber and fabric to separate. A blister forms and grows bigger and BIGGER until—sooner or later—BANG! A blow-out! If you could only realize the damage that one blow-out might cause, you'd start right in tomorrow to ride around on Goodrich Silvertowns.

Why? Because Silvertowns are the only tires built with the Life-Saver Golden Ply, a special layer of full-floating cords scientifically treated to resist internal tire heat. Thus the Golden Ply keeps blisters from forming—protects you from these dangerous, high-speed blow-outs.

No extra cost

Equip your car with the safest, toughest, longest-lasting tire that money can buy. See us about a set of these Goodrich Golden Ply Silvertowns. Remember, they cost not a penny more than other standard tires!

Annual Camp Reunion Will Occur Friday

Last Summer's East Brook Campers To Have Reunion At Y. W.

MISS BETTY GLOVER IS CAMP DIRECTOR

Camp East Brook Will Open June 22; Expect Heavy Registration This Year

East Brook campers will hold their annual camp reunion supper at the Y. W. C. A. on Friday, May 15, at 5:30 P. M. Supper will be served by the camp committee, Mrs. Robert Eckles, chairman, Mrs. Harry McKee, Jr., Mrs. E. F. Henderson, Mrs. Glenn Berry, Mrs. Herbert Kirk, Mrs. John Elliott, Mrs. A. B. Foster, Mrs. Earl Ruby, Miss Virginia Duff, Mrs. William Caldwell and Mrs. A. B. Fankhauser.

Inquiries for prospective camps have been coming to the Y. W. C. A. office very frequently in the last few weeks and the camp committee is happy to announce that it will be possible to open camp on June 22 with Miss Betty Glover as camp director.

Swimming, handicraft, nature study, music, dramatics, dancing, games and worship services make up the twelve happy days with their opportunities for new friendships with girls and counsellors.

The dates and ages which are now planned are:

June 22-July 3 for ages 7-12; July 6-17 for ages 9-13; July 20-July 31 for ages 13-18.

Each period will open at 1:30 P. M., eastern standard time.

Camp rates will be the same as last year plus an additional registration fee of one dollar. Registration should be made as soon as possible as campers will be admitted in the order of registration. It would seem that there will be no trouble in filling the three periods already planned and if registrations are made before July 15 there may possibly be a fourth period from August 3-14.

Camp East Brook with its safe swimming pool, happy camp life and fine counsellors has come to be very popular in recent years and it is expected this summer will be even finer than ever.

A tea for the mothers of campers will be held the last of May when clothes, health and program suggestions can be discussed.

News Briefs From City Hall

Sanitary Policeman Chauncey Davis was ordered today to investigate a report to police that a sheep has been kept in a truck for several days in Long avenue. The sheep has bleated continuously, the report stated.

Prisoners assigned by Mayor Charles E. McGrath to work thoroughly cleaned cans and other debris from Bolt street Monday, according to a report he received this morning.

A report to police last night said boys were damaging the lawn and shrubbery at the West Side park.

Council this morning informally discussed the bid offered by B. J. Biondi by terms of which he has offered to rent Rainbow Terrace, Cascade Park, for a term of one, three or five years.

Patrolman James Hagen of the city department of police is off duty owing to the death of a relative.

Someone entered the garage of Joseph Dudoic at 101 East Big Run street and attempted to steal a new Hupmobile last night. Entrance was made when a window was broken. The would-be thieves were frightened away.

Margiotti Plans For Court Test Of State Proposal

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 28.—The Earle administration was frankly convinced today that at least one of its subjects for the forthcoming special legislative session, if enacted, is likely to be declared unconstitutional by the state supreme court.

And for this reason, Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti plans to submit the proposal—to refund old state bond issues with new ones at lower interest rates—to an immediate "test" in the high court following its enactment.

From the special session there may come other "legal weaklings" in the form of measures that are constitutionally questionable, Margiotti said. He was "quite certain" that, because of an old supreme court decision, the refunding proposal would be ruled unconstitutional.

Flag Presented To North Street School Monday

Americanization Department Of V. F. W. Auxiliary Makes Presentation

Commemorating the birthday of General U. S. Grant which date Monday, April 27, marked, and also to observe National V. F. W. Day, Mrs. Evelyn Woods, on behalf of the Americanization Department of V. F. W. Auxiliary, of which she is chairman, presented a beautiful large parade American flag to the North street school in connection with a patriotic program in the afternoon.

The following splendid program was presented:

Song, "America," by assembly, directed by Prof. W. A. Hoffmaster.

Pledge to the flag—Assembly.

Greetings from McBride Auxiliary—Mrs. Tempa Stickle, Americanization chairman local auxiliary.

Military tap dance—Gladys Stickle, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Mae Hammond.

Constitution of the United States—Attorney Charles Wallace.

Citizenship—Dr. W. Fulton Jackson.

Naturalization — Mayor Charles McGrath.

An especially interesting feature, following the above talks, was a really wonderful impromptu address by America's Flower-a-Gold Star Mother, Mrs. Anna Gorst, who spoke on the theme, "The Supreme Sacrifice." As Mrs. Gorst spoke, little Betty Lou Kennedy dressed in all white and holding a small American flag, stood beside her as color guard. The sight was particularly impressing and inspiring.

Another pretty scene was portrayed by eleven auxiliary members who held separate red, white and blue letters spelling Americanism. The women, all dressed in white uniforms with blue ties were: Mesdames Mable Kennedy, Elizabeth Miller, Nellie Johnston, Mary Nicholson, Rebecca Strong, Ethel Bell, Emma Wood, Lucy Wooley, Nettie Winters, Ada Miller and Tempa Stickle.

Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of the local schools, addressed beneficial remarks to the assembly and was followed by A. C. Hyde, school director.

After the presentation of the American emblem to the school, Prof. Hoffmaster closed the program with an appropriate speech of acceptance.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

UPARATASA CAMP VOTED

On Monday evening the Uparatasa fraternity of the Y. M. C. A. held its regular meeting in the "Y". Business of importance, including the motion to rent a cottage at Kennedy's Mills for the months of July and August, were discussed. The action was approved.

Wendell Elser and George Bishop gave testimonials on their initiation exercises which were conducted on Saturday evening. This proved very entertaining to the members of the fraternity.

Following the business session a ping pong tournament was held in which Henry Wyman and George Bishop proved to be superior over the others.

Next meeting will be held next Monday in the "Y" and it was announced today that an interesting speaker will undoubtedly be secured for the occasion.

FELL ASLEEP AT HIS POST

Watchman Was Sick But Thought He Just Had "Spring Fever"

NEWSPAPER TOLD ONLY PART OF THE STORY, FOR THE MAN WAS NOT ALTOGETHER TO BLAME

When the newspapers told you how the watchman at a railroad crossing fell asleep and let a bus of people be smashed by a train, they told only half the story. The rest of it goes back to a long winter of huddling over the fire, with heavy foods and bad colds, until the man wasn't fit for a place requiring close attention. Mr. J. A. Neidham of Beaver Falls, Pa., had severe headaches that oftentimes blinded him. He says, "I had to take a physic every night in order to get my bowels to move. I had to be careful what I ate as I had an ulcerated stomach and no matter what I ate my stomach would swell up with gas shortly after I finished eating."

You have felt just this way yourself in the first warm days of spring, when it seemed you just must sleep—that you couldn't keep awake. You were full of the accumulated poisons of winter confinement and winter colds and until you threw them off you had "spring fever".

Winter colds and confinement fill your system with catarrh. It's poisonous products permeate your body and dull your mind. You may suffer greatly from your stomach, or you may just be dull, heavy and sleepy. When Nature warns you this way, heed her. Start a course of treatment with World's Tonic. Help the body throw out the wastes, clear up your catarrh and purify your blood before it is too late. World's Tonic is one of the most popular remedies for catarrh and its consequences. A bottle or two of it in the spring will help you. World's Tonic is for sale at Eckerd's; Paisley's, and all other first class drug store. (A-49)

Air Bureau Revision Is Strongly Urged

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Reorganization of the bureau of air commerce was recommended today by Col. J. Monroe Johnson, assistant secretary of commerce, before the senate air safety committee.

Johnson defended the bureau against charges of gross waste and negligence, but said a division of the bureau into two departments would bring greater efficiency.

"I think," he said, "The department is improperly organized and there should be two departments under the bureau, one for regulation and communications and the other for maintenance and construction."

He added that various minor divisions would come under the two departments.

Drive For Probe Of W.P.A. Grows

Indiana Democratic Senator Says Relief Governed By Politics

ADDS VOICE TO OTHER SENATORS

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The non-partisan drive for a senate investigation of the WPA gained momentum today as senators Van Nuys (D) of Indiana, returned with what he described as evidence indicating that relief in his state is governed by personal politics.

"I have found," he said, "That the WPA administration in Indiana is using jobs for political purposes and that thousands of dollars of relief money is being diverted from regular channels."

His personal investigation followed closely a series of charges in the senate by senators Davis (R) of Pennsylvania, and Holt (D) of West Virginia, that the entire WPA setup is 'loaded" with politics.

Davis, author of a resolution calling for an investigation of WPA, said the Van Nuys investigation further substantiates his argument for the inqury. He added:

"The Indiana relief situation which senator Van Nuys seeks to remedy presents a fresh argument for adoption of my resolution providing for an investigation into the whole national relief setup. Compaints of political coercion and corruption in the administration of relief pouring in on congress from every section of the country reveals the necessity for a thorough housecleaning in the WPA."

Consumer Survey Now In Progress

Results Of Survey In Various Cities To Be Published As A Market Guide

As a result of requests from various consumer groups, business organizations, government bureaus, private institutions and relief agencies, the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States department of labor is undertaking a study to determine how the American consumer uses his income. The American Federation of Labor has also urged that up-to-date information be gathered on family expenditures. The study is designed as a guide for business men, labor leaders, manufacturers, wholesale and retailers, welfare workers, as well as housewives and consumers in general.

New Castle was selected as one of the cities to be studied in the east-central region, and Miss Rachel S. Gallagher has been apointed director.

The study will throw light on what amounts are spent for food, clothing, rent, recreation, education, transportation, and other items. It will also show at what income levels various luxuries are customarily purchased, to what income groups various sales efforts should be directed, and how spending habits vary with such factors as geographical location and size of city.

A number of studies of consumer purchasing have been made in the past fifty years, but they have not been sufficiently extensive to provide the facts needed. The last survey of family expenditures covered only 12,000 wage-earners and low-income families and was made by the Bureau of Labor Statistics during 1918-1919. This was not only the abnormal period of the war but pre-dated the extensive use of automobiles, radios, permanent waves, silk hose, and many household electrical appliances.

In the past seventeen years, drastic revisions have been made in family spending.

The market guide which will be made available by the Urban Study of Consumer Purchases, will be invaluable to indicate market trends and the amount of goods which can be profitably produced and sold.

In order that the representatives of the Bureau of Labor Statistics may be easily recognized, they will all furnish official identification cards upon request.

Warning Seen In Hughes' Decision

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—A new warning to congress that it cannot nullify the constitution by conferring unlimited power on bureaucracies was seen today in Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes' opinion in the St. Joseph Stock Yards case.

Some observers also construed the opinion as a fresh declaration by the court of its power to protect constitutional guarantees, despite congressional efforts to restrict its authority.

The chief justice, in holding that courts have the right to review the correctness of a ruling by the secretary of agriculture fixing stockyard rates, emphasized the importance of constitutional protection to the individual.

Chicago Spaghetti Manufacturer Stages Double Tragedy In Fashionable Home

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 28.—Pitro Viviano, 42, wealthy spaghetti manufacturer, today shot and killed his 20-year-old daughter Grace and committed suicide with the same gun.

The double tragedy occurred in the Viviano home in the fashionable north end of Suburban Oak Park.

Police, arriving at the scene a few minutes after the shooting, found the house empty except for the two corpses.

Says Publicity On Resettlement Projects Feared

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Charging the administration "feared" publicity on resettlement administration expenditures," Senator Barbour (R) of New Jersey, this afternoon demanded a sweeping senatorial inquiry into every "utopian" project launched by Rexford Guy Tugwell.

Barbour declared the resettlement administration was created by presidential order, without the consent of congress, spent money lavishly and secretly, occupied 27 buildings in Washington and employed 13,045 persons, all of whom were paid salaries out of relief funds.

"Thousands of persons are being denied relief by using this money to pay salaries and to squander on this mushroom undertaking," said Barbour.

Bankers Talk Over Course Of Action

(International News Service)

HOT SPRINGS, Va., April 28.—The executive council of the American Bankers Association today scrutinized and debated the ABA's course of action on matters of policy recommended by committees of the association.

Outstanding was the matter of how long present low interest rates will maintain. The subject of postal savings and government competition with banking in the field of credits were also given consideration as was possible action on the question of bank taxation, with special reference to the 5.219 revised U. S. statutes which affect banking.

Much interest and speculation was manifest regarding tonight's schedule address by Leonard P. Ayres, of Cleveland, chairman of the economic policy commission, on "inflation and problems of bank management during the inflation."

Inflicts Wound On Self Police Say

George Rice, colored, 1003 Moravia street, is in the New Castle hospital suffering from a wound on one of his hands.

According to police who investigated the accident they were told by Mrs. Rice that Rice inflicted the wound himself with a razor.

After a passer-by is said to have seen Rice break a window in the place, police were summoned and Officers Flinner and Suber took him to the hospital.

At the hospital Rice refused to talk concerning his wound.

Broken Hearted Chorus Cutie Is Seeking $100,000

Claims "Big Bad Man" Promised To Marry Her, He Denies Romance

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 28.—Pretty Yvette Harris, 30-year-old chorus girl, today filed a $100,000 breach of promise suit against Daniel J. Leary, 75-year-old banker and lumber man.

She claimed he showered her with jewels and promises of marriage. She offered to produce a diamond solitaire platinum ring as proof of a broken engagement.

Leary, who is the father of Beth Leary, socialite and friend of King Edward VIII, admitted a friendship with Miss Harris and that he gave her presents. But he denies he offered to marry her.

Views Conflict On Ship Rumpus

Secretary Perkins Says Strike On Ship Board Is Not Mutiny

ROPER TAKES OPPOSITE VIEW

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—President Roosevelt has plenty of trouble within the ranks of his official family.

His advisers quarrel bitterly among themselves.

For example:

The row between Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper and Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins as to what a strike on shipboard amounts to.

Secretary Perkins says it is a strike.

Secretary Roper says it is a mutiny.

A mere strike is not punishable. It may lead up to incidents which are, but the strike itself is not. Mutiny at sea is severely punishable, however.

CONFLICTING VIEWS

There haven't been any strikes actually at sea, but there have been several of them on shipboard, in port, and they have delayed some sailings.

Secretary Roper takes the view that the mariners, having signed on, were at sea to all intents and purposes. Secretary Perkins' reasoning is that a fo'mast hand simply is a workingman until his ship casts off and after it has docked—that he is at perfect legal liberty to quit his job whenever he pleases, except when his craft literally is on the bounding billows.

Precedent is rather in Secretary Roper's favor.

Under maritime law a sailor gives his services for a round-trip cruise, and is not supposed to resign and go ashore on an intermediate wharf any more than he may refuse orders on the ocean.

However, times, under the American flag, are changing.

POOR CONDITIONS?

Illustratively, it is charged that the Morro Castle disaster would not have occurred except for the low pay and poor living conditions of officers and crew on the unlucky vessel, coupled with consequent bad discipline, and inadequate steamship inspection—for which Secretary Roper's department is responsible.

The loss of the Vestris, which simply turned turtle off Hatteras in 1928, also is attributed to insufficient inspection. The Vestris, to be sure, was a British, not an American craft, but she operated out of New York and was subject to American clearance regulations.

All the same, American seamanship has been much more stringently protected under Yankee law than by any foreign power.

ACT FAILS TO PROTECT?

The La Follette (elder La Follette) seamen's act of a couple of decades ago was designed to place American sailormen on an equal basis with all American workers on land.

Theoretically it should have done so.

In practice?

American trade, within its tariff wall, has been able to fight outside competition at home, but it cannot fight it on the free seas.

Prices of building, equipping and manning ships are relatively high here. All very well for American coastal trade, which can be controlled. But in foreign markets a merchant shipping subsidy is called for.

The shipowners want it, for obvious reasons.

They do not seem to want to divide it with the fo'mast hands.

Church Golfers Enjoy Banquet

First M. E. Is Scene Of Second Annual Church Golf League Banquet

SEASON STARTS THURSDAY, MAY 7

New Castle Church Golf league enjoyed its second annual spring banquet last night at the First Methodist church with upwards of 75 in attendance. Plans were completed for opening the church golf league at the New Castle Field club course on Thursday night May 7th.

Rev. D. L. Ferguson, pastor of the Highland U. P. church and Numa Vidal occupied the roles of principal speakers and filled the bill very nicely. There was just enough humor to both of the talks to make them interesting. Both Rev. Ferguson and Mr. Vidal gave the golfers some very good advice.

Sam Lewis Speaks

Ike Miller held down the role of toastmaster and did a fine job of it. "Red Williams and Judy Sypher teamed up to provide the music for the occasion and draw many thanks.

President Sam Lewis had charge of the latter part of the program and he introduced the team captains to those present. Mr. Lewis entertained a motion from John B. Offutt that seven holes constitute a match this year in case of darkness and the motion carried unanimously. Mr. Lewis also entertained a motion from C. C. Headland that if a player does not show up by 6:30 o'clock that the match is forfeited. This was passed upon unanimously.

New Rules Made

It was suggested that in order to expediate the league this year that anyone who can play their matches early do so at the course designated for the particular Thursday night, but to be sure that your scores are recorded, said Mr. Lewis. Many of the professional men of the city would prefer to play earlier in the afternoon than 6 o'clock and matches with doctors, dentists and others can be arranged between the contesting players.

The banquet was a big success in every way, and reflects credit on the committee that handled the arrangements.

A 'Golf Poem' read by Cliff C. Headland was muchly enjoyed. Short talks by the following were enjoyed, Rev. C. H. Heaton of the First Baptist church, Captain V. Arthur Smith, Angelo Monsey and W. M. Nunn.

Team captains were given church golf league membership cards for their players this year and these may be obtained by getting in touch with the various captains.

Very Fine Program

The following program was carried out:

Invocation—Rev. W. W. Sniff pastor of Mahoning Christian church.

Singing of America, led by "Red" Williams.

Pep Singing led by "Red" Williams, accompanied by Judy Sypher.

Dinner.

Address—Rev. D. L. Ferguson of Highland U. P. church.

Address—Numa Vidal.

Introduction of President, Sam Lewis by Toasmaster Ike Miller.

Introduction by President Lewis of Angelo "Dike" Monsey of the Field Club course, Captain V. Arthur Smith of the Sylvan Heights course, and W. M. Nunn of Castle Hills course.

Short Talk—Rev. C. H. Heaton of First Baptist church.

Introduction of team captains by Mr. Lewis. Presenting of 1936 schedule of matches by Charles "Bugs" Walther.

Poem on Golf—By Cliff C. Headland.

Presentation of handicaps—Fulton Magill, secretary of the Church League.

Adoption of motion to make 7 holes constitute a match this year in case of darkness. Motion presented by John B. Offutt.

More Than 1,000 Golfers Entered In National Open

Over 1,000 Ambitious Club-Swingers Seek Title Held By Sam Parks, Jr.

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 28—Approximately 1,000 club-swingers have formally announced their intention of trying to knock Sam Parks, Jr., of Pittsburgh, off the national golf throne in the championship tournament at the Baltusrol club, Short Hills, N. J., June 4-6, the United States Golf Association revealed today.

Parks will be there trying to stop them, his entry being in the stack which has cascaded into association headquarters, with the deadline set for 6 o'clock this evening.

Late arrivals were expected to bring the field to a new record over the 1,177 entries in 1930 as previously predicted by Joseph Dey, U. S. G. A., secretary, he said today.

Practically every golfer of note in the nation has entered, Dey said, and the prominent absentees, along with dozens of still unregistered lesser lights, were expected to beat the deadline and swell the total.

Two Shipments Of Trout To Arrive

Shipments of brook trout will arrive here at 9 a. m. Thursday and also at 9 a. m. Friday, according to Karl Rohrer, president of the Lawrence County Sportsmen's Association.

They will be distributed in various streams of the county. Persons who wish to aid in the stocking should telephone Rohrer at 8086 R-6.

WOULD BOOK GAME

The First Presbyterians of the Church softball league would like to book a couple of practice games for next week at Washington High field. The team will hold a practice session each night this week at 5 o'clock. For games with the First Presbyterians call Dr. Prugh at 5341-R.

Yankee Players Slugging Ball

Yanks Hope To Oust Cleveland From First Place By Terrific Hitting

INDIANS-REDS WIN ON MONDAY

By LAWTON CARVER
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 28—Perhaps the league-leading Cleveland Indians are not perturbed by it, but nevertheless they were brought face to face with something akin to the "murderers' row" of the Ruth era when they opened a series here today with the New York Yankees.

Seven regulars on the New York Club are hitting .300 or better and on this batting attack the Yanks are pinning their hopes. In fourth place, a game and a half behind the pace-setting Indians, with Boston and Detroit sandwiched in between, the Yanks have the best hitting club in the American League at the moment.

Yanks Seek Lead

Their hitting against pitchers fettered by the cold quite possibly will see them in the League lead before they go on the road again after a long home stand beginning with the Cleveland series.

The Yankee Blasters are led by Myril Hoag, the California outfielder who apparently has hit his major league stride and to date has an average of .429. Bill Dickey, the long-legged catcher has a mark of .417, and Lou Gehrig, who got off to a poor start last season, is going along at a .383 clip. Something like the Gehrig of old.

And, of course, Young Joe DiMaggio, called the greatest minor leaguer to come up in years, hasn't even been in a game yet, giving the Yanks promise of still more power when his injured foot finally is well and he begins to swing the bludgeon that gave him an average of .398 in the Pacific coast league last season.

Joseph is expected to get into the Yankee lineup within the week, but even with him out some neat slugfests may be expected, and not all on the part of the Yankees. The Indians have a half dozen hitters among the leaders, as they open their first Eastern invasion.

Indians Win

In the only American League game played yesterday, the Indians won with a mighty punch. George Blaeholder pitched a superb game for the tribe to win over Russ Van Atta of the Browns by 2 to 1 on Bruce Campbell's home run over the center field wall in the seventh.

With that parting shot, the Indians lead the Western American League clubs east—St. Louis opening at Philadelphia, Detroit and Washington and Chicago at Boston.

In the only national league game Tommy Thevenow singled in the 10th to drive in the run that gave Cincinnati a 5 to 4 victory over Chicago. Lon Warneke dropped the decision on the mound to Hollingsworth.

National League games today took Eastern teams West, with the league leading New York Giants at St. Louis, Brooklyn at Chicago, Philadelphia at Pittsburgh and Boston at Cincinnati.

Horton Smith Money Winner

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 28—Horton Smith of Chicago, pocketed the Lion's share of the prize money during the golf pro's winter campaign it was revealed today.

Smith, who recently gave up his job as professional here to join the staff of a sporting goods manufacturer collected $7,048 during the southern campaign. Runnerup was Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., who gathered dollars to the number of 5,310.

Polish Alliance Team Will Meet

Members of the Polish National Alliance baseball team will have a meeting at 6 o'clock tonight at the home of "Cab" Mrozek. Manager Jack Boczar asks that the following attend the meeting: L. Mrozek, J. Carik, Ted Klotz, J. Telez, J. Ostrosky, W. Brysh, S. Magusiak, W. Cwynar, W. W. Cwynar, J. Mescall, T. Mescall, H. Peplowski, J. Slizeski, E. Todd and J. Smialowski.

VOLLEY BALL TO START WEDNESDAY

Wednesday will make the start of a volley ball league in the Lincoln-Garfield gymnasium, Physical Director Charles Richards announced today.

The circuit consists of four teams, Mahoning A. A., Lincoln Tigers, Wabash Bears and Marcellas. Part of the schedule follows:

Wednesday, April 29, Mahoning A. A. vs. Marcellas; Wabash Bears vs. Lincoln Tigers.

Thursday, April 30 Marcellas vs. Wabash Bears; Lincoln Tigers vs. Mahoning A. A.

Friday, May 1, Wabash Bears vs. Marcellas; Mahoning A. A. vs. Lincoln Tigers.

BOWLING

LAWRENCE-BEAVER LEAGUE

This week will see the closing games in the Beaver-Lawrence County Ten Pin League. Pitzer by winning four out of six games while the leading Saltzmans were dropping three straight, narrowed the gap between first and second place to three games. Should Pitzer win its six postponed games they would go into a tie with Saltzman for first place and should each team win its three scheduled games to close the season this week would result in a tie necessitating a roll-off for the championship. Should the Boosters who occupy fourth place win its three remaining games and Ludwig lose two games there would be a tie for third place. The Elks and Union Brewing will battle it out for fifth position. All in all the closing week should prove productive of some excellent bowling. The bowling during the past week was of such high caliber that only those who got into the select six hundred circle are listed.

Harry Thomas 674 and 612. Hartnett 650; Cline 632 and 619; Shaffalo 631; McDanel 616; J. Hedwig 616 and McDonald 605.

Those hitting 220 or better are as follows: Harry Thomas 264 and 230; Stickle 238 and Shaffalo 238; Cline 236 and 224; Zeigler 235; Robertson 234; McDanel 232 and 224; Hartnett 231; Martin 227 and 223; Williams 224; McCormick 224; J. Hedwig 223; McDonald 221 and Colodas 220.

Emil Grommes Is Low Qualifier On High School Team

Star Center On Senior High Basketball Team Is Also Golfer Of Note

Besides being a star basketball player for New Castle high school "Red Hurricanes," Emil Grommes, the boy who helped to win that Rankin game at the Pitt stadium is quite an accomplished golfer, as to-wit, his 84 in the qualifying round for the varsity golf team at the high school yesterday.

The qualifying was done at the Field club course, which makes the 84 look all the sweeter. Another qualifying round will be shot today. Two other floor stars are in the running for places on the golf team, Dal Mumford, the star forward, and "Chinkie-Winkie" Dutkin.

The first match of the year for New Castle high will be with Ellwood City high on May 7, this is a postponement of the match carded for today.

The qualifying first round: Emil Grommes, 84; Stanley Derzypolski, 88; Oscar Mancine, 89; Charles Mort, 91; Tom Heck, 93; Alex Dutkin, 94; Dal Mumford, 96; W. Bucci, 96; J. Monsey, 101; Ross Bridenbaugh, 102; Pete Evangelist, 100; Edwin Wilson, 117; F. Annerella, 102; Robert Mackie, 104.

Patty Berg, of Minneapolis, golf's youngest and newest sensation and Joyce Wethered, regarded as the game's foremost feminine player stole the show at Northwood England, Monday. Miss Berg was on the winning side. She teamed with Enid Wilson, three times British champion. They beat Marion Miley, of Lexington, Ky., and Miss Wethered 5 and 4. With Kathleen Garnham for her partner, Miss Berg's second victims were Mrs. Maureen Orcutt Crews of Coral Gables, Fla., and Gwen Hartopp. The score was 3 to 2. Playing with Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite, of Fort Worth, Miss Withered needed only three holes to equal the men's professional record of 70 as they beat Glenna Collett Vare, the American team captain and Miss Wilson 4 and 3. Par for the course is 73. The record is held by the veteran, Abe Mitchell.

Tab Cecil Travis, Senators gangling shortstop, appears a likely contender for the American league batting championship. The 22 year old infielder, doing well after a shift from third base, has hit at a .389 clip during the first two weeks of the season.

Contending that minor league baseball fans listen to radio accounts of major league games rather than attend the minor circuit games, prohibition of such broadcasts will be demanded today of Judge K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, at Chicago, today.

Penn State association will operate again this year, President Elmer Dailey having succeeded in bringing McKeesport and Greensburg into the fold, making the loop a six club affair. The other clubs on the roster are Jeannette, Monessen, Charleroi and Butler.

Maxie Baer May Lead Dance Band

Baer Not Contemplating Early Return To Fistic Wars, Says Hoffman

By ED LABOWITCH
International News Service Sports Writer

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 28.—Max Baer is not contemplating returning to the ring—at least not for the present—the curly headed former boxing champ declared here today.

The Livermoore butcher boy who later became world's heavyweight champion, only to tumble from his throne because, as he has admitted, he couldn't keep away from the night life, has other plans which he would like to take a crack at first.

May Lead Band

He announced today he is seriously considering leading a Los Angeles dance orchestra, which has been in rehearsal for the past 10 months, and making a tour of the country with the 14 members.

"Of course," Baer admitted, "if I get the right kind of an offer, for the right kind of a fight and for the right kind of money, I may jump back into the ring sooner than I anticipate—and again I may not.

"Right now I am keeping myself busy acting as referee at boxing and wrestling matches. I am keeping in condition by light daily workouts. I play golf every day and each morning I get up at 4 a. m. and take a four-mile hike.

"However, I am interested seriously in the dance orchestra proposition and I may take it over right away."

Ancil Hoffman, Baer's manager, at whose ranch Baer and his wife reside, has just placed Max under another five-year contract.

Landis Approves Of Radio Protest By Minor Leagues

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 28.—Kenishaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball, today will hear the demand of minor league officials that radio broadcasting of major league games into minor league territory be prohibited.

Minor league executives contend fans would rather listen to a radio description of major league games than attend ball games in their own cities.

Judge Landis will meet today with William Harridge, president of the American League; W. G. Branham, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, and members of the executive committee of the National Association.

Rohrer High In Nonpariel Shoot

Karl Rohrer was high man in the semi-weekly shoot of the Nonpariel club held at the West Side range with a 191 score out of a possible 200. Second high was held by Rod Davis with 189, and third by Adams with 179.

The Nonpariel club went to Niles, O., last Friday and defeated the Niles, O., rifle team by three points, according to Karl Rohrer today. The results were Nonpariel 920, Niles 917.

Results of the match: Rohrer, 191; Davis, 189; Adams, 179; Grodecour, 178; Boyd, 171; Chambers, 167; Shaw, 164; Pattison, 161; Kennedy, 135; Post, 127. There will be another shoot tonight at the West Side range by the Nonpariel boys.

Box Factory To Have Fast Team

Manager John Fair of the Box Factory softball team will start his fourth year in the city league with a strong team, according to all indications. A series of games have already been carded with Martins Ferry according to Mr. Fair.

The Box Factory team will probably lineup as follows this season—Paulie Testa and Tony Mastern catchers, Bob Pascarella, Nick Ritchie, James Bartlett, and Al Ritchie pitchers, Mike DiMuccio short, Tom Fair first, "Dink" Russell second, Woody Leonwelli, third, Joe Fair roving short, Ben Galano in left, Vinnie Gallagher in center and Frank Picarro or Pagley in right field.

SPORTSMEN TO MEET

All those who are interested in the formation of a sportsmen association in the Mt. Jackson and Sunnyside districts, are asked to meet at the home of Ransom Barris Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Barris home is located on the Mt. Jackson road.

FIRST CHRISTIANS TO MEET

All those who are interested in trying for places on the First Christian church softball team, be present tonight at 8 o'clock at the church. Organization plans will be made at this time.

Eight Teams In Softball League Of City Churches

Highland U. P. And Third U. P. Latest Teams To Enter Church Softball

There will be eight churches in the New Castle Church Softball League this year, according to Supervisor Henry MacNichols today. A meeting was held last night at which time the Highland U. P. and Third U. P. teams joined up.

The season will swing open May 12. The following fields will be utilized: George Washington, Elders, Mahoning, B. & O. One more field is needed by the league. The contracts of the players must be in the hands of the secretary by May 5.

The following churches in addition to the two mentioned above, will be in the league: First Christians, Croton M. E., First Presbyterians, First Baptist, Mahoning M. E., and Second U. P.

Ruby Moore Is High In Shoot

Ruby Moore was high in the semi-weekly shoot of the New Castle Rifle club last night at the Cathedral range with the magnificent score of 193 out of a possible 200, which is some shooting for a woman, believe me.

Leo Hill was second high with 191, and Allen was third with 190.

The results last night: Ruby Moore, 193; Leo W. Hill, 191; Allen, 190; Harmer, 189; Dean, 178; Reynolds, 183; VanHorn, 174; McKeown, 183; E. Crawford, 173; E. McBride, 178; Shipler, 181; Thomas, 173; Patterson, 180; Black, 185; Waddington, 176; McKibben, 185; Finley, 174; Houck, 181.

Colonial A. C. Not In League

The Colonial A. C. baseball team has voted not to enter the Lawrence County League this year, but instead will play a strong independent schedule, according to those close to the North Hillers.

A practice session will be held every night this week at Colonial Field at 5 o'clock. The following should be on hand: Jess McCann, Jack McCann, Fabian, D. Morgan, Pruitt, Mitchell, Hib Reynolds, Hartman, Hill, Frank, Cramer, Maxwell, Swisher, Sergeant, Jackson, Shoaf and any others who want to tryout for the team.

Banquet Tonight For Floor Stars

First Banquet Of Its Kind Will Be Held At First U. P. Church Tonight

The Lawrence County High school boys are all a "twitter" today over the prospects of the big combined first annual Lawrence County High School basketball banquet to be held in the First U. P. church tonight at 6:30 o'clock.

General Chairman Jay Rudolph said today that arrangements have been completed for a mighty successful dinner and program to follow. There are several surprises in store for those who attend.

It is expected that upwards of 100 young men and their athletic directors will gather round the festive boards tonight.

Lawther As Speaker

Former Head Basketball Coach at Westminstar College John D. Lawther, has been secured as the principal speaker and will have a valuable message on basketball for the county high school boys.

The banquet tonight is being given with the funds obtained at the recent New Castle High-County All-Star game at Washington High. The championship Bessemer High team will come in for its share of praise at the banquet tonight, and considerable honor will fall into the lap of Coach J. K. Fredericks, of Bessemer high the moulder of champions.

Burleigh Grimes Under Suspension

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., April 28.—Burleigh Grimes, manager of the Louisville Colonels, today drew a 48-hour suspension and a $25 fine from President George M. Trautman of the American Association for a run-in Sunday with Umpire O'Brien.

Grimes was accused of trodding on O'Brien's toes while protesting a called strike in the second game of a double-header with St. Paul. The suspension applies at once.

AROUND CITY HALL

Any person who is named to the city police force in the future must spend four months in training at the state police training school at Hershey, Pa., according to Mayor Charles E. McGrath's ordinance adopted yesterday. As soon as the appointment is made, the appointee must furnish a $200.00 bond which may be forfeited, providing the person named does not complete the course of training or quits within 16 months from the time of his appointment. During his course of training at Hershey the appointee will receive a compensation of $50.00 each month, serve actually six months here on probation and during the first 12 months of his actual service receive the wage of a first year policeman which is approximately 10 per cent less than veteran police receive. The mayor believes that at the expiration of the four months training term the appointee will be qualified to perform all the duties of a policeman. Provision was made in the ordinance whereby the city officials can, if they deem the man is not making good, release the policeman, yet not collect the bond. It is probable that four men will be named soon and will start to school at Hershey June 1.

Mayor Charles E. McGrath intimated today that if habitual defendants in police court do not see the light he may have appointed someone to take charge of them during the days they are sentenced to work for the city and the city will derive some benefit of their work. Their only wages will be meals. The mayor at first believed a wood pile might cause some of the habituals to forsake their panhandling or over-indulgence in intoxicants, then decided upon another form of work. The first group was assigned to a dump and the second group sentenced were given duties in a park and an avenue on the outskirts of the city.

Members of council will visit Glass street some time today to view the sidewalk situation. James Bongivengo, of 308 Glass street, brought this about because his sidewalk, he told solons, is below other sidewalks and also below the cartway. When rain descends no one can walk on the sidewalk, Mr. Bongivengo asserted, and further alleged that water backs into his cellar. He declared his willingness to pay an assessment providing the sidewalk was of use. He further alleged that sidewalks were to have been placed on the opposite side of Glass street, but this has not taken place. Council decided to view the Glass street situation.

Not one billboard in the city has been erected according to law, according to City Engineer Glenn R. Throop, who has informed the city fathers that despite promises violations continue. Councilmen B. F. Butler and Joseph D. Alexander accompanied the old council on a billboard inspection tour and later pointed out to owners where violations had taken place. One of the billboard owners when told that a board at East Washington and Pearson street was a hazard had the signboard removed. Another owner, according to Throop, promised to obey the law, then extended a billboard.

Indications are that the city will award the dance pavilion concession at Cascade Park to B. J. Biondi, who placed the only bid with council Monday. Biondi has operated the dance hall several years. . . . When North street is widened and the widened portion paved, property improvements will be made by several property owners, according to reports, hence the desire of the city to start actual work. . . . Judging from the captures that are being made by the department of police, the men are clicking. . . . Clean-up work has commenced in the parks of the city.

Unless one obtains a permit from police at a license rate of $5.00 per day, no one will be permitted to operate any loud speaker, radio, phonograph or sound reproducer outside any building or on any public street here. And should such a permit be granted, the loud speaker or sound reproducer will not be allowed to operate in any residential, hospital, school or church zone. In the other districts the blare will only be allowed between 8 a. m. and 8 p. m. Should the law be broken the violator can be fined as large amount as $300.00, in default of which he can be committed to jail for a 10 days' period.

It is all right to hold initiations, but such as was held on Washington street near the Public Square recently was not considered right and as a result several of the boys who had been ordered to scrub a sidewalk found themselves being questioned at the police station shortly after they had applied their scrubbing talents to the much traversed walk. An officer came along, saw the boys at work and told them to report at the police station. Explanations were in order, following which Mayor Charles E. McGrath had his say. The public demonstration of what one has to do in order to become a member of this organization was ordered cancelled immediately.

Captain of Detectives W. G. McMullen, in charge of fingerprints and photographs stated today that on Sunday he "printed" and photographed 19 prisoners at the police station, which proved a record for any one day since the bureau was established three years ago. He stated that during the current month 109 persons have been fingerprinted. Since the bureau was established he has fingerprinted 2,027 persons arrested here. In addition to this number, he has received from other cities, state police and the department of justice between two and three thousand other "prints" of persons taken into custody or in the category of "wanted persons." He stated that every person now arrested here is fingerprinted and photographed. McMullen added that he has taken the fingerprints and photographs of about 100 businessmen and children. Their records are kept separate from the files containing records of criminals or regarded as suspicious. A copy of their fingerprints and a photograph was given to each of the persons who requested that records be made.

LICENSE FEE DUE FOR MOTOR BOAT

HARRISBURG, April 28.—Applications for 1936 motor boat licenses are now in the hands of owners of power craft, Secretary of Revenue John B. Kelly said today.

The 1935 licenses, which became effective January 1, 1935, and which would have expired on December 31, will remain valid until May 31 under an amendment to the licensing act passed by the last session of the legislature. The amendment provides that future licenses will be valid from June 1 of each year to May 31 of the following year.

Unlike automobile license plates which must be replaced every year, motor boat license plates are issued permanently and are retained by the boat owner from year to year as long as he pays his annual renewal fee.

The temperature of the filaments in a lighted electric light bulb is approximately 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

AN ORDINANCE

Regulating the use of all loudspeakers and other instruments for reproducing sound within the public highways and places of the City of New Castle, and providing penalties for the violation thereof:

Section 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Council of the City of New Castle, Pennsylvania, That it shall be unlawful for any person to operate any loud-speaker, radio, phonograph, or other instrument for the reproduction of sound, outside of any building or in the public streets, highways and other places of the City of New Castle without first having obtained a license as hereinafter provided to do so. And any person who shall operate any such loudspeaker, radio, phonograph, or other instrument for the reproduction of sound without first having obtained a license as herein provided shall be guilty of a violation of this ordinance and subject to its penalties.

Section 2. Any person who shall desire to operate any loud-speaker, radio, phonograph, or other instrument for the reproduction of sound, in any highway or public place in the said City of New Castle, or any part of which, or attachment to which is outside of a building so that the sound therefrom will spread into any public highway or other place in the said City, shall make application to the Police Department for a license so to do. And if the Police Department is satisfied that the granting of such license will not create a public nuisance or interfere with the public peace or with the rights of any other person, the said Police Department may grant a license to the said applicant for a period of not more than ten days, provided, the said applicant shall first pay to the City Treasurer a license fee of Five ($5.00) Dollars per day for such license.

Section 3. Whenever a license is granted as provided in Section 2, it shall entitle the holder therof to operate a loud-speaker, or other such instrument, according to such restrictions as the Police Department shall impose at the time of the issuance of the said license, and subject to the following general restrictions:

First: No such loud-speakers or other instrument may be operated before 8:00 o'clock A. M. or after 8:00 o'clock P. M. on any day.

Second: No such loud-speaker or other instrument may be operated in any residence zone in the City of New Castle at any time, or within the vicinity of any school building, hospital or church.

Any person holding a license under this ordinance who shall violate any of the restrictions imposed by the said license or by this ordinance, shall be guilty of the violation of this ordinance and subject to its penalties.

Section 4. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be subject, upon conviction before the Mayor or any Alderman of the said City, to pay a fine of not more than Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars for each offense of which he is found guilty, together with the costs of prosecution. Upon default of the payment of the said fine and costs he shall undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed ten (10) days.

State of Pennsylvania, County of Lawrence, City of New Castle, ss.

I, C. Ed. Brown, City Clerk, hereby certify that the above and foregoing ordinance was passed by the Council of the City of New Castle, Pa., April 27, 1936, signed by the Mayor and attest by the City Clerk.

In witness whereof I herewith set my hand and affix seal of said City this 27th day of April, A. D. 1936.

C. Ed. Brown, City Clerk.

Trading Quiets After Selling

Some Further Liquidation Occurs In Stock Market This Morning

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, April 28.—A sudden influx of selling just before the noon hour, sending the ticker two minutes behind, extended early losses in the stock market to more than 2 points.

Liquidation continued to be concentrated in the steels, motors, rails and coppers, leaders in yesterday's sharp reaction. Some support came in after noon and trading again quieted down.

General Motors, despite its preliminary report showing first quarter net of $1.17 against 68 cents the year before, tumbled nearly 2 points at one time. Chrysler had an early one-point gain converted into a similar loss.

Kennecott and International Nickel each lost more than 2 points before meeting support. Cerro De Pasco lost nearly as much, while Anaconda fell more than a point.

U. S. Steel slumped nearly 2 points, Bethlehem 7 per cent preferred about 3 and Bethlehem common about a point.

Carrier shares continued reactionary, Atchison lost almost 2 points, while Union Pacific and New York Central were close behind. Farm equipment sold off with the rest of the list.

Bonds were led downward by rails and industrials. Grains recovered part of yesterday's heavy losses. Cotton dipped 25 cents a bale.

Gregory Takes Decision Over Davis In Fight

Paul Kraynak Loses To Ohio Champion In Ameteur Show Last Night

CAPACITY CROWD ENJOYS FIGHT CARD

ELLWOOD CITY, April 28.—Shelby auditorium attracted a capacity crowd to its second amateur fight show of the season Monday evening and spectators expressed their pleasure with the nine bout card in no uncertain terms.

The show was replete with action and a number of times had the crowd in a frenzy of excitement. The fighters were well matched by Matchmaker Joe Latiano, which resulted in another success to the Shelby Social club who sponsored the show.

Boxing Displayed

Despite the fact that Johnny Tirpak of Pittsburgh failed to appear for the main bout with Rich Gregory of Butler, due to illness, the crowd still got its money's worth when Eddie Davis of Youngstown, O., substituted. Davis, who reached the finals of the Ohio State amateur tournament in the featherweight class, proved a worthy foe for the Butler ace amateur battler. Davis proved to be extremely clever and was hard to hit. He easily won the first round when he encouraged Gregory to lead and then would counter punch him. Both boys mixed it up in the second round and landed good solid blows. Gregory seemed to have solved the style of his opponent by the third and last round and staggered him with several terrific body punches. Towards the close of the round he changed his tactics and launched a two-fisted attack to the face and head. Wavis was on the verge of a knockout when the bell sounded. This sudden revival by Gregory in the last round earned him a close decision.

Shelton Bell of Youngstown, O., Ohio State middleweight champion, obtained partial revenge in the semi-final bout of the evening when he won a close decision over Paul Kraynak of Ellwood City. Bell lost by technical knockout to Paul's brother, Mike, at the first show.

Blows were exchanged freely throughout this fight which had noticeable effect on both. Fatigue was in evidence by the close of the third round. The action was fast and furious throughout. A tantalizing left jab with which Bell scored frequently, won him a close decision.

Bartle Thrills Fans

The third bout of the evening stole the show. After a furious slugfest Benny Bartle of Ellwood City won by technical knockout over Joe Lukshutz of Midland in 2 minutes and 55 seconds of the third round. There was no preliminaries or time wasted in this fight. At the sound of the opening gong both boys waded into each other with hammer and tongs. They stood toe to toe and slugged with hard rights and lefts to the face and head. Sensing a knockout the huge crowd was on its feet with a roar of excitement. They marvelled at how either could stand up after that. But this was only the start. Both boys were on the floor a number of times before the fight was over. Twice they were down at the same time. Bartle found that his opponent was an easy prey to a straight left jab in the second round and began to use this effectively for the remainder of the fight. As Lukshutz was knocked off balance with the jab, Bartle would follow up with a hard right hook to the face or head. From the second round on the Midland boy took a terrific beating. When the fight was humanely stopped by Referee Freddie Maester, Lukshutz's face was a bloody mass and reminded one of a steak. His hands were hanging limply at his side and was defenseless when the fight was stopped. It was one of the most courageous sights ever beheld in a situation of this type. Despite the beating he was taking, Lukshutz kept boring in and swinging, and he would have gone down swinging. As he left the ring the crowd rose and gave him a tremendous ovation, just as they did for the victor.

Prelims Are Good

In the curtain raiser Kid Roberts of Springdale, Pa., through his aggressiveness, won a decision over Karl Keul of Ellwood City. Both missed frequently but when they landed they were telling blows.

Some real class was displayed in the second fight of the evening as Jimmy Patton of Youngstown, O., won a clear cut decision over Al Mancini of Pittsburgh. Patton was a clever boxer and proved hard to fathom. A terrific right hook had Mancini against the ropes a number of times. Patton was fast and shifty. He would dart in, land a couple of blows, and be out again before his opponent realized what had happened.

Bob McShane of East Liverpool, O., proved that he had too much experience for the colored Joe Thomas of Pittsburgh. McShane displayed that he had some knowledge of the game as he landed blows at will and was able to ward off any attack of the Pittsburgh boy. But despite this the latter showed a willingness to mix it.

Sam Crovatta of Butler, formerly of Uniontown, won by technical knockout over John Wilhelm of Youngstown, O., in 1:35 of the third round. It was a pretty even fight until Wilhelm received a cut above his eye late in the second round. When the cut became aggravated early in the third, the fight was stopped by the referee.

An unpopular decision was given Fritz Waldeck of Springdale over Tony Adamo of New Castle. Waldeck was a good boxer and made the New Castle boy miss many blows. Except an occasional attack Waldeck was mostly on the defense. The fans were of the opinion that Adamo should have been given the decision on aggressiveness.

By piling up a big lead in the first two rounds John Henry Thomas was awarded a unanimous decision over Mike Olerchek of Springdale. The Pittsburgh colored boy staggered his opponent with hard rights and lefts to the face and head. Olerchek give him blow for blow in the last round, but had started too late.

Don Gardner, radio announcer of Youngstown, O., substituted for Ray Eberle when the latter was unable to be present. Gardner handled this job in an expert like manner. Freddie Maester of Pittsburgh was the referee; Joe Daugherty of Ellwood City and Nat Moll of Midland, judges; Joseph P. Smith and Larry Dinley the timekeepers.

Roper Speaks To Business Leaders

Tells U. S. Chamber Of Commerce Business Must Provide Employment

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—In a speech approved by the White House before delivery, Secretary of Commerce Roper today told the United States Chamber of Commerce that organized business must take over the task of re-employing America's idle millions.

The nation today stands at an economic cross-roads, he said. There must be re-employment or a longer period of heavy taxation and business must carry out the constructive program of putting the idle back at work.

Government has taken the lead, declared Roper. It has, he conceded, necessarily assumed some aspects of bureaucracy, but it is now up to business to take over its natural burden, and rid the government of the necessity of bureaucratic regulation.

Roper set forth a ten-point program for business, and declared that if this were carried out, the wheels of industry would turn faster and smoothly, and the ominous spectre of unemployment would be removed from the United States.

His speech came in the midst of a business program and general session of the chamber's twenty-fourth annual meeting, in which speakers have upbraided the government for invasion of state and local affairs, and derided the Roosevelt re-employment program as a bungling, futile waste of money.

This Picture Cost Photographer His Life

Ernest Voss, 70-year-old camera-shy prospector, was driving his burros along a road at Morgan Hill, Cal. Dr. Jasper Gattuccio, San Jose dentist and amateur photographer (inset), was driving by in his car. The dentist focused his camera on the picturesque old prospector and took the above photograph. The enraged Voss dashed at the dentist, ran back, snatched a shotgun from his cart, took careful aim and fatally wounded Gattuccio. The old man is held for the slaying. This picture was developed by police who had taken Dr. Gattuccio's camera from his car after the shooting. (Central Press)

Seventeen Subjects Listed For Special Legislative Session

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 28.—Gov. George H. Earle on Monday afternoon formally summoned the Pennsylvania legislature to convene in special session next Monday.

The governor said he was standing by the administration estimate of $70,500,000 for relief needs for the remainder of the current biennium, despite opposition from Republican legislative leaders.

His call however, contained no estimate of probable tax needs for the entire program.

Lists 17 Subjects

Delayed for weeks, the governor's call listed 17 subjects his administration deems necessary for consideration at the emergency meeting of the general assembly opening on May 4.

The list of subjects included the original seven the governor outlined to the bi-partian legislative 'harmony" committee and nine others heretofore unmentioned.

The governor, including flood control and legislation for relieving overcrowded conditions in state institutions, "broke" with the "harmony" committee which had rejected both these subjects.

Included In Call

The call included the following subjects:

1. Flood relief and control.
2. Unemployment relief.
3. Relief of overcrowding and correction of fire and safety hazards in state hospitals, asylumns, sanitoria and other institutions.
4. Legislation to enable Pennsylvania to participate in the benefits of the Federal Social Security Acts.
5. Abatement of penalties on real estate taxes.
6. Legislation to permit refunding of certain existing bonded indebtedness at lower rates of interest.
7. Legislation to provide revenue for the above ennumerated subjects.
8. Validating municipal bond issues.
9. Legislation to authorize chattel mortgages to secure loans from the federal government.
10. Appropriations to supply deficiencies incurred by various state departments boards and commissions in aiding in connection with flood disaster.
11. Legislation to strengthen enforcement of a existing revenue statutes.
12. Appropriations for financially distressed school districts.
13. By taxation or otherwise to provide revenues for the commonwealth and its political subdivisions to carry out the purposes of the call.
14. Legislation appropriate for the commemorating by the commonwealth and its citizens of the 150th anniversary of the adoption of the constitution of the United States of America and the 300th anniversary of the establishment of the commonwealth.
15. An amendment to the constitution permitting amendments to be submitted to the electors of the commonwealth more frequently than is now permitted.
16. Legislation to eliminate cruelty to animals that are displayed for commercial purposes.
17. Appropriations for the expense of the special session.

Camp Preparations To Be Started Soon

July 7 Opening Date For Camp Rentz Season; Work To Be Done

Workmen within the very near future will begin readying Camp Fred L. Rentz, of the Y. M. C. A. for the promising summer season scheduled to open on July 7, Y. M. C. A. authorities announced today.

Camp Rentz, the "Y" said, will probably see its greatest season this year.

One hundred boy weeks have been reserved by parents already, it was reported. This in itself would indicate a record attendance year, and the "Y" is proceeding with plans to accommcate a capacity throng of youngsters.

The "Y" said telephone inquiries on camp are reaching it daily.

A registration fee for each week the boy expects to stay is required when a boy is registered, it was stressed.

Employment Found By Most Students

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—Contrary to the popular impression, most college graduates find employment soon after leaving the class room, according to dean Joseph H. Willits, of the Wharton School of Finance at the University of Pennsylvania.

A survey of 240 students graduated from Wharton last year, he declared, showed that 84 per cent are now employed, of the remainder seven per cent are taking graduate courses and only nine per cent are without jobs.

Shenango Presbytery Women To Gather At Slippery Rock Church Thursday

All arrangements are completed for the annual sessions of the Shenango Presbyterial, to be held on Thursday at the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church, near Ellwood City.

Sessions of the Presbyterial will be conducted on Eastern Standard Time, the first session opening at 9:30 a. m.

Some changes have been necessitated in the program recently printed in The News, but the morning, afternoon and evening sessions promise to be of much interest.

Delegates from some forty churches of the Lawrence and Mercer county area will attend.

Alice Longworth Says

(Special To The News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—There is a measure of rough justice in the invasion of the Trenton Statehouse by the relief marchers whose plight is largely due to the repeal of the New Jersey legislature of the sales tax that had been passed to care for them.

It is surprising that they did not also invade and take over the governor's office. Governor Hoffman, in spite of having opposed the repealer, refused to use the veto power. He blustered feebly and signed the bill; waggishly using red ink to indicate his disapproval.

The action of the New Jersey jobless is a warning of what could happen anywhere. If the idea spreads throughout the country we might see similar direct action in other state capitals and even in Washington.

It is not a pretty picture to contemplate the unemployed marching on the national capitol. The bonus army represented a mere handful compared to the hordes on relief.

Money that might have helped support these people has already been squandered. The taxpayer had better get ready to come across again.

Senator Coyne Is Renominated

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 29.—State Senator James J. (Jimmy) Coyne, Republican stalwart in the upper chamber and a party leader for many years, won a smashing victory for renomination for another senate term over his independent rival, D. C. (Cap) Davies, final unofficial returns indicated today.

Davies, who had waged a strenuous campaign against the so-called "old guard" faction of the party, failed to carry a single ward in the 43rd Senatorial District, according to the final returns. Coyne will be opposed in November by Thomas E. Kilgallen who ran far ahead of the field in capturing the Democratic nomination.

Congress Fight Is Easy Victory For Orville Brown

State Senator Batchelor Is Re-nominated By Republican Party Voters

FULLERTON WINS IN LAWRENCE CO.

McCullough Named In New Castle—Greer And Young Are Delegates

With an unusually light vote cast, Republicans of the city and county named their standard bearers in the primary election held Tuesday, April 28. Without exception the victories of all the winners were by wide margins, none of the contests being close.

For congress Attorney Orville Brown of Lincoln avenue, New Castle was an easy winner over his two opponents Attorney E. F. G. Harper of New Castle and Attorney J. Campbell Brandon of Butler.

With 263 precincts out of the 280 in the 26th congressional district, Mr. Brown received 18,847 votes, J. Campbell Brandon 9747 and E. F. G. Harper 5631.

The division as to counties follows.

Lawrence county, 90 out of 91 precincts, Brown 7222, Harper, 2017, Brandon 1942.

Beaver county, 96 out of 104 precincts, Brown 8478, Brandon 3601, Harper, 2819.

Butler county, 77 out of 85 precincts, Brandon 4204, Brown 2447, Harper 795.

Brown's victory in Lawrence county and throughout the district was an overwhelming one and surpassed the predictions of his supporters. He is the first Lawrence county Republican to be nominated for congress in the past 25 years.

State Senate

In 186 precincts out of 195 in the 47th state senatorial district Senator Alonzo S. Batchelor of Monaca also won a clear cut victory over his two opponents Miss Wilhelmina C. Behnaman and Virgil E. Bennett, both of Beaver county. Senator Batchelor received more votes than both his opponents together, he receiving 14,429, Bennett 7125 and Behnaman 4397. The division as to counties follows.

Lawrence county, 90 out of 91 precincts 5435, Bennett 2944, Behaman, 1574.

Beaver county 96 out of 104 precincts, Batchelor 8994, Bennett, 4181 and Behnaman, 2823. Senator Batchelor has represented the 47th district in the Pennsylvania State senate in the past four years.

General Assembly

In the race for the nomination to the General Assembly, T. Wilber McCullough of 122½ North Walnut street was named in the first district which is New Castle and W. Sharp Fullerton of North Beaver township was named in the second district. Both victories were by substantial pluralities.

In the first district with all 34 precincts reported, Mr. McCullough polled 2314 votes, Charles B. Mayne his nearest opponent 1392, Mrs. Grace Womer Crawford 1212, C. L. McMillen 857 and George L. Lewis 562. Mr. McCullough's home ward, the third, treated him handsomely

Local Rotarians Go To Washington

Annual District Conclave Opens There Today: More Go Tomorrow

Representatives of New Castle's Rotary club drove to Washington, Pa., today for the opening sessions of the annual two-day conference of clubs of Rotary's 33rd district. The convention closes Thursday night.

President Harold R. McCulloch and Mrs. McCulloch, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Rentz and Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Campbell had gone to the conference city today and on Thursday they will be joined by Ralph W. Bolsinger, J. Lee McLate, J. F. Rentz and possibly others.

The two-day program was to bring before the delegates a group of noted speakers. Business sessions will also take place. It was understood that New Castle may extend a bid for the 1937 conference before the sessions close. Official delegates of the New Castle club were to be selected at Washington.

More than 60 clubs are embraced by the 33rd district of Rotary.

Thousands Write Landon On Ballot

After scanning the returns of Tuesday's primary election, there seems to be no doubt that the people of Lawrence county want Governor Alf M. Landon, of Kansas, as the Republican nominee for president.

Despite the fact that Governor Landon was not entered in the primary, despite the fact that Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, was, and despite the fact that as a general rule presidential candidates in a primary in Pennsylvania get little attention, Governor Landon polled thousands of votes Tuesday through the writing in of his name.

It is doubtful if there is one out of the 91 precincts in the county but what gave him a lot of votes. The classic example of the county is the boro of New Wilmington. Borah got 80 votes there, while Landon's name was written in on 117 ballots.

Landon's name was spelled in a variety of ways. Many spelled it "Langdon," others spelled it "Landum" or "Landin," but the intent was there. It all was a rather interesting commentary upon the thought of the Republican voters in this county concerning the presidency.

Primaries In Two States Add Greatly To Landon Strength

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Although the voting was light and there was a lack of spirited contests, the outcome of the Massachusetts and Pennsylvania primaries further convinced political leaders here today that Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas will go into the Cleveland convention with more first ballot strength than any of his Republican rivals—and that his nomination will speedily follow.

The Massachusetts vote, while not binding, was regarded as especially significant. There Gov. Landon had an 11-to-1 lead over his nearest rival, and a 5-to-1 majority over all of his rivals combined. These rivals included all who have been seriously mentioned for the presidential nomination—Borah, Knox, Hoover, Vandenberg, Dickinson, et al.

In Pennsylvania, where Senator Borah was the only Republican filed, there was a big write-in vote for the Kansas governor.

Roosevelt Rides Through With Ease With Only Slight Minor Break In Slate

(International News Service)

BOSTON, April 29.—Landslide choice of Massachusetts Republicans for the presidential nomination, Gov. Alfred M. Landon, of Kansas, today held a better than eleven to one margin over all primary opponents in virtually complete returns.

President Roosevelt rode through on the Democratic side with only a minor break in the Roosevelt pledged district convention slate in Boston.

Hoover Second

Former President Hoover was second choice on the Republican side and the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, Detroit radio priest, polling 800 votes, followed to President Roosevelt in the state-wide presidential preference primaries yesterday.

With 29 precincts missing out of 1,529 in the state, including Boston's 367 complete, the Republican preference vote stood: Landon, 72,323; Hoover, 6,832; Borah, 5,037; Vandenberg, 2,004; Knox, 1,907.

Although Governor Landon, whose name was written at the bottom of ballots, was the heavy choice of Republicans, elected delegates are unpledged and not bound by the preference expression.

Less than 20 per cent of the registered electorate went to the polls.

MOST CONGRESSMEN IN STATE RENAMED

Theodore L. Moritz Of Pittsburgh, Is Apparently Defeated For Renomination

By WILLIAM G. WEART
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—As the climax of the major political scraps of Pennsylvania's 1936 primary election,, the voters today had nominated Democratic and Republican candidates who will fight it out on Roosevelt administration issues for the 34 congressional seats now held by 23 Democrats and 11 Republicans.

Spectacular battles brought out the voters in several congressional districts, although in some there were little or no contests in either party. A total of 112 Republicans, 97 Democrats and 15 Socialists sought nomination for the 34 seats.

With but few exceptions, the commonwealth's 23 Democratic congressmen, elected in the party's statewide sweep of 1934, and the 11 Republican incumbents appeared to have won renomination.

Two Democrats Lose.

Three Democratic incumbents, however, were bitterly opposed by their own organization and two of them were defeated on the basis of incomplete returns. The lone sur-

PRESTON WINS OVER LEVINE

Kelso Is Unopposed For Renomination In Lawrence County District

Like their Republican brethren, the Democratic voters of Lawrence county took comparatively little interest in the primary election on Tuesday, April 28, but unlike the Republicans, staged a number of battles that were thrillers.

Congressman Charles R. Eckert of Beaver county had little difficulty in defeating his opponent, Perry A. Garrett, for renomination. Eckert won in each of the three counties in the district and more than doubled Garrett's vote.

The division of votes as to counties follows:

Lawrence county, 90 out of 91 precincts: Eckert, 2,337; Garrett, 1,513.

Beaver county, 96 out of 104 precincts: Eckert, 4,182; Garrett 1,582.

Butler county, 77 out of 85 precincts: Eckert, ,2,415; Garrett, 1,338.

State Senate

In the State Senate fight, Assemblyman W. J. Eroe, Jr., of New Castle won by slightly over a thousand votes over H. L. Stewart of New Castle, but only because Beaver county came through with all but 82 of the plurality. In the 47th district, comprised of Lawrence and Beaver counties, Eroe received 4,988 votes and Stewart 3,954 votes. The division as to counties follows:

Lawrence county, 90 out of 91 precincts: Eroe, 1,917; Stewart, 1,835.

Beaver county, 96 out of 104 precincts: Eroe, 3,071; Stewart, 2,119.

The fight was a merry one in Lawrence county and took nearly all of the precincts before it was decided here. In the rural districts Eroe and Stewart were exactly tied with 607 each. Eroe's plurality of 82 in Lawrence county came from the city of New Castle.

General Assembly

Another neck-and-neck fight was staged by Carmi Preston and Attorney Sherman K. Levine of New Castle for the nomination to the General Assembly from the first district. Here again the result seesawed back and forth, with Preston finally pulling away from Levine and winning by 226 votes. Preston received 1,388 votes and Levine 1,162. The two candidates had much in common. They are both youngsters, under 30, both are bachelors and both were running for the first time.

In the second district Assemblyman James B. Kelso had no opposition for the nomination and received practically all the votes cast. No tabulation was kept, as the result was not in doubt.

District Delegates

For district delegates to the Democratic convention in Philadelphia in June, W. A. Freed of Butler was the only candidate on the ballot and received a heavy vote. For the second place the name of Dr. John A. Meehan of New Castle was written in and it is assumed that he won easily, as the leaders of the 26th

PRESIDENT GIVEN BIG PARTY VOTE

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 29.—President Franklin D. Roosevelt, feeling his own political strength in this state for the first time since 1932, held a 16 to 1 lead for the Democratic presidential nomination today as Pennsylvania tabulated returns from its most unostentatious primary election in years.

Scattered and incomplete returns that were devoid of surprises for state and local candidates gave the president 226,148 votes to 14,103 polled by Col. Henry Breckinridge, New York attorney and constitutional Democrat seeking the Democratic nomination as a "protest" candidate. Almost two-thirds of the state's 7,983 voting districts were unreported.

Running without opposition in the Republican preferential U. S. Senator William E. Borah drew 132,117 votes from 1308 districts.

Defeated Congress Candidate Takes Setback In Good Natured Manner

PITTSBURGH, April 29.—Victim of many a setback in a long and checkered political career, Mayor William N. McNair was not without an answer today when asked to explain his defeat in the Democratic congressional nomination race in the 32nd district.

He explained:

"When I went into city hall yesterday, there were three drunks there to greet me. They said 'hello mayor', and that's all.

"Why didn't they ask me for a quarter? They always do. It was election day and they had money—they had been paid for their vote."

But hizzoner doesn't mind much, because:

"I've been cheated so long that it doesn't hurt me. With city employes getting racketeers to turn the buttons on the vote machines, what chance had I?"

Prince Farouk In London Learns Of Death Of Father, Will Be Crowned King

(International News Service)

CAIRO, April 29.—Only a few hours after the death of his father, King Fuad I, 16-year-old Crown Prince Farouk today was proclaimed king of Egypt by the Egyptian government, which announced it would assume the royal prerogatives until these powers can be transmitted to a regency council.

The body of King Fuad, who died of a throat infection, will be taken from Koubbeh Palace to Abdin Palace this afternoon.

The question of a regency for Egypt will be submitted to the state legal department immediately after the elections Saturday.

Informed By Mother

London, April 29.—Egypt's 16-year-old King Farouk, weeping for his dead father, prepared today to return to Cairo to rule his nation under guidance of a regency council.

His mother, Queen Nazli, grief-stricken by death of her husband, the late King Fuad, spoke to the young king by long distance telephone late last night, and said to him:

"My son, you are king."

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

BROOKVILLE, Pa., April 29.—A man described as powerfully built and dark has been taken into custody as the alleged slayer of Miss Katherine Bracken, 45, brutally beaten and assaulted in a lonely signal tower of the Pittsburgh and Shawmut railroad where she worked alone, District Attorney Robert D. Morris, announced today.

Morris said the man, identified as John Becker, 37, a substitute watchman, has made a complete statement but the district attorney refused to divulge the details.

Because of high feelings in the community, the suspect, arrested Saturday, has been spirited out of the community to an undisclosed hiding place, Morris said.

Morris said Becker had been living with an uncle in "A" street here. The uncle, whose name is also John Becker, is a regularly employed night watchman, according to Morris. On the night of the slaying, Morris said, the nephew was substituting for his uncle who knew nothing about Miss Bracken's death.

Becker, Morris charged, left his post at the F. D. Deemer Glass Company plant on the night of the slaying and returned without having been seen. He was taken into custody Saturday and made a statement last night, according to Morris.

Morris said the suspect had at one

House Passes New Tax Bill

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The $803,000,000 tax bill rolled to passage on a wave of Democratic votes in the house today.

The measure now goes to the senate where a protracted battle over the new corporation tax plan embodied in the measure was threatened.

House leaders hailed the vote as a decisive administration victory, although the $1,137,00,000 tax program requested by President Roosevelt in his message of March 3 was materially revised.

The measure as passed contained two principles laid down by the president—the revolutionary new corporation tax scheme and a "windfall" tax on AAA processing taxes returned by the courts or unpaid.

Arthur Mometer

Well another election is over and done and the ballots are counted and in, and it seems rather strange at the lack of the noise and the lack of the tumult and din. There are smiles on the faces of those who came through and frowns on the ones who were lost, as they think of the time and the money they spent, and the nervous energy cost. But we're glad that its over till sometime next fall when the boys will return to the fray, until then we'll forget it and do other things, its seventy three today.

Political Division Of State Assembly Remains Unchanged

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 29.—With political division of the state assembly membership remaining unchanged, Democrats today gained a single seat in the state senate for the special session of the legislature that will convene Monday.

Incomplete returns on special elections to fill 10 legislative vacancies indicated six Republican victories to two Democratic in the house of representatives, while the two senate positions to be filled were divided between a Republican and a Democrat.

Apparent winners in the fight for the two senate vacancies were Rev. Frank W. Ruth, Berks Democrat and former state representative, and John R. K. Scott, Philadelphia Republican. They will succeed respectively, the late Senator James E. Norton, Republican, and Dr. William C. Hunsicker, Republican, resigned.

The eight vacancies in the house will be filled by Baker Royer, Rep., Ephrata, Second Lancaster district; Richard A. Cooper, Rep., Sixth Philadelphia district; William J. Beadman, Rep., 13th Philadelphia district; Charles W. Sweeney, Rep., 10th Philadelphai district; J. Raymond Kenney, Rep., 21st Philadelphia district; Harry W. Anthony, Dem., Strausstown, Third Berks, district; Lloyd M. Shaffer, Dem., Laureldale, Fourth Berks district, and William W. Serrill, Rep., Kellettville, Forest county.

Results of the special elections will provide the house with a membership of 117 Democrats, 89 Republicans and two Socialists—the same division that existed in last year's session of the legislature. In the state senate, the former membership of 31 Republicans and 19 Democrats will now be changed to 30 Republicans and 20 Democrats.

ITALIANS PUSH FORWARD

Motorized Army Moves Steadily

Ethiopians Making Stubborn Defense Of Southern Front City

"LAST ARMY" IN FINAL STAND

By LINDESAY PARROTT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ROME, April 29.—Advancing approximately 75 miles due south of Dessye, an Italian motorized column has reached Macfud, 25 miles north of Ankober and only about 150 miles from Addis Ababa, it was announced in today's daily military communique.

This column is pushing southward east of a much larger motorized unit, whose progress beyond Warra Hailu has been recorded in previous bulletins.

While Italian officials admitted the Fascist armies so far had failed to capture Sasa Baneh, southern front city being stubbornly defended by "Ethiopia's last army", the daily communique said "detachments of Libyan troops defeated and dispersed the enemy in the Sulu valley," and that "intense activity of patrols is in progress along the whole line of the southern front."

Lack of more definite information from the southern front where fighting has been in progress more than a week, increased curiosity regarding the strong Ethiopian defense in the Sasa Baneh sector where the Turkish General Wehiub Pasha is assisting Ras Nasibu, son-in-law of Emperor Haile Selassie.

The communique announced submission to the Italian armies of Mohamed Omar, "chief of Ogaden province," and "other chiefs and notables of western tribes who offered to cooperate with their warriors in the present action."

MAYOR McNAIR AND MRS. PINCHOT AMONG DEFEATED

vivor of the trio was Congressman Michael J. Stack of West Philadelphia, who defeated John L. Coyle, a Philadelphia magistrate and organization candidate.

The two who apparently failed to win renomination were Congressman Theodore L. Moritz of Pittsburgh, who ran for the Republican nomination and lost to Jacob E. Kalson, and Congressman William M. Berlin, Greensburg, who antagonized certain Westmoreland county party leaders. Early returns indicated Robert G. Allen, one of Berlin's three opponents, had captured the nomination.

Mrs. Pinchot Loses.

In Philadelphia, the Republican organization maintained a solid front by nominating former Congressman James J. Connolly in his fight with Mrs. Cornelia Bryce Pinchot, wife of the former governor, in the fifth congressional district. Complete unofficial returns gave Connolly 18,569, Mrs. Pinchot 12,302.

Connolly's victory marked Mrs. Pinchot's third unsuccessful try for a Republican congressional nomination, having been defeated twice before in northeastern Pennsylvania by former Congressman Louis T. McFadden.

Mayor McNair Loses.

In Allegheny county, Pittsburgh's mayor, William N. McNair, was thrown for a loss in his attempt to capture a Democratic congressional nomination. With but a scattered few districts unreported, McNair had polled 5,861 votes, while his opponent, Herman P. Eberharter, a member of the state house and organization candidate, had 7,129. It was so as not to oppose his former chief that Congressman Moritz, former secretary to McNair, went before the Republicans only to lose his chance of holding his seat.

The primaries brought back into politics a name that for years was a household word in Pennsylvania—Boise Penrose.

Boise Penrose Wins.

In the fourth congressional district of Philadelphia, Boise Penrose, 2nd, won the Republican nomination over former Representative George W. Edmonds. Penrose is a nephew of the one-time United States senator and Republican leader.

In the 19th district, comprising Dauphin, Cumberland and Lebanon counties, Guy J. Swope, Democrat, and Rep. I. H. Doutrich, incumbent Republican, were assured their respective party nominations for congress by virtually complete returns.

Swope, budget secretary in Gov. Goerge H. Earle's administration and Dauphin county Democratic chairman, defeated Burgess Harold V. McNair of Middletown, brother of Pittsburgh's mayor who also lost his congressional fight. George Deliman, Harrisburg, ran a poor third.

In the northeastern corner of the state, Rep. Patrick J. Boland, Democratic whip in the house, experienced no trouble in defeating James B. Murrin, former mayor of Carbondale, for his party's congressional nomination. John J. Owens, former secretary of the commonwealth, won the Republican nomination over Walter W. Kohler, his closest opponent.

Robert F. Rich, Republican, Woolrich, won renomination to congress in the 16th district, defeating George L. Reeder, Williamsport, by a two to one majority in incomplete returns.

his landslide strength in the Republican column by polling a 5 to 1 majority over the combined vote of all other Republican presidential nomination aspirants.

Victim of the Landon avalanche was John Richardson, Canton, retiring national committeeman, supporter of former President Hoover, and independent candidate for district delegate to the national convention from the 13th Congressional District. He was defeated by a Landon-pledged slate headed by Representative Charles W. Hedges, Quincy.

Senator Dickinson, Iowa, received only a scattering of votes.

Both the unpledged Republican party-backed slate of delegates-at-large, and the Roosevelt-pledged Democratic delegate-at-large slate were victorious, the latter headed by United States Senators Walsh and Coolidge.

One break in the official Roosevelt-pledged district delegate slate occurred in the 10th Congressional District where Boston School Committeeman Maurice J. Tobin and his associate James J. O'Keefe, defeated the regular candidates, Charles H. McGlue, former campaign manager for Governor James M. Curley and John P. Englert, although not backed by the Democratic organization, Tobin will support President Roosevelt.

time been employed by the Pittsburgh and Shawmut Railroad for a few years but had not been in their employ for the past seven years. Since leaving that position, he had been doing odd jobs and at one time was employed by the WPA. He is separated from his wife and two boys, aged 8 and 10.

Becker was among the first questioned after the slaying was discovered. Since that time, Morris revealed, police have been trailing him.

"I can't say at this time what was in the confession or how we happened to solve the crime," Morris said. "It took a lot of work."

Morris said he will call the grand jury into session at once and lay the statement before it and ask for an indictment charging felonious murder. After that, Morris said, he will make public the details of the statement and a reconstruction of the crime as made by state police and Sheriff Samuel G. Lowry.

Miss Bracken was beaten unconscious with a heavy ink-stand, assaulted and then slashed across the throat. Her body was found at the foot of an embankment near the tower last April 10. The lonely little railroad tower gave evidence of a terrific struggle.

publican national convention in June, however, are pledged to support no candidate. Significantly, Borah's name was supplanted in scattered returns by "write-in" votes for Gov. Alf M. Landon, of Kansas, former President Herbert Hoover and Sen. Arthur Vandenburg.

On the basis of early returns, it appeared that a scant 50 per cent of the Keystone state's 4,500,000 registered voters participated in yesterday's listless balloting.

Organization candidates in both congressional and legislative contests, few as these were, were victorious almost without exception.

Similarly, there were no upsets recorded in the special elections to fill 10 vacancies in the Pennsylvania legislature. Democrats gained one seat in the Republican- controlled senate for the special session which convenes here next Monday, while the house membership remained unchanged with the administration in power.

district agreed upon the write-in. The alternates are Joseph C. McLaughlin of Butler county and Willis M. Ruby of Butler county.

For delegates-at-large a slate of 16 names was on the ballot, with one independent candidate. The 16 slated candidates carried this county, as did the 16 slated alternates.

For state committee Attorney Wilbur J. Baer of New Castle was unopposed and received practically all the ballots cast.

For the nomination for the Presidency Franklin D. Roosevelt was opposed by Henry Breckinridge of New York, but President Roosevelt carried the county easily.

For state treasurer, F. Clair Ross of Butler was unopposed, and for auditor-general, State Senator Warren R. Roberts of Northampton county, the slated candidate, won handily over Edward B. Zimmerman of Philadelphia.

Deaths of the Day

Bentfelt Funeral Today

Funeral services were conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon for John Bentfelt at the home of John McRoberts, Enon Valley. Mr. Bentfelt, aged 87 years, died at Enon on Sunday.

Mrs. Williams Funeral.

Funeral services for Mrs. William D. Williams at the late residence, 818 Etna street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, were attended by a large crowd of relatives and friends. There was a great profusion of beautiful flowers almost filling one room.

Rev. Norris A. White, D. D., pastor of the First M. E. church, and Rev. Rees T. Williams, pastor of the First Congregational church, were in charge.

Two vocal numbers, "Face to Face" and "Good Night and Good Morning", were beautifully sung by Mrs. Mary Wyrie and Mrs. Edith Davies, the former playing the piano accompaniment.

Pallbearers were six sons of the deceased, T. J., W. D., J. L., H. G., P. R. and R. S. Williams. Interment was made in Oak Park cemetery

Michael Hnat

Michael Hnat, aged 54 years, 139 Atlantic avenue, died in the New Castle hospital on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock after an extended illness.

Mr. Hnat was born in Czechoslovakia in 1882. He was a member of the local St. Nicholas Greek Catholic church.

Surviving are his wife, Katherine, three sons, Nick, Joseph and Michael, Jr; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Hallowicz, Anna and Katherine, and two grandchildren.

Funeral mass will be celebrated by Rev. Joseph Milley in St. Nicholas Greek Catholic church Friday morning at nine o'clock. Interment will be made in St. Nicholas cemetery.

Clara Viola Kennedy Funeral

Funeral services for Clara Viola Kennedy of John street were conducted from the Jos. S. Rice Co. chapel Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with the Rev. J. A. Galbraith, D. D., in charge.

Mrs. Lena Kirkwood and Mrs. Pearl Phillips sang two beautiful selections, "The Old Rugged Cross" and "The Eastern Gate".

Pallbearers were Henry Wilson, Edward Rhodes, Jr., Jerry Almonds, George Bartberger, Sam Cloia and Clifford Smith.

Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

Andrew Jackson Bowers

Andrew Jackson Bowers, aged 90 years, died at his home in Slippery Rock township, Princeton R. D., at three o'clock this morning.

Mr. Bowers was born near Ellwood City on December 2, 1845, son of George Washington Bowers and Naomi Bird Bowers. He lived in Princeton for the past 50 years.

Years ago Mr. Bowers was engaged in work as a boatman and teamster. He was a member of the Presbyterian church denomination, was well known throughout the county and had many friends.

His wife preceded him in death. Surviving are three daughters, Miss Lydia Bowers, Mrs. Elizabeth Christy of Warren, Pa., and Mrs. Anna Hillkirk of Sharon, and one son, Herbert Bowers, at home.

Funeral services will be conducted in the Presbyterian church at Princeton on Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Interment will be made in Pleasant Valley cemetery.

Thomas E. Anselmo, Jr.

Thomas E. Anselmo, Jr., aged 5 years, of 212 North Ray street, died of spinal meningitis this morning at 3 o'clock in the New Castle hospital.

The boy was born in New Castle October 19, 1930, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Frank Anselmo. He attended the Epworth M. E. Sunday school.

In addition to his parents, he leaves two sisters, Rose Marie and Shirley May, at home; and his grandparents, Thomas E. Anselmo and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frank, of New Castle.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2:30 p. m., from the residence with Rev. J. A. Galbraith, D.D., of Epworth Methodist Episcopal church, in charge. Interment will be made in Graceland cemetery.

David S. Badger.

David S. Badger, aged 68 years, this morning at 2:15 o'clock succumbed to a stroke which he had suffered a week ago Sunday. Death came at his home, 8 Worthington avenue, New Castle R. D. 3.

Mr. Badger was born at West Liberty, Butler county, on August 7, 1868, son of Thomas and Sarah Anderson Badger. He passed almost all his life in Lawrence county and was a member of the Central Presbyterian church of New Castle. Yesterday was the 44th anniversary of his marriage to Laura Williams, who survives.

In addition to his wife Mr. Badger leaves one son, Loy D. Badger, this city, two daughters, Mrs. Roy Dickey and Mrs. Florence Hoch, of this city, the following sisters and brothers, Mrs. Rachel McClintock, of Castlewood, Mrs. Elizabeth Young, of Enon Valley, Mrs. Martha McKissick, of Euclid, Pa., Mrs. Jennie Bowers, of Boydstown, Pa., T. J. Badger, of West Liberty, and Sumner Badger, of Boydstown. There are also seven grandchildren, Robert, Laura, Grace and Mary Elizabeth Dickey, Mildred, Shirley and Clifford Hoch.

Funeral services will be conducted from the residence on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with Dr. C. B. Wingerd, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, in charge. Interment will be made in Oak Park cemetery.

ing disclosed convincingly that Gov. Landon has pulling power in the industrial east. Add that to his acknowledged convention strength in the west, and it doesn't leave much for his rivals. New Jersey, which has a primary on May 19, has already endorsed him through voluntary action of a big majority of the Republican county chairmen and organization leaders in the state.

So far as the Democrats are concerned, yesterday's voting did not disclose a great deal that was not already well known. It did show that President Roosevelt will have no serious opposition for re-nomination. But that has been apparent for some weeks. Col. Henry Breckinridge's "protest candidacy" was snowed under in Pennsylvania, as was expected.

Eleven other states will hold preferential primaries between now and the time the Cleveland convention assembles on June 9. Maryland votes on May 4, Indiana, Alabama and South Dakota on May 5, Ohio and West Virginia on May 12, Oregon on May 15, New Jersey on May 19, Iowa on June 1, Florida on June 2 and North Carolina on June 6.

Three Are Important.

Of these, Indiana, Ohio and Iowa are regarded as the more interesting, not alone as they affect the nomination prospects of the various candidates, but also as showing the legislative registration strength of the two major parties. All three went Democratic four years ago, but this year the Republicans have strong hopes in these states.

The Ohio primary on May 12, in particular, furnishes the acid test for Senator Borah's candidacy. His candidacy is opposed there by the state Republican organization, which has put up Robert A. Taft as a favorite son. Unless the senator can make a substantial showing there his candidacy will suffer an all out fatal blow.

To Make Official Count Of Ballots

The county commissioners have appointed Luke F. Agan, Rebecca R. McKee, George McIntosh and Leroy K. Donaldson, to make the official count of the ballots cast at Tuesday's primary. They will meet at the court house at noon on Tuesday. Later return judges for the congressional and senatorial vote will be named.

Arrest Pair For Throwing Match In Gasoline Tank

L. J. Tindall, Employe Of Gasoline Company Is Burned By Explosion

Police arrested George Mayberry and Frank Miller as members of a gang, who are alleged to have thrown a lighted match into a tank which was being filled with gasoline by L. J. Tindall, an employe of the Atlantic Refining Company, at the intersection of Moravia and Division street, early Tuesday evening.

Informations will be preferred against them by Pennsylvania R. R. police, the incident having occurred on the property of the railroad company, where the gasoline was being delivered.

Tindall suffered burns about the face, which are not of a serious character, however, it is stated.

Primary Balloting In Johnstown Very Light, Is Report

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 29.—Votes and water, like oil and water, don't mix.

Ample proof of that fact was had here today as officials tallied the results of the lightest primary balloting in the city's history.

giving him large pluralities in all of the four precincts. His vote throughout the city was consistently strong.

The second precincts nominee, W. Sharp Fullerton, is a resident of North Beaver township. Mr. Fullerton polled 2208 votes, Attorney Randall B. Luke of Ellwood City 1488, Dr. H. S. Gold of Ellwood City 740 and W. R. McKee of Hickory township 610. Both Mr. McCullough and Mr. Fullerton were running their first race for major political offices.

Convention Delegates

Attorney Charles H. Young of New Castle and Dr. Robert B. Greer of Butler will go to the Republican convention in Cleveland in June as the delegates of the 26th congressional district. Both of them were elected by tremendous pluralities.

The district vote gives Greer 23,350, Young 20,942 and James March of Beaver county 10,624. The division as to counties follows.

Lawrence county 90 out of 91 precincts, Young 7665, Greer 6289, March 2090.

Beaver county 96 out of 104 precincts, Greer 10,715,, Young 9742, March 6616.

Butler county 77 out of 85 precincts, Greer 6346, Young 3535. March 1918.

The alternates elected are Madge Y. Schaich of Beaver county and Nancy Stone of Butler county. Neither was opposed

CATHEDRAL CHAPTER O. E. S. PROGRAM-TEA

Cathedral Chapter, No. 440, Order of the Eastern Star, met in the East Lodge room of the Cathedral Tuesday evening, for their usual order of business at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Emma Leslie, worthy matron, in charge. At 8:30 o'clock, a program was presented under the chairmanship of Mrs. Flossie Potter, that proved most entertaining to the assemblage of guests numbering a hundred or more.

Those taking part, included the following: W. Coulter, horn solo; "Two Sharps and One Flat" in the persons of David Dunkin, Donald Jones and LeRoy Todd, guitar and vocal trio, contributed two numbers; Lena Mae McConnell favored the group with two readings, one, a musical feature with Miss Anna Patterson, accompanist. A play entitled "Between the Soup and the Savoy," was given by Marjorie Vaughn; Anna Mae Holmes and June Travers, assisted by Audrey Harpe and Mary Lou Travers; a vocal duet by the little Misses Lutz with their mother, Mrs. Thelma Lutz, accompanist.

Mrs. Olive Hewitt, past matron, filled the role of "announcer" to perfection, in this novel amateur broadcast arrangement, introducing each artist.

Following this enjoyable period of entertainment, the guests were invited to the West dining room of the Cathedral, where they were served refreshments. A theme of green and yellow was developed in the table appointments, with clusters of pussy willows and daffodills as centerpieces, adding further to the colorful setting.

Mrs. Potter was assisted by a capable committee composed of Mrs. Lottie Ishler, Mrs. Julia Conover, Mrs. Isabelle Ronk, Mrs. Jessie Tate, Mrs. Hanna Phillips and Mrs. Marie Jennings.

FIRST M. E. QUEEN ESTHERS PLAN TEA

Queen Esther auxiliary members of the First M. E. church have plans completed for a most interesting occasion to take place Thursday evening in their church social rooms. The event will be in the form of a "tea" with Mrs. Fred Cooney, chairman, and in addition to a delightful program of entertainment, tempting refreshments will be served by the appointed committee. The affair begins promptly at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Cooney has named as her assistants the various group leaders, which include the following: Mrs. J. L. Fink, Mrs Bessie Pitzer, Mrs. J. L. Black, Miss Ellen Wood, Mrs. Ralph Shiner, Mrs. E. V. Wagner, Mrs. W. H. Shaddick, Mrs. Richard Steen, Mrs. John Loudon and Mrs. B. K. Steinbrink.

Mrs. Bessie Coates Pitzer, chairman of the program, will feature a pleasing musicale and two playlets, with senior high school students taking part The plays, one entitled, "Between the Soup and the Savoy", and the second, "Breakfast", will be presented under the direction of Miss Clara Hartsuff, instructress. A silver offering will be taken at the close of the evening's festivities.

LARGE NUMBER OF GUESTS ATTEND TEA

More than 90 guests participated in the very nicely planned Naomi Circle tea, Tuesday afternoon, in the Highland United Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Harold R. McCulloch was chairman of the committee of executives in charge of the affair. Mrs. J. B. Love and Mrs. D. L. Ferguson poured the tea.

A shower of tea towels and tablespoons for the church took place in connection with the gathering.

GARDEN CLUB AT EAST BROOK MEETS

Gathering in the home of Mrs. J. A. Young at East Brook Tuesday evening, the East Brook Garden club had for its April theme, "Trees".

Many native trees of Pennsylvania were studied and discussed. Mrs. Alex Black gave a review of "Magnolias" as presented in a recent magazine article, written by John Robinson of local fame. Mrs. Harold Allen presented a beautiful reading entitled "The Voice of the Forest" which was greatly appreciated. A poem, "The Tree" was read by Miss Edna Waddington.

At the business session, plans were considered for landscaping the grounds about the U. P. church. An invitation to meet with the East Side Garden club was extended and this joint-gathering will probably be arranged for the near future. Embryo artists later cut out silhouettes of familar trees and Mrs. Harold Allen received the grand prize for the one most lifelike.

The evening's entertainment was nicely rounded out by the serving of a dainty lunch by the hostess, assisted by Miss Edna Waddington.

CIRCLE '91 ELECTS MRS. REED SECRETARY

Mrs. Ralph S. Reed was elected recording secretary for Circle of '91 to take the place of Mrs. C. L. Snyder, deceased, at the meeting held Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. W. H. Dunlap on Court street.

A good attendance answered roll call by naming men and women in the public eye, after which two interesting papers were read and the women engaged in a discussion of Pennsylvania blue laws, with Mrs. Dunlap leading. Others taking part were: Mrs. W. H. Beck, Mrs. Harvey Robinson, Mrs. W. E. Marshall, Mrs. William Marshall, Mrs. R. B. Davenport, Mrs. J. M. Blackwood. Mrs. Roy A. Long gave the summary and Mrs. Dunlap finished the discussion.

The papers were given by Mrs. David Rees, who spoke on "Origin of Money" and Mrs. W. E. Porter, who told of "Inflation".

Mrs. Carmi Glover will be hostess for the next regular meeting, May 11, at her home on Shaw street.

Sicilian Club

Miss Frances Tomasello, West Washington street, proved a charming hostess Tuesday evening when she entertained Sicilian club members in the home of Mrs. Sam Tomasello, 504 East Main street.

During the customary business session, plans were made for a Mothers' Day celebration. Cards, music and a discussion of numerous topics of interest formed the pastimes. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Marion Anzelotti and Miss Jennie Venturella. At an appropriate hour the hostess served dainty refreshments.

In two weeks Miss Jennie Venturella, Wilmington road, will receive the club.

Judge Sara Soffel Speaks To Younger Women Of County

Bringing to the young women, particularly, in Lawrence county, a realization that women are real factors in the life of today, a rightful heritage built up over a century of time through hard struggles of pioneer leaders, Judge Sara M. Soffel of Pittsburgh gave an inspiring address Tuesday evening in the First M. E. church, under the auspices of the Federated Juniors in the county. Her subject was "Women in a Changing World".

Turning back the pages of time, the speaker pictured the lives of such great women as Susan B. Anthony, who began her fight for equal rights in 1848; Lucretia Mott, Elizabeth Cary Stanton, Dr. Shaw, Carrie Chapman Catt and many others, all devoted to the advancement of women, their accomplishments "changing the face of the nation".

Active participation in governmental affairs was stressed. Many serious problems must be faced today. Great problems of constitutional changes, unemployment, national debt and a host of others. They can only be solved by cooperative efforts of men and women in this new era, at the cross roads of which we now stand.

Reviewing women's status in the economic situation, Judge Soffel touched upon alleged discrimination against women. In spite of this, women have been recognized for high office and careers. She emphasized the fact that ability alone should be the determining factor in the selection of men, or women, for jobs, whether high or low.

She concluded by saying that women in this country cannot afford to lose the gain of a century, but must keep faith with the pioneers, carrying on their traditions, ever seeking to advance the great cause.

Judge Soffel was introduced by Ruth G. Sample of Junior Woman's club, who spoke of last night's occasion as the initial big event sponsored by the four organizations of younger clubwomen. For Reading Circle Juniors, Edith Cleaveland gave pertinent remarks at the close of the lecture.

Sharing with the junior groups in hearing Judge Soffel on Tuesday evening were a large number of older clubwomen and men who formed a good sized audience in spite of many counter attractions and bad weather.

Previous to the address, music was furnished by talented young musicians. New Castle high school string quartet, Arvo Aho, first violin; Vance Dufford, second violin; Paul Paupenhausen, viola; Mary Conrad, violincello, played two selection, Haydn's "Minuet", Op. 76, No. 3, and "Adagio Cantabile", quartet 35. Dorothy Fisher played a Spanish composition, "Malaguena" by Lecuna, and an encore, "Fantasie Impromptu", Chopin. The musicians, introduced by Charlotte Bartlett, performed exceptionally well, adding much enjoyment to the evening.

Ushers, gowned in formals, were representatives from the four junior clubs: Federation Juniors, Harriet Beadel, Elizabeth Gilfillan, Sara McGoun, Louise Fink; Junior Reading Circle, Becky Carson, Dorothy Sankey, Genevra Hazen, Fern Cloak; Junior Woman's club, Helen Meyer, Helen Lapish, Mrs. Ivan Holsinger, Mrs. Gerald McElhaney; Sub-Juniors, Ruth Stevenson, Grayce Bell, Luella McBride, Ione Ferver.

Others responsible for Judge Soffel's coming to New Castle were the several sponsors of the clubs, Mrs. E. D. Marvin, Junior county chairman; Mrs. C. T. Metzler, Mrs. A. Pearson Furst, who also had the cooperation of Mrs. A. P. Treser, president of the Lawrence County Federation of Women's clubs, and Mrs. S. D. Pearson, state officer.

Accompanying Judge Soffel was Mrs. J. B. Roessing, another state officer, and they were entertained during their stay in New Castle in the Pearson home on Moody avenue.

HADASSAH INGATHERING IS MOST SUCCESSFUL

Miscellaneous linen shower held by local chapter Hadassah Tuesday evening, at Beth Shalom Center Boyles avenue, for the benefit of Hadassah hospitals under supervision Hadassah Medical organizations in the Holy Land and more than 40 other allied institutions, resulted in a goodly ingathering as reported by Mrs. Jennie Levine, chairman local Palestine Supplies department.

For the benefit of those who were unable to be present last night, a short extension of time will be permitted before the collection is sent to the Palestine Supplies department in New York City for shipment.

At the business meeting, Mrs. L. Groden presided. Many members announced their desire to plant trees in the groves of Palestine in honor of Mothers Day. This work is done under the auspices of the local Jewish National Fund chairman, Mrs. J. Silverman.

Among major reports rendered was that of the nominating committee, Mrs. Jack Kulkin, chairman, and that of the Fund Raising committee, Mrs. J. Gold treasurer who presented financial results of the Donor Dance to date.

The next meeting will be the annual one at which time written reports of officers and chairmen will be submitted and an election will take place. After the business was concluded, Mrs. L. Sandler took charge of the program introducing Rabbi H. Norman Diamond, of Temple Israel, who substituted for H. Leon Shwartz who because of illness was unable to be present to give a planned book review. Rabbi Diamond, in a most interesting and clarifying manner reviewed Sinclair Lewis' significant book, "It Can't Happen Here." An open forum followed.

During the social hour, the hostesses, Mrs. J. Hershman, Mrs. J. Levin, Mrs. R. Gilman, Mrs. Edward Haines, Mrs. M. Weinstein and Mrs. L. Sandler served light refreshments.

Queen Sewing Circle.

Mrs. E. E. Blaine of Dewey avenue will be hostess to the Queen Sewing circle Thursday afternoon.

GOLDEN JUBILEE AT G. W. HAGGERTY HOME

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Haggerty, well-known residents here, was celebrated by family members and their host of friends at the Haggerty home, 110 Phillips place, on Tuesday.

Friends, neighbors and relatives streamed into the home during the afternoon hours and in the evening, at a dinner attended only by close family members, the celebration continued.

Around the anniversary dinner table were almost 65 family members, 10 of them children of Mr. and Mrs. Haggerty, 31 being grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

It was an informal anniversary and celebration, but Mr. and Mrs. Haggerty had received before the day ended the congratulations and best wishes of scores of friends and kinfolk.

Out of town family members present for the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Haggerty of Franklin and Mrs. A. T. Milford and family of Emlenton, Pa.

LUNCHEON-BIRTHDAY PARTIES FOR RENOS

Mrs. Earl Parshall, of Junior High street, entertained at a farewell luncheon on Tuesday for the pleasure of Mrs. Delbert Reno, of Junior High street, who is moving to Wampum in the near future.

The table was attractive with spring flowers and after the group enjoyed a tasty menu at one o'clock, the guest of honor was showered with a collection of dainty hankies. Mrs. V. Norton assisted at luncheon.

As Tuesday also marked the eighth birthday anniversary of her daughter Lois, Mrs. Delbert Reno was herself a hostess yesterday, entertaining a group of 16 young people last evening.

Games and contests enlivened the hours with prizes for the winners. A lovely luncheon was served with another daughter, Evelyn, Marie McConnell and Mrs. James Blair assisting.

The honoree was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

SIX O'CLOCK DINNER CLUB GUESTS TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. William Jones of Highland avenue were hosts at a lovely informal social event Tuesday evening, when they entertained members of the Six O'clock Dinner club in their home at a dinner party.

Dainty appointments prevailed in the table decorations, with a bouquet of spring flowers forming the centerpiece. Places were set for all members and four guests: Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rhinehart and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Black. In serving the delicious menu the hostess was assisted by Mrs. G. S. Jenkins.

Bridge held sway afterwards, with Mrs. Charles E. Rhinehart, Dr. G. S. Jenkins and Mrs. James Everhart carrying off the awards. Bingo also provided another avenue of diversion, awards falling to John Morgan and Mrs. Frank R. Doyle.

On Monday, May 25, the club will be received in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gilmore, East Washington street.

Fuller Circle Election.

New officers were elected Tuesday evening at the meeting of the Fuller Circle of Croton Avenue M. E. church at the home of Mrs. Gladys Sizer, Pine street. The results follow:

President, Mrs. Amy McCreary; vice president, Mary Wilson; secretary and treasurer, Leona Nolan; recording secretary, Ruth McCoy; thank offering secretary, Mary Fullerton; Christian citizenship secretary, Lois Henley; mite box secretary, Gladys Sizer, and spiritual life secretary, Goldie Shields.

Eight members were present. Devotions were led by Mrs. Amy McCreary. Various missionary projects were discussed. The business session was in charge of Leona Nolan. A very pleasing financial report was given. Chairman of the nomination committee was Mrs. Mildred Crowe.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Ruth McCoy. Miss Eve Nicklin was a special guest.

P. G. C. Club Meets

Mrs. Geraldine Mills was hostess to the P. G. C. club Tuesday evening in her home on Allen street. At the two-table game of 500 the prizes were captured by Mrs. Joseph Eve, Jr., and Mrs. Michael Welter. Katherine Eve assisted with a dainty refection.

The group will next meet Wednesday, May 13, in the home of Mrs. Michael Welter on Grant street.

Dinner-Meeting

Section B, Y. L. B. of the Third U. P. church, will enjoy a chicken dinner, followed by the regular meeting Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Anna McClure, Hillcrest avenue.

SPRING IN THE ATTIC

SPRING is here! And it's about time for householders to start their semi-annual house-cleaning. While doing that, they should keep a weather eye out for the common fire hazards that multiply in homes during the winter season.

Dangerous hazards can be found on every floor of the average home. Start in the attic—look at those dog-eared magazines, finger-marked books that no one will ever read again, the battered furniture you inherited from Aunt Millie and put out of sight as rapidly as possible. By disposing of such junk, the chance of fire can be greatly reduced.

Then come downstairs and go through the closets. There you'll find clothes of the 1920 vintage—worn-out dust mops and cleaning rags and paraphernalia—waste matter of a dozen different kinds. Fire likes nothing better as a starting point.

The cellar probably resembles the attic—plus a few special hazards of its own. Paints and varnishes, often found in topless cans, are usually inflammable and some are actually explosive. Gasoline, benzine and solvents have caused many a big fire—store them properly, if you don't want your house added to the destroyed list.

Now go outside. Is the grass yellowing, are there piles of twigs and boughs in the yard? If so, the fire demon is lurking just around the corner, waiting to get to work.

And so it goes, in homes and places of business and abandoned houses and uncut fields. A relatively small number of ordinary hazards are responsible for the great majority of all fires. Make your spring "house cleaning" a personal fire prevention campaign as well.

FALSE ALARM

A curious incident in Paris the other night threw an already jittery population into a condition approaching panic, and illustrated strikingly how real and close is the danger of war. It was shortly after 11 o'clock at night when a large section of the city suddenly resounded to the hair-raising wail of a powerful siren, one of the several installed about the city to warn of an approaching air-raid.

It was the first time such a signal had been given at night, although they have occasionally been sounded in the daytime when the sirens were being cleaned or tested. On this occasion the siren continued for three minutes before it could be turned off. It had been started by the banging of a door in the power station.

In view of the condition on the continent and the state of the relation between France and Germany, it is hardly surprising that the accidental warning sounded by the siren should have had a considerable effect on Parisian nerves. There is a general belief that the next European conflict will begin with an aerial attack on the large cities without the formality of a declaration of war. Probably no cry of "wolf" was ever louder or more terrifying than that given out by this sounding of the great horn.

LONGER LIFE AND EASIER

Our forefathers, we believe, were built of sterner stuff. They were rugged individuals, who lived simple lives, worked hard and endured to a ripe old age. Their longevity is customarily attributed to the absence of many of those elements of modern life that make exacting demands upon our mental and physical resources. But records show a rather disillusioning situation.

Back in 1850, when the nation was comparatively young, the typical male at birth had an expectancy of thirty-one years of life and females forty and one-half years. Since then the life expectancy has been raised to fifty-nine years for males and sixty-three for females.

But this improvement need not disturb our cherished belief that our fathers and grandfathers were made of stronger fiber. Little of the credit for added length of years belong to the individual who now enjoys longer life.

The gains have been achieved through reduction in mortality from tuberculosis, through practical abolition of typhoid fever, by the control of other infectious diseases, by the development of better working conditions, better housing, more leisure and recreation; in short, a rise in the standard of living.

With these aids to added years available to them, the stalwarts who conquered a wilderness, laid the basis for an easier life for posterity and then were gathered to their fathers, all too young, probably would have lived for a century or more.

FUTURISTIC NOTE

Projection into a period many persons believe hidden in the mist is symbolized by the tidings that the American Toy Fair is starting in New York. Yes, sir, Christmas is a mercantile fact of the present, with particular attention paid to grownups, as usual. Children still may find something to engage attention, but they are merely a necessary accompaniment to the real business of amusing the elders.

In the far distance when snow will be swirling about and slush-covered sidewalks will be a daily phenomenon, conditions will be alleviated by reproduction in miniature of the latest developments in science and industry, aerodynamics, streamlining for airplanes, futuristic designs in express wagons, puppet theaters, new photographic gadgets, even an electric eye for immature (and mature) minds to experiment with. Of course, there will the Dionne quintuplets, indicating a record birth rate in identical dolls.

The dawning scientist can interest himself in play sets utilizing theories underlying optical lenses in telescopes or may turn attention to three-octave organs, landscape architect sets and, naturally, materials for building the ahead-of-date dwelling and things the magazines are full of. A race of materialistic and forward-looking children (and elders) is indicated.

If winter comes can spring be far behind? Yes.

Hollywood is going in for the classics. First thing you know, Mae West will be starred in "The Girl from Troy."

If Italy doesn't hurry up and finish the campaign in Ethiopia, the League of Nations may dispose of Hitler and resume the discussion of oil.

Economists are mystified as to how the Reich expects to finance a war. As we understand it, though, the modern method is to have the bill charged and then repudiate the debt.

LOS ANGELES, April 28.

THIS TRAIN, air-conditioned, dust-proof, finishes the journey from ocean to ocean, gliding down through the Cajon Pass, in the mountains, to level land, orange and lemon groves, past San Bernardino and smaller cities into big Los Angeles.

A trip from east to west is a swift journey through a magnificent, forever changing moving picture.

WILLIAM N. PACKER, who knows about selling automobiles, was busy in Detroit, could not "make" this train at Chicago. But in these days that does not matter.

He flew his plane to Kansas City and boarded this train, first stopping at St. Louis for business. Mr. Packer, supersalesman, says the great thing in closing a sale is to know when to "turn on the heat" and "don't be afraid to hear a man say no."

TWO OF William Randolph Hearst's five sons are on the train, going from eastern newspaper offices to visit their father, who will soon celebrate a birthday. These young men and their three brothers have before them a problem that their father met successfully, namely, how to succeed in spite of a rich father.

Failing in that they can fall back on the problem of their grandfather, Senator George Hearst, a forty-niner, who had to succeed in spite of poverty and did.

SUCCEEDING in spite of poverty is more amusing, much easier, but the other thing can be done. Alexander the Great had a father, rich and powerful, the king of Macedonia, yet Alexander succeeded. In fact, he spent on natural history collections for his teacher, Aristotle, more money than his father left him.

CALIFORNIA possesses "three kinds of gold;" yellow gold, of which there is plenty left in the ground; "black gold," which is the oil, in lakes thousands of feet down, and the "white gold," water from the mountains, first used to develop power, then to irrigate crops.

ANOTHER gold, more important than those three combined, is the gold of education.

Driving through this country, if you see a particularly fine building, tall columns, wide grounds, fields for healthy play, that is a public school. Once it would have been the prison or feudal castle.

You see another building, almost as impressive as the high school. That is a public library. The accumulated knowledge of the world is FREE.

THE SOURCE of future education is at Hollywood, producing pictures and sound that convey knowledge to the brain instantaneously. Devoted largely now to entertainment, the great work of moving pictures in the future will be education.

From moving pictures the student will learn more in one week than he can learn from books in a year, and learn so that he will never forget.

FICTION STORY (WITH TRUTH IN IT)

I know a man who became homesick for the past.

The more he thought about it, the more he convinced himself that the little section of the past that surrounded his childhood was the most beautiful in all time. . . . He remembered how the family of which he was a part used to gather around the coal-oil lamp, around the table that had the red cloth on it—and read and talk. . . . In the mellow light of the lamp the family read and talked and all of them, father and mother and children, were close together. . . . It was pleasant to remember that family around the coal-oil lamp and the flame burning brightly on the wick that was trimmed each morning, in the clear-glass chimney that was washed and polished every day.

He became a bit crazy on the subject of coal-oil lamps. They began, for him, to symbolize that lamp of Aladdin. If he had coal-oil lamps in his house, in stead of bright electricity, and rubbed them every day they'd bring back the gentle past into his life and hold his family close together, forever. . . . So he dug coal-oil lamps out of various attics and installed them in his home and commanded the family to sit around them and enjoy the past.

They tried hard. But it didn't work. The light wasn't very good. He strained his eyes trying to read by it. One of the boys had to get glasses. Sometimes the flame smoked and the smell was bad. Once he got coal-oil in the sugar bowl and the taste was terrible. . . . And finally one night the lamp fell off the table and broke and the oil spread and caught fire and the house burned up and then down.

And when he built a new house it was a very modern one equipped with all the gadgets of convenience and necessity that the modern mind has devised. . . . And the man went out saying to people: "The past is gone. We can't bring it back. The thing to do is to live NOW and HERE and use and enjoy TODAY."

And this time he was talking sense.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 6:52; sun rises tomorrow 5:02.

Mother had only taken three lessons in mind reading before she determined to get a divorce from Pap.

That court decision in Illinois that makes it impossible for a woman to collect alimony after being divorced two years unless there are children, is going to make a lot of the gals go back to work or trying marrying again. Always sumpin to take the joy out of life.

The night watchman who had his pay cut in half is getting even by keeping one eye closed during working hours.

A child's composition on a cat: "A cat has whiskers around his mouth to feel. If he hadn't these whiskers he would be almost useless. He also has whiskers around the eyes; these are necessary to see with. Without any whiskers around his eyes or nose and mouth he could not smell, feel or see; and a dog could come right up to cat without the cat knowing it and could bite him. A cat is very wise, and all this wiseness that the cat has mostly comes from her whiskers; so that is why the cat has them."

Very few newspapermen get drawn on juries. We always have had our idea of the reason, but won't state it for fear we get a haw-haw. It's not because they are ignorant.

The silent partner is the one who raises so much hell when things go wrong.

Funny man! When he has a cold, he refuses to go to bed as doctors advise. Then he complaints that doctors can't do anything for a cold.

After seeing that show called "Tobacco Road" we have decided that timid persons who are not familiar with mule driver language should consult those who know all the rough stuff there is before seeing it. We just went to see it so we could tell others whether to go or not. Uh! huh!

Crash suits are the latest in aviation. Then a fellow's always prepared.

The trolley was terribly crowded as trolleys will be. The passengers were literally sandwiched in. A stout woman tried vainly to get her fare out of her pocket, which she had tightly buttoned as a precaution against pickpockets. For several moments she worked at the buttons, and then the man next to her said, "Allow me to pay your fare, madam."

"No thank you," was the reply; and once more she began at the buttons on the pocket.

After a while the male passenger once more asked: "Won't you allow me to pay your fare, madam?"

"Certainly not," was the acrid reply. I have my fare if I can get at it."

"I only suggested it, madam," was the quiet reply, "because you have already unbuttoned my suspenders three times."

It's great to be near-sighted because then you don't have to worry about what's coming to you until it arrives.

The world improves. Plutaroo Calles is an ex-president of Mexico. Today, that "ex" stands for exiled. Not so many years ago, it would have been executed. The Mexicans seem to be getting civilized.

On Johnny's first visit to his aunt's farm, the little city boy had not been there long before he came running to her in great excitement

"Auntyi!" he exclaimed with the air of one imparting grave news: "I don't think this is really a prohibition state after all."

"Why, what makes you think that, Johnny?" was the amused reply.

"Well, aunty," was the startling rejoinder, "nearly all your hens have the hiccups already, this morning."

The difference between a good idea and a bad one seems to depend entirely on whether you like the person who expressed it or not.

LAST MINUTE DASH

A passenger train was getting ready to depart.

"All right back there?" bawled the conductor.

"Hol' on! Hol' on! shrilled a feminine voice from outside the waiting room. "Jest wait until I gets mah clothes on."

And then, as the occupants of the train craned their necks expectantly, she appeared with a basket full of laundry.

With all the preliminary advertising the next World War is getting, it had better be a good one.

We think it's a mistake to keep saying that farming is a "gambling" game. First we know all the people in the United States will be in it.

A government checkup shows that 67 1-4 per cent of what is called "spring housecleaning" consists of standing around and trying to decide whether the lounge wouldn't look better in the other corner or over by the window.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

"Are caterpillars good to eat?" asked little Tommy at the dinner table.

"No," said his father, "what makes you ask a question like that while we are eating?"

"You had one on your lettuce, but it's gone now," replied Tommy.

Now we know why the League of Nations is called a league. Everyone in it wants to be the pennant winner.

It won't be long now until it will be time for folks who have summer cottages and lots of friends to wish that they didn't.

GOOD ANYHOW

Bertie: I took that piece of cake that was in the cupboard to give a ragged boy.

Mother: Oh, that was very good of you. And did he thank you for it?

Bertie: Well, I waited a long time and no ragged boy came along, so I ate it myself.

Nature knows best. By the time your stomach is too old for solid food she has left you nothing to chew with.

A FILLING SUBJECT

These two lines which look so solemn
Were just put in to fill this column.

Our reformers thought the United States Senate would be a truly great body as soon as the people could elect the Senators, instead of letting the state legislatures choose them in the old way. One more deal busted!

Seeing a ghost may be bad but John Forward, sea diver, believes it is far worse to be slapped by a dead man. While working about a submerged ship in East river he felt something slap his face and found it was the hand of a dead man. Waving back and forth with the tide the hand kept slapping away during the half-hour required to release the body.

DEAR MISS MARKEL: I am planning to be married in June. There has been no formal announcement of my engagement, but I have been wearing my ring since last Summer. Would it be proper for my parents to give me an announcement party? How soon before the wedding should it be announced? JEANNE.

Answer: Since you have been wearing your ring for some time, your friends know of your engagement and there is no necessity for making a formal announcement at this late date. The announcement should be made on the day of the presentation of the ring, or the day before.

Mail to the Society Editor of your local newspaper a notice of your impending marriage, instead of your engagement which is now stale news, worded as follows: "The marriage of Miss Jeanne Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Smith of this city, to Mr. Robert Jones, also of this city, will take place on the 6th of June."

You may make this announcement immediately, or wait until a few weeks before your marriage.

Dear Miss Markel: Should a man always assist a woman companion on with her coat, hold her chair when she is about to sit down or stand up, and should he take her arm when she alights from and enters a vehicle? J. W.

Answer: Yes to every question. And a gentleman will never be lax about any of these points!

Problem Of Candidate.
Friendly With Machine.
Massachusetts And Ohio.

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT passes over his embarrassments in an easy manner. He made a "happy" speech the other night in New York at the Jefferson day dinner. It was a speech that "tied up" the agricultural middle west with the sidewalks of New York.

It had to be a "happy" speech. For the agricultural west was not particularly happy over the "prominent men" (as a glib radio announcer called them) who sat at the president's right and left. They smacked of Tammany.

The president gibed somewhat at economists during his able campaign talk—both workers and farmers found in the speech considerable satisfaction — but listeners afar would rather that the president had been sitting with economists than with Tammanyites.

Yet the president believes he must sit with such groups (or, rather, political machines) to win.

AMONG THOSE THERE

Among those on hand was, of course, Postmaster General James Farley, high chief dispenser of jobs. Then there were James Dooling, Tammany chieftain, and Gov. James M. Curley of Massachusetts, plus a thousand or so Tammany lieutenants high and low.

True, there were men there whose names mean considerable to the people—such as Senator Robert F. Wagner of New York, Gov. Herbert H. Lehman of New York, Gov. Wilbur L. Cross of Connecticut, Gov. George H. Earle of Pennsylvania, etc. There is no denying, however, that the sitting down to break bread with the New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts machines does no good in the country west of the Mississippi, or even farther east.

The Republicans are in much the same position. A Republican candidate faces the fact that the utilities' dominated Roraback-Hilles machine controls New York, New Jersey and New England (and perhaps the southern delegates) Republicanly, that the Mellon-Reed machine dominates Pennsylvania, that the successors to the "Ohio gang" still dictate Republican politics in Ohio, etc.

When President Roosevelt goes on his western tours and perchance passes through Chicago again, will he this time sit next to the Kelly-Nash machine—or Governor Horner?

And in Wisconsin and Iowa and Minnesota, if he goes into those states, will he break bread with the Democratic machines, or will he call to his table his real supporters, the Progressives?

Both Democratic and Republican candidates have their banquet problems. Maybe they would be better off if they did eat with economists.

JIM CURLEY

Gov. James Michael Curley of Massachusetts — who undoubtedly has been an embarrassment to the Roosevelt administration—plans to become a greater embarrassment. He plans to enter the United States senate, taking the seat now occupied by Marcus A. Coolidge, a sedate Democrat. Curley's machine will crush any opposition.

Old families in Massachusetts have looked with horror upon the seizure of their commonwealth by the Curley machine. Every state office now is occupied by a machine member.

Liberals are in agony. Free speech almost has disappeared from Massachusetts.

Yet here is one of the machines that President Roosevelt must depend on. He would like very much to carry Massachusetts. At the moment he stands on a 50-50 chance, chiefly because of Boston.

TWO OTHER STATES

In Ohio, President Roosevelt seems to have made peace with the Gov. Martin L. Davey machine (under constant attack for bad government) and in Indiana the Gov. Paul V. McNutt machine is tooting its whistle for the president.

Scouts say the trend in Ohio is Democratic and that Indiana is overwhelmingly so.

The United States remains a nation of political machines—in both major parties.

TWO WOMEN

One dreamed of wealth and glory
And stardom's bright career,
But unto love's sweet story
She paused to lend an ear;
And he who came a-wooing
Refused to be denied.
Now often she's reviewing
The dreams he swept aside.

"Until I met your father,"
She tells her children three
"I thought that I would rather
A brilliant actress be.
Time was they called me clever,
But all those days have fled.
I gave up fame forever
To keep a home instead."

Another went careering
And fled when lovers pursued.
She called it interfering
When men her favor wooed.
She gained the fame she wanted,
But nothing perfect seems.
Her conquests now are haunted
By long-abandoned dreams.

"I wanted triumph only,"
She often tells her friends.
"But, oh, my life is lonely
When all the cheering ends!
'Tis mine to sing forever
While I have strength to roam.
I've fame and wealth, but never
The resting place called home."

IT IS THE WAY

Here is where, at the very outstart, we put our foot in our mouth. Americans clamor more for fun than for food. If they can't have a barrel of fun, they abuse the government, the trusts, the capitalists, and the constitution. To save our neck, we'll say there are exceptions.

A man goes fishing when the fish bite. He postpones important matters.

The presence of thorns means that the beautiful rose should not be picked. You should let the rose remain on the bush, for the pleasure of the next passer-by.

A modern government is a great machine that gathers facts and does not know what to do with them.

Today's Yesterdays, April 29, 1759—John Adlum was born in York, Pa.

Our one-man campaign to get him into histories and encyclopedias of biography hasn't progressed yet. Possibly he doesn't deserve any commentary as a brigadier-general in the Revolution, and a judge. But how can the man who established the first agricultural experiment station in the country, and introduced the Catawba grape, among other things, be overlooked?

April 29, 1792—Matthew Vassar was born at Taddenham, Norfolk, England. The $1,200,000 he devoted to the establishment of a school for young women "which should be their sex what Harvard and Yale are to young men," was his profits as a brewer.

April 29, 1769—Arthur Wellesley was born in Dublin, Ireland. He, the First Duke of Wellington, conqueror of Napoleon, received his military education in a French army school at the expense of the French government.

Wellington was paid the largest soldier bonus in history, $2,000,000, for defeating Napoleon, and then had to do it over again!

April 29, 1857—An electric locomotive was operated in the U. S. before electric lights. On this date, a locomotive built by C. G. Page had a trial run between Washington and Baltimore on the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. and attained a speed of 19 miles an hour before the jars of the overworked batteries providing the energy cracked under the strain. He used no fewer than 100 cells of primary battery.

It's A Fact—Washington monument was built upside down and inside out.

President Roosevelt has a good excuse to get out every night in the week: he's a member of the Masons, Elks, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Maccabees, Eagles, Shepherds and four other lodges.

Ordinary automobile engines propel a two-seater plane faster than they can a car, with supplying all the lifting power required.

The ancient Egyptians thought red-haired women were witches too, and they annually went through the ceremony of burning a maiden alive who had the misfortune to have a red head, as a sign to the gods of their displeasure.

Bible Thought For Today

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal.—St. Matthew 6:19.

Hints On Etiquette

Avoid being a bore when talking with friends or strangers. Don't "try" to be funny. Be your natural self and give other people a chance to say something.

Leaders Attack Administration Plans For Taxes

U. S. Chamber Of Commerce Leaders Riddle Tax Laws In Session

By EDWARD LOCKETT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 29.—United States Chamber of Commerce leaders today picked the Roosevelt adminstration tax laws to pieces, and pronounced them sadly wanting in wisdom, justice and stability.

In today's session, the chamber turned abruptly away from the somewhat friendly tone which marked its consideration of the unemployment problem yesterday. Apparently forgotten, for the moment, was the fact that a chamber round table conference of reemployment voted to invite the federal government to formally participate in a united drive to find jobs for idle millions.

Lambast Regime

On the contrary, speakers before the 24th annual meeting of the chamber lambasted the Roosevelt regime on half a dozen fronts, training heaviest artillery on its tax policies. Roosevelt taxes—those enacted and those pending—were denounced and condemned as "irrational, inequitable, and a species of economic suicide for the nation."

Federal spending was closely tied in with the tax question, and marked as the major evil productive of bad tax tendencies. These tendencies, one speaker declared, were making government activity a "circus" and a "vaudeville performance."

Another target of the day's attacks was the social security act. This, along with the tax policies and similar legislation, was pronounced "unworkable," and a "folly."

Roy C. Osgood, president of the First National Bank of Chicago, and Fred H. Clausen, of Horicon, Wis., president of the Van Brunt Manufacturing Company, were the principal speakers in the general sessions.

Round table meetings, where a sort of free-for-all conference was the order, supplied additional darts directed against the administration of President Roosevelt.

Hear Speeches

A round table meeting on industrial relations, in which the speakers dealt primarily with the social security law and other legislation to improve the status of the workers, led the day's discussions. These were to get under way at 1 p. m.

But the speeches of Osgood and Clausen struck the keynote of the convention today. Their protests against the "inequities" of the old and new Roosevelt tax laws, will be directly followed by the chamber when, on Thursday, it meets in general session to adopt resolutions of policy for 1936.

Soviet Russia called "We the Living," tells of a moving picture theater with a film glorifying Communism and above it is electric lights:

"Comrade Lenin said 'of all the arts, the most important one for Russia is the cinema.'"

Of all the arts, the most important one for every country is the cinema, or moving picture.

It can tell in two minutes, convincingly, more than Horace Greeley could write in two long columns. And people will see the picture and understand it. They would not read the two long columns, or, if they did, they would not understand them.

Pinola Wins Nomination

Legion Head And Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Banker, Wins State Treasurer Nomination

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 29.—Frank L. Pinola, Wilkes-Barre banker, American Legion leader and Republican organization candidate for nomination as state treasurer, met strong opposition from his independent rival, Frank P. B. Thompson, of Philadelphia, in the northern tier counties but nevertheless was overwhelmingly nominated, incomplete unofficial returns indicated today.

Pinola ran three to one behind Thompson in McKean county and was encountering stiff opposition from Thompson in nearby Warren, Potter and Tioga counties and in some rural sections in other parts of the state. Thompson also gave Pinola a strong tussle in the early districts reporting from Allegheny county.

Polls Big Vote

E. Arthur Sweeny, Greensburg publisher, was unopposed for the Republican nomination for state auditor general and polled a solid vote.

In the Democratic primary, State Senator Warren R. Roberts, the organization rival, Edward B. Zimmerman. Several districts gave scattered support to Zimmerman who had waged a hard fight throughout the state but lacked any organized support except from a few of the older factions of the Democratic party. F. Clair Ross, of Butler, was not opposed for the Democratic nomination for state treasurer.

Senator McClure Is Renominated

Once Convicted State Senator Polls Big Vote In Delaware County

(International News Service)

MEDIA, Pa., April 29.—State Senator John J. McClure, convicted as head of a liquor and vice syndicate during prohibition days, today held the Republican nomination to succeed himself on the basis of nearly complete returns from Delaware county's 242 election districts.

In a vote that saw only about 35 per cent of the registration at the polls, McClure was given a lead of approximately 15,000 over his nearest rival in a field of eight, Weldon B. Heyburn of Concordville. The totals from 220 districts gave McClure 27,112 to Heyburn's 11,832.

McClure will be opposed in the November elections by C. F. Hoffman of Radnor who was endorsed without opposition on the Democratic ticket although "Old Guard" and administration Democrats fought a bitter battle for party control.

AROUND CITY HALL

At the end of June members of council will make reply to police and firemen who some weeks ago requested a restoration of part of their wage. The council at that time said after six months had elapsed they would be in a position to state whether or not they could grant the request.

With the department of police crippled by injuries and illness it may be perplexing for those in command of the situation to arrange for vacations and still keep the force in tiptop crime-combatting shape. The men to be named to the department soon will not actually go to work here until fall.

It is anticipated that from now on city officials will be besieged by baseball and mushball promoters to have fields put in condition for play this summer. One of the best ways of having a youth expend surplus energy in the right way is through athletics.

GERALDINE A. TURK HEADS ALPHA GAMMS

Miss Emily Parker of this city and Mrs. Paul Reynolds, of Ellwood City, were associated Tuesday evening, in entertaining the alumni of Alpha Gamma Delta fraternity in the latter's home.

The business meeting first, featured an election of officers: Geraldine Turk, president; Hazel Bergland, vice president; Mettie Round, treasurer; Mrs. Ray Robinson, secretary; Mrs. Charles A. Crowl, editor. Reports of the International Conference held in Pittsburgh, April 18, were heard which mentioned the presence of Miss Julia Ricer, national president, and Mrs. Crowl who presided as toastmistress at the banquet.

Bridge occupied the guests' attention later, the trophies falling to Marjorie Rhodes and Helen Weingartner. A tasty refection was served.

The next meeting will take place the last Tuesday in May, the 26th, in New Wilmington, at the home of Mrs. David Kennedy. The active chapter of Westminster college will be guests on this occasion.

Shower For Bridal Couple.

About 60 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Shidemantle gathered at the home of the former's parents in Portersville on the evening of April 23, to shower the newly wedded couple. The bride is the former Elizabeth Turner.

The guests of honor received many beautiful and useful gifts. An informal evening was spent visiting, playing games and listening to music. A delicious lunch was served.

Before departure, the guests again expressed their hearty wishes that this "April shower" would bring much happiness to the bride and groom.

Dames of Malta Party

Plans for a party on May 8 in the home of Mrs. Alice Thompson on Spring street were made by Star of Liberty Sisterhood, 174, Dames of Malta, at a meeting in Malta hall Tuesday evening. Co-hostesses for the event will be Mrs. Jennie Thompson, Mrs. Minerva Carr and Mrs. Nellie Houk.

DELPHIAN SOCIETY STUDIES BABYLON

Castle chapter of the Delphian society at its meeting Tuesday afternoon in The Castleton studied "The Rise and Fall of the First Militarist Nation".

Mrs. T. J. McFate as leader reviewed the Delphian Traveler, and Mrs. D. T. McConahy gave the preparatory discussion. Topics for report were as follows: Sea-kings and Kassites, Mrs. W. F. Moody; Assyrian Ascendency, Mrs. R. L. Hildebrand; Assyrian Triumph and Defeat, Mrs. C. T. Metzler; New Babylonia, Mrs. T. J. McFate; "The City of Babylon, Mrs. Luella Brownlee; Hymns and Incantations, Mrs. H. D. Harlan.

The next meeting will be in the usual two weeks period, May 12, at The Castleton.

Missionary Meeting

The Women's Missionary Society of St. John's Lutheran church was entertained at the home of Mrs. John Burckart, Winter avenue, Monday evening.

Seventeen members were present. Mrs. S. J. Rawle, as leader of the devotional program, gave a very interesting talk on "The Needs of Latin America," at the close of which Mrs. Edna Wood, the president, took charge of the business meeting.

Delegates were elected to attend the spring conference of the Women's Missionary Society which is to take place at Ambridge on May 6.

The next meeting, on May 26, will be in the form of a South American tea at the church parlors. Mrs. C. W. Herman Hess will be in charge of the devotions.

G. T. C. Club

A meeting of the G. T. C. club was held Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Maughan on Hamilton street. A short business period was called with an election of officers taking place, the following being named: President, Mrs. Norman McFarland; vice president, James Dennis; secretary, Mrs. Margaret Dennis; treasurer, Agnes McConnell.

Cards and various contests were avenues of diversion, favors going to Arthur Dennis, Jr., Mrs. Margaret Dennis, James Dennis, Mrs. Harry McConnell, Mrs. A. H. Dennis and Agnes McConnell.

Lunch was served at a suitable hour, by the hostess and afterwards plans were completed for their next assembly to be held April 9. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McConnell, of Galbreath avenue, will be hosts.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB HAS LUNCHEON

The home of Mrs. Elsie Nessle, Wallace avenue, was the scene of an enjoyable event yesterday afternoon, it marking the regular date for the bi-weekly gathering of Tuesday Bridge club associates.

The group were seated in the diningroom at a table attractively decorated with a centerpiece of roses. Chinese favors were found at each place, and after the serving of a tasty menu, bridge occupied attention. Mrs. Henry Russell and Mrs. B. I .French carried off the awards.

During the afternoon, the hostess was assisted by Mrs. William Whieldon.

Tuesday, May 12, the women will meet with Mrs. Ed. Chapman, Moody avenue for an afternoon event.

Bridge At Eight Club.

Members of the Bridge At Eight club were entertained Tuesday evening in the home of Florence Mortimer, East Washington street, with card contests featuring the leisure period. Miss Ruth Craigmont was a special guest of the occasion.

Two tables of players competed for honors, Olivia Jean Yoho and Mildred Layton winning the top score prizes.

In serving a dainty menu at a late hour, the hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. H. L. Mortimer. In two weeks the club will meet again, the place to be decided.

Vempo Club

Mrs. R. H. Barker was over from Youngstown Tuesday for the meeting of the Vempo club in the home of Mrs. Charles Hammond, Lafayette street. Cards was the main diversion, Mrs. Barker and Mrs. W. C. Powers winning the awards. Luncheon was served as a later issue, the hostess being assisted by her daughter. Next Tuesday the group will be entertained in the home of Mrs. W. C. Powers, Mt. Jackson road.

Engagement Announced.

Announcement is made today by Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Appicilli of 1035 Butler avenue of the engagement of their daughter Maryetta to David Cotalesse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Cotalesse of Division street, both of this city.

The engagement will terminate in a June wedding, the date not having yet been revealed.

Deininger Wins Place On Ballot

Major Deininger Gets Nomination For Post Left Vacant By Senator Clark

(International News Service)

WEST CHESTER, Pa., April 29.—On the basis of incomplete returns, Major L. Leroy Deininger, of Phoenixville, today was leading Thomas B. McAvoy of Schuylkill township in the Republican primary to name a successor to State Senator William H. Clark, convicted Chester county G. O. P. leader.

Clark, found guilty of bartering his legislative influence in an attempt to obtain state liquor store insurance contracts, was not a candidate for renomination. His support as county chairman, however, was squarely behind Deininger who commanded a 900-vote lead over McAvoy, running on an independent ticket.

Deininger, whose nomination is expected to be tantamount to election in this overwhelmingly Republican county, will be opposed in November by Thomas J. McClelland, Democrat, of Unionville, who was unopposed.

Why You Should Never Cut a Corn

If you are troubled with corns or callouses, do not run the risk of blood poison by paring them. Statistics show that many infections have occurred from this seemingly innocent practice of paring corns.

Simply go to your druggist and get some Ice-Mint, rub a little on any painful corn or callous. The pain promptly disappears and in a short time the corn or callous will loosen and lift off easily—root and all—leaving the surrounding skin in a healthy normal condition.

This, together with the fact that Ice-Mint quickly eases such troubles as sore, tired, aching, puffed or burning feet and makes them cool, easy and comfortable, is probably the reason for the hearty endorsement given it by druggists.

To rid one's feet of every hard corn, soft corn corn between the toes or painful callouses in such a pleasant and safe way, makes it seem the height of folly for anyone to pare a corn and people are warned to stop it.

Dr. Dafoe Makes Answer To Charges Of Parents Of Dionne Quintuplets

By CHARLES E. BLAKE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, April 29.—Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe, physician to the Dionne quintuplets, on Tuesday answered charges made by the mother and father of the famous babies that they were underfed, living on a poorly directed diet, were nervous and did not talk intelligently.

At his home in Callander, Ont., Dr. Dafoe, over the long distance telephone told the Chicago American:

"The babies are perfectly normal in every respect.

"The mush that the parents are complaining about is nothing more or less than good, heavy thick pea soup and not "greenish mush flavored with a little masked banana."

"Every day the children are given a thick, heavy, pure vegetable soup of some kind. Some days it is vegetable, tomato, pea or bean soup. We, of course vary the kind of soup given to them.

"The Dionne family are accustomed to lumberjack meals with big pieces of carrots and other vegetables concocted in a form of stew.

"Such a diet would be injurious to the intestines of the quintuplets so we mash all of their food and force it through a fine sieve before giving it to them.

Happy And Healthy

"The Dionne quintuplets are today the happiest and the healthiest bunch of little crickets I have ever seen...and I have seen a lot of babies during the past 30 years.

"Remember when these babies were born just 23 months ago today they were suffering from rickets and anemia.

"Today, through the careful diet prescribed for them they are perfectly healthy and normal in every respect.

"Each of them now have 14 teeth...that is all except Emelie who has 13 teeth.

"The quintuplets are full of vitality and pep...if that is what their parents wish to call restlessness.

"If the mother and father would call on their children more often, it is possible that the children would better understand them.

"The parents seldom come to the hospital more than once each day and last Sunday neither of them visited their daughters.

"The mother and father live just across the road from the hospital where they famous babies are but there are many days when neither mother or father will even cross the road to visit or play with their children.

Babies Not Fat

"I understand the parents say that the babies are not fat. This is true, they are not fat.

"And no baby is a healthy baby if it is fat."

"A fat baby is always subject to cold and other baby diseases. I never want any of my babies to even show symptoms of being fat.

"The quintuplets have healthy and strong bodies. Their cheeks are a rosy red. They are full of mischief and learned to stick out their tongues...which, by the way, we are trying to cure.

"Their favorite stunt now is to dive under their beds when one of the nurses enters and turn their faces up and stick their tongues out at whoever enters.

"And as to the babies only being given a small amount of milk each day.

"That just shows how much the parents actually know about their own children.

Drink Much Milk

"The quintuplets drink at least three-quarters of a quart of milk each day—apiece. And many days each of them will consume a quart or more of milk.

"I know because I have to order the milk for them—and approve the payment for it."

The doctor was heard to chuckle as he mentioned the payment for the milk, and continued:

"The babies are learning to sing in their childish manner and are learning a few simple dance steps.. and they can take perfect bows.

"Every day one of the nurses sings or hums old French Canadian folk songs and shows the babies a simple little step.

"And the quintuplets follow her even to trying to mimic her singing.

"If you think the babies are ailing come up and take a look."

FRESHMAN DAY ON SATURDAY

Special Program Being Arranged At Slippery Rock Teachers College

(Special To The News)

SLIPPERY ROCK, April 29.—"Freshman Day" will be observed next Saturday, May 2, when State Teachers college, Slippery Rock, will be host to the senior class members of high schools of Butler, Beaver and Lawrence counties. This day is set aside as to give the visiting guests and their teachers and parents an opportunity to inspect the college and receive such college guidance as they may desire.

A special program will be presented at 11 o'clock in the chapel, where the guests will register. The A Capella choir under the direction of Robert Yingling will sing, and Dr. R. A. Tallcott of the college faculty will give several readings.

Lunch will be served in the east gymnasium, in which guests and college faculty will be given an opportunity to become acquainted. Following the lunch hour an exhibit program will be given by the college gym teams.

Later in the afternon the local college will contend with Geneva college in a track meet to be held on the local field.

REPORTED BETTER

Several Win In Easy Style

Get Party Nominations In Tuesday Primaries Without Opposition

OTHER RESULTS AS EXPECTED

Because many of the candidates entered in the primary elections of Tuesday were unopposed The News did not tabulate their vote their nominations being foregone conclusions.

The candidacy of William E. Borah for the Republican presidential nomination attracted only about half of those who voted. Many of the voters wrote the name of Governor Alfred M. Landon of Kansas in.

In the race for state treasurer Republican nomination Frank L. Pinola of Luzerne county was opposed by Frank P. B. Thompson who seems to make a habit of entering primaries. Mr. Thompson did not get many votes.

For auditor-general, E. Arthur Sweeny of Westmoreland county had no opposition.

In the Democratic primary President Roosevelt and Henry Breckinridge were entered as candidates for the nomination for president. Breckinridge received a scattering vote, the president getting the bulk of them.

For the Democratic nomination for state treasurer F. Clair Ross of Butler was unopposed. For auditor-general Senator Warren Roberts of Northampton had little opposition from W. J. Zimmerman of Philadelphia.

Landon Gets 117 At College Town

Large Number Of Voters Write Name Of Kansas Governor On Ballot

Westminster College students may nominate Herbert Hoover for the presidency of the United States on the Republican ticket but the townspeople who did the voting Tuesday want Governor Alfred M. Landon of Kansas.

In spite of the fact that Governor Landon did not enter the primary his name was written in by Republican voters 117 times. Senator William E. Borah of Idaho who was on the ballot received but 80 votes. Herbert Hoover received 8 votes, Col Frank Knox 2 and Senator Arthur H. Vandenburg one.

SWEET CREAM PIE CRUST

If you run short of lard on baking day, try making pie crust with sweet cream instead of lard, omitting both lard and water. The crust will be surprisingly tender and flaky.

THANK YOU!

The returns from Tuesday's primary election indicate that the Republican voters have seen fit to nominate me for the General Assembly from the first district. I am deeply appreciative of this honor and trust that their confidence in me will not be misplaced. I also wish to thank my opponents for the clean-cut campaign they waged.

Ethiopians Put Up Resistance At Sasa Baneh

Italians Almost Meet Disaster Trying To Obtain Keynote Center

(International News Service)

WITH ITALIAN SOUTHERN ARMY, GORAHAI, Ethiopia, April 29.—With Ethiopian troops offering desperate resistance, the bloody struggle for Sasa Baneh, Key Center on the southern front, entered its fourth day today following a wild Ethiopian counter-attack that almost brought disaster to the Italians.

The Ethiopian counter-attack, staged last night, almost overwhelmed the Italians' position at the outskirts of Sasa Baneh, and only the supreme courage of native Somali troops, isolated on the right bank of the Fafan river, saved the Black Shirt camp and the Italian headquarters.

In the end, however, after bitter fighting at close quarters, the Ethiopians were forced to retreat from a withering Italian machine gun fire.

Stubbon Resistance

Diredawa, Ethiopia, April 29.—Stubborn Ethiopian resistance at Sasa Baneh on the southern front has repeatedly thrown back the Italian attackers there, it was reported here today as the battle for possession of the key center entered its fourth day.

It was understood the Italians are rushing reinforcements to the Sasa Baneh battle front.

Fail To Advance

London, April 29.—Italian officials admitted today that Il Duce's armies in Ethiopia have not yet succeeded in capturing Sasa Baneh on the southern front, according to a Reuter dispatch from Rome.

Reuter also quoted officials as stating Italian attempts to get around the Ethiopian defenses via Daga Modo "have not borne fruit."

Sacred Concert On Sunday Night

What is expected to be a most successful event is the coming sacred concert to be given in the Emmanuel Baptist church, corner of South Jefferson and East Reynolds street, on Sunday evening at 9 o'clock.

New Castle's leading artists will participate. The program will take place following services.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hughey, of Butler county, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Christy.

Earl Shields, of Claytonia, is spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shields.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Black and son, of Warren, O., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grundy.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Guarnieri, a 9½ pound son on Friday, April 24. Mother and son are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Frey, of Fredonia, were week-end guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Urey.

Little Natalie Jean Matthews, of New Castle, has concluded a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gundy.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Humphrey and Mrs. Laura Morgan, of near Pittsburgh, spent Sunday at the Serwatka residence.

Crash Victims Leave Hospital

Miss Gladys Rause, aged 18, of 810 Lawrence avenue, and Miss Helen Harlop, aged 17, of 1110 Beaver street, both of Ellwood City, who were injured early Sunday morning, when the car they were riding in plunged against an embankment and then struck a pole, along the New Castle-Ellwood City highway, have returned to their home from the New Castle hospital.

SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

George Gudyk, of 1313 South Jefferson street, who is confined to the New Castle hospital, suffering with a severe laceration of the head, is reported showing improvement in the New Castle hospital. He was injured Saturday, April 25, during an altercation in the south side district.

Reading For The Young? From 14 To 84, Readers!

"Books for Young People—From 14 to 84" is the subject of the Free Public library's newest suggestive list of good reading, issued today at the office of Miss Alice M. Sterling, librarian.

Prepared as a help for the public, the list follows:

Addams, Jane—My Friend, Julia Lathrop—A glowing friendly tribute to the first chief of the Children's Bureau.

Allen, E. M.—America's Story As Told In Postage Stamps—This unusual stamp book is both history and catalog. Descriptive foot notes give data concerning the issue, and there are indexes of stamps and text.

Best, Mrs. Allena (Champlin)—Strings To Adventure—How two high school girls interested in marionettes use their hobby to earn money for a college nest egg.

Bonck, Zeh—Making a Living In Radio—Opportunities offered in radio service, operation, engineering, broadcasting and writing.

Byrd, Richard E.—Discovery—A personal account of the second Antarctic expedition.

Fleming, Waldo—The Lost Caravan—A boys' story of the Sahara desert.

Harper, Theodore Acland—Red Sky—Brings to a romantic conclusion the story of Peter and Feenga begun in "Siberian Gold."

Hawkins, A. C.—Book of Minerals—Non-technical handbook for the student, the collector and the jeweler.

Hawthorne, Hildegrade — Enos Mills of the Rockies—Story of the naturalist who labored to preserve the forests and natural life of the mountains.

Holmes, John H.—If this be treason; a play—Presentation in dramatic form of the peace ideals which Dr. Holmes has long preached.

The Junior Aircraft year book Flying for 1936; the official Junior aircraft year book.

Lambert, C. B.—Talking Wires—Excellent well-captioned photographs telling of the modern telephone.

Lawrence, Josephine—If I Have Four Apples—The Hoes, father, mother, son and daughters, were vaguely ambitious, muddle-headed about economics, and firmly determined to believe that four apples plus two equals eight apples.

Moult, Thomas, comp — Best Poems of 1934.

Pope, Nancy—We Three—Intimate, amusing chapter on the family life of the Popes, written by the daughter of the family.

Rutledge, A. H.—Wild Life of the South—Short descriptive narratives about animals and birds.

Smith, S. S.—Command of Words.—Book for reference and study for those desiring to acquire a large vocabulary.

Stevens, Barbara B.—Walk Humbly—A worth-while novel about very human people.

Sugimoto, Etsu—Daughter of the Nohfu—Simple story of Japanese life.

Tschiffely, Aime Felix—The Tale of Two Horses—Story of a remarkable journey made by the author and his two horses, Mancha and Gato, from Buenos Aires to Washington, D. C.

Fishing Boat Being Hunted

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 29.—Coast guardsmen sought the 45-foot fishing boat Waterhill and its crew of four early today, fearful the craft might not weather the heavy seas whipping Lake Michigan.

Carl Jacobi, owner of the boat, asked that the southern end of the fog-laden, wind-lashed lake be searched when the vessel failed to return to its dock here last night. Aboard the lost boat are Capt. James Peterson and Seaman Johnson, Martin and Kuhn.

DENY MILITARY ACTIVITY ON AUSTRIAN BORDER

German Foreign Office Emphatic

Reports Of Austrian Troop Concentrations Are Also Denied

RUMOR SOURCE IS EXPLAINED

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

BERLIN, April 29—The German foreign office, war ministry and propaganda ministry issued official and emphatic denials today of reports from Vienna of German military activity on the Austrian frontier.

Vienna, April 29.—Reports of heavy Austrian troop movements into Salzburg and the Tydrol because of alleged German military activity on the Austrian frontier are "entirely unfounded." International News Service was informed today in official quarters.

These circles stated reports of Austrian troop concentrations are "entirely untrue."

An official statement said the Austrian government has no information of alleged concentration of German troops.

Source Of Rumors

There are regular spring maneuvers taking place in various parts of Austria, it was stated, and it is posible the rumors concerning "troop concentrations" arose because two battalions of infantry and a small detachment of artillery engaged in shooting practice near Dachstein in the neighborhood of Salzburg.

Officials here pointed out that, contrary to rumors about concentration of German troops on the Austrian border, the Austrian government has received word that German military units are moving to the west.

Authorities here stated they do not believe Germany intends any action of any sort against Austria in the near future.

SAM H. McGOUN

"GOOD SHOES"

My New York By James Aswell

(Copyright, 1936, by Central Press Assn.)

NEW YORK, April 29.—There's Mr. Moriarity, the stage doorman. He's grizzled and laconic and inclined to be cross with people, clearly not of the theater, who injuire for this or that actor, actress or young lady of the ensemble. If you are of the grease-paint fraternity and have played Broadway much you probably know him, under another—his real—name.

For all his gruffness he is at heart a kindly soul. He thinks he's pretty lucky, for he has never been out of work in his life. He gets $16 per week and that, with his Spanish-American War pension, enables him to live comfortably in a little cottage in Hackensack, from which he commutes daily. Married. One married daughter whom he seldom sees.

He sits on a stool by the door and dozes most of the time, but nobody has ever succeeded in slipping by him. When he's stage doorman for a musical he takes a protective and fatherly interest in the chorus girls. When young men call who seem to him of a type that bodes no good to his charges, he often will fib, refuse to carry messages and in other ways do his best to discourage the courtship. But he has never refused a tip; these are rarer than you might expect and less munificent.

His largest tip was a $2 bill (and he is inclinded to think that was a mistake) in 1929.

He will tell you that the stage door Johnny has virtually vanished and he will tell you why. The taxi dance halls now attract that type of playboy. The young men who wait for girls at the stage doors now are regular boy-friends, husbands and even brothers.

On a cord attached to a fire-extinguisher near his chair is a little red book. In this are recorded the unlisted numbers of all the other backstage telephones in town. Thus the actors in his show can call their friends in other shows without difficulty. It is understood that the price of this service is fifteen cents per call. Sometimes, from one of the principals, he gets a quarter and occasionally he looks up a number gratis for penurious showgirls and bit actors.

He reads a great deal, mystery novels and, strangely enough, the financial pages of the newspapers. Figures fascinate him although he owns not a share of stock. He gave up chewing tobacco about four years ago for his health's sake and will tell you that he has never felt well since. He can spot an actor — "a professional," as he says—at fifty yards. If you don't look like a professional he'll probably tell you the party you're seeking is out, or has gone home, or is too busy to see you.

Mr. Moriarity has a great memory for names, dates and places. Once he witnessed a holdup in the street in which the theater he was then serving was located and his identification was so sure and accurate, when suspects were apprehended, that they were convicted easily. He has a clipping describing his part in this episode and will show it to you if he likes you.

He frequently takes it upon himself to lecture showgirls. He is a foe of drink and if he smells it on the breath of a girl in the show he will tell her, without minicing words, just where she is headed if she persists in such habits.

"Now that young feller who called for you last night," he will say. "That feller's okay. You go steady with him, girlie."

The greatest mystery to him is why people line up in the street waiting to see some star emerge and demand autographs.

There is about him one truly amazing peculiarity. He has never sat through a performance in a theater in his life. Once, with two passes for "The Green Pastures," he did attend the theater on his night off; but the show bored him so that he made his wife depart with him at the end of the first act.

Common Sense about HEADACHE

Usually a headache is due to high nerve tension. At such times all you need is a little Capudine. This remedy is very effective because it quickly soothes tense nerves and eases pain.

Of course headache may come from more serious sources. Sometimes it may be an abscessed tooth, or some underlying cause which only your family physician can discover. Meanwhile, avoid suffering as much as you can by using Capudine.

Capudine's action is unusually quick because it is liquid and its ingredients are already dissolved. No narcotics.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

YOUTHFUL LOVE AFFAIRS

In many a letter, and from parents face to face, I must often learn of the girl or boy who has become violently infatuated over one of the oposite sex, under conditions which do not appear very wholesome at present nor promise a favorable outlook.

Often it is the boy or girl who had no close friendship with one of the opposite sex before. The parent's expressed concern is that these youth have lost interest in all their other friends, even in their school work or family obligations, and will spend hours and hours together, having no common objective interests—almost nothing but their physical selves. And some of these cases end up in secret marriages, alas!

Just what the parents may do to render the relationships more wholesome, or to dissolve them, if undesirable, is not easily answered. More often than not they can do nothing directly. Generally their efforts and expressed anxieties only make matters worse and drive these children to disregard them almost entirely. On rare occasions these youths will grow tired of each other. Sometimes new social contacts will arouse new and wider interest—not always, certainly.

Encourage Many Friends

Vastly easier is it to prevent such tragedies—not all turn out to be tragedies, except in the minds of the parents. Looking forward, parents of young children will try to encourage them to mingle with many others of their own age, and to grow conscious of the broadening value of wide friendships. As adolescence approaches, parents will afford abundant opportunties, especially in their homes, for many boys and girls to be together and have good times together at wholesome fun. When pairings begins there will be a number of pairs together who together will find rich enjoyments in recreation and interests outside themselves.

Last summer I observed a pair of young college youths spending a few weeks together in a family. They spent hours reading together, had considerable fun with the family, went places with other couples, and tramped over fields and hills for days collecting certain plants and other botanical specimens. Very many common interests they had outside themselves, and many very wholesome enjoyments together.

The more interests we can cultivate in our children, beginning in their early years, and the more they learn to share these interests with others, the more wholesome should their love relationshis be later.

Mothers Will Be Guests Saturday At Slippery Rock

House Party Is Being Arranged At State Teachers College

(Special To The News)

SLIPPERY ROCK, April 29.—The students of State Teachers College, Slippery Rock, are arranging for a mothers' house party, which will be held from noon on Saturday, May 2, until Sunday evening, May 3. The mothers are to be the guests of the students, and each student will take care of the housing of his own guest.

The program will begin with a luncheon Saturday in North Hall dining room. In the afternoon a tea will be held in the Hut from 3:30 until 5 o'clock. A musical program will be the feature of entertainment at that time. The program will consist of selection of classical music by the Madrigal Club under the direction of Mrs. Gladys Arnold. Instrumental music will be played by the members of the string quartet under the leadership of Mr. Robert Yingling. Miss Edith Dennison, Miss Gladys Patterson, Mr. Raymond Hartstein, and Mr. Robert Milheim compose the quartet.

After dinner the mothers will also be guests of the college at the Saturday evening movie. After the movie bridge will be played in the college parlors.

The Sunday program will consist of attendance at church, dinner in the college dining room, a walk through the dogwood forest in the afternoon, and Vesper service at 6:15 in the evening.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the house party consists of Helen Zimmerman, Betty Kelly, Marjorie Haynes, Dorothy Inglefield, Anne McClain, Mildred Sandmeyer, Margaret Spiece, Jean Kennedy, Katherine White, Mildred Kukic, Helen Painter, Clair Axtell, William Carnahan, Ray Haynes and Jack Denbow.

United States Plans To Build Two Big Ships

United States Will Keep Abreast With Other Powers In Naval Building

LEGISLATION IS BEING DRAFTED

By KINGSBURY SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The United States today moved to serve notice on the rest of the world that it does not intend to permit any other naval power to attain supremacy in battleships, considered the backbone of the American navy.

At the suggestion of President Roosevelt, legislation was being hurriedly drafted in congress to authorize him to order the construction of new battleships if any other naval power starts building that type of ship.

Action Forced.

In view of the fact that Great Britain already has made known its intention to lay down the keels of two new battleships next year, it was regarded as a foregone conclusion that Britain's action would lead to the inauguration of a battleship replacement program by this country.

In fact, the navy department already was making tentative plans for commencing the construction of two new battleships. To avoid the necessity of asking congress for additional funds, a step which President Roosevelt has indicated he is unwilling to do, the navy was prepared to scrape together enough money from its available funds to start construction work.

Need Four Million.

Admiral William H. Standley, acting secretary of the navy, has estimated that only $4,000,000 will be necessary to start work on the two new ships and that the navy will be able to gather this sum from available funds.

The move to make America's battleship replacement program contingent upon the action of other naval powers was viewed as a compromise between the president's unwillingness to seek new funds for the naval building program at this session and the navy's perturbation over the danger of Great Britain snatching away the battleship parity which has existed between the two countries since the signing of the Washington naval treaty.

Plan New Ships.

The navy estimates the total cost of the two new ships which it hopes to build will be between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 each. The United States has not built any new battleships since the signing in 1922 of the Washington naval treaty, for the sake of which this country sacrificed $200,000,000 worth of warships, including battleships. If the new naval treaty goes into effect the first of the year, the navy will have three overage battleships. The new batleships would be designed to replace two of these overage vessels.

The new legislation authorizing the president to order commencement of a replacement program is expected to be included in the naval appropriation bill and reported out for immediate action by the house tomorrow or Friday.

"FEMALE BACKACHE"

What It Does To Many Women!

What pains, strains and drains women have to go through! What suffering they have to put up with that a man never knows!

One of the things thousands of women have to suffer is "female backache"! The slightest exertion tells on them. The lightest task almost breaks their backs. The nagging pain never seems to let up. During the "period" it becomes much worse. It is almost killing for many women to go through the function.

Don't Let It Go On!

"Female backache" is a condition you want to do something about. It will make it impossible for you to get your proper rest. It will give you "nerves" and make you high-strung and jittery. It will sap your strength and energy and make you weak and worn. It will draw your face with agony and make you look old and haggard.

An excellent thing to take for "female backache" is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is a well-known woman's medicine, developed by the famous Dr. R. V. Pierce who made a special study of female complaints.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do several things for you. It will relieve nagging backache and pain and strain. It will promote functional regularity and easy and painless "period". It will relieve tension, calm your nerves, and make your days tranquil and your nights restful.

Thousands Helped!

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a wholly vegetable preparation. It is made of six different roots and herbs, each of which has a special purpose.

The ingredients are printed right on the package, so you know what you're taking.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has helped thousands of pain-wracked and nerve-wracked women. It will help you, too.

See for Yourself!

Suppose you get a package of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription today and try it out. See the relief it brings to nagging backache. See how easy it makes the "period".

Note the calming effect it has on your nerves. Mark how much more relaxed you are during the day and how much better you sleep at night.

All druggists sell Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in two forms—tablet and liquid. Tablets (new size), 50¢. Liquid, $1 and $1.35. Get either the tablet or liquid form today and put it to the test.

Man Consumes A Whole Barrel of Baking Soda

A local citizen says he has taken increased doses of baking soda day after day, week after week and year after year and estimates that he has taken a whole barrel of it. The ill-effect of taking soda for "stomach gas" is that the doses must be continually increased. But this man says he has stopped the soda habit since he found the new double-acting stomach alkalizer, called WHITE SWALLOW—the scientific formula of FOUR different remedies for the relief of common stomach distress. This grateful man says he can enjoy his meals without indigestion no more gas bloating and feels "like new".

Quick Relief

WHITE SWALLOW neutralizes acids in the stomach, expels gas, relieves pain, bloat, swelling and headaches. Relief comes immediately. It is not habit-forming like soda, and pleasant to take. Settles the stomach at once.

Costs a Trifle

You can have this relief for less than 1c a dose. Therefore, it would not be sensible to continue suffering. We are advertising this new scientific remedy because it has helped nearly everyone who has taken it.

Merchants To Have Dinner On Friday Evening

Officers Will Be Elected At Get-Together Meeting In Castleton

JUDGE BRAHAM IS TOASTMASTER

Arrangements have been completed for the dinner meeting of the merchants of New Castle under the auspices of the Retail Merchants Division of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, President De Lace Cole announced today. Dinner will start promptly at 6:30.

A new board of directors will be named by those in attendance at the meeting, following which the board will name officers.

Judge W. Walter Braham will serve as toastmaster of the evening and the speakers will include Paul Bolton, secretary of the Merchants Division of the Youngstown Chamber of Commerce, and W. Kieth McAfee, president of the Universal Sanitary Manufacturing company.

In addition to the merchants, the presidents of the various banks of the city and the directors of the Chamber of Commerce have been invited to attend this meeting.

Any merchant in the city is eligible and is invited to attend, regardless of whether he has received a formal invitation, as it is the aim of the Retail Merchants Division to form a better organization of the merchants; one which will work for the best interests of all merchants in the city.

Jack Houston, of the Strouss-Hirshberg Company, is in charge of tickets and reservations must be made with him by Thursday.

During the evening, an open forum discussion will take place when those in attendance will be invited to make suggestions or criticisms for the benefit of the merchants organization.

Feared a Suicide

Mrs. Hazel Archibald Draper

Whereabouts of Mrs. Hazel Archibald Draper of Hopedale, Mass., 42-year-old wife of a wealthy textile magnate and former Republican party leader, remained a mystery as police checked reports of a suicide aboard a transatlantic ship. Mrs. Draper departed from a sanitarium at Katonah, N. Y., where she had been an inmate for four months.

Mercer County Democratic Group Claiming Victory

Anti-Administration Forces Defeat Present Assemblyman Incumbent

(International News Service)

SHARON, April 29. — Mercer county Democrats opposed to the present state administration today claimed victory in yesterday's primary as a result of the defeat of Maj. William Smith, of Grove City, in his attempt to gain a second term in the state assembly and the naming of Attorney Martin Cusick over M. A. Garvey for the state committee.

Smith and Garvey had the support of Dr. Edith MacBride-Dexter, county chairman who is also secretary of health in the cabinet of Gov. George H. Earle. The other faction charged the county patronage was being mishandled.

H. K. Putman, Greenville, and William T. Thomas, Farrell school teacher, were the Democratic nominees to the state assembly. They will be opposed by Thomas Lyons, Sharon and Roscoe Simons, Clarks Mills, who were successful on the Republican ticket.

Prof. Jas. V. Baker Speaks Tonight

Will Make Address On "Italian Renaissance" At Westminster

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, April 29.—Professor James B. Baker, department of English, Westminster college, English-born, educated and English-speaking, will deliver the second talk of "Italian Renaissance" week, in the Little Theatre Wednesday night at 8 o'clock on the subject "The Literature on the Renaissance in Italy."

Professor Baker is a world traveler, explorer, author and one-time well-known collegiate cricket player at Oxford university. In 1927, Professor Baker, in an exploring party, crossed the Himalayas into Tibet, and for the next three years was an official under the Egyptian minister of education. His last venture was a desert expedition in 1930 from the Nile valley to Kosseir ,a port on the Red Sea.

The first of the series of talks was delivered Monday night by Professor Leon Marshall, department of history, on "The Political and Economic Aspect of the Renaissance in Italy". The chief point in Professor Marshall's talk was history is now repeating itself, and the conditions that brought downfall to such great Italian cities as Venice, Genoa and Rome now threatens to destroy American civilization: suppression of individual liberties, fascism, centralization of power into the hands of a few.

Following Professor Harold J. Brennan's talk Thursday on "Arts of the Italian Renaissance", the week will reach its climax with a lecture Friday by Dr. Raymond Stites, Antioch college, art critic and teacher.

Pay Up Wins English Race

(International News Service)

NEWMARKET, Eng., April 29.—Lord Astor's Pay Up won the two thousand guineas classic flat race today, beating the Aga Khan's Mahmoud, second, and Mrs. J. Shand's Thankerton, third.

Pay Up did pay—11 to 2. Mahmoud paid 100 to 8, and Thankerton, 40 to 1. Nineteen ran.

Republicans Stage Battle

Militant Republican Minority Battles Administration On Five Fronts

FEW DEMOCRATS JOIN PROTESTS

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 29.—A militant Republican minority in the senate today was battling the administration on five major fronts.

Too weak numerically to block the Democratic program, Republican spokesmen were assailing the new tax bill, administration of federal relief funds, payments of AAA benefits, operation of the resettlement administration and loading of government payrolls with political employes. They charged waste, extravagance and politics on every side, in an apparent effort to build up issues for the coming presidential campaign.

Some Democrats Join In.

In some instances, the Republicans were joined by a handful of conservative Democrats. This was true in the Republican attacks on AAA benefit payments, administration of relief rolls and operation of Rexford Guy Tugwell's resettlement "experiments".

Bitterness spread through Republican ranks for the first time since Mr. Roosevelt occupied the White House. This feeling was engendered by the tactics of administration leaders in blocking action on measures proposing inquiries into administration activities.

Resolution Buried.

This administration ban was evidenced first when the Davis resolution, proposing an inquiry into administartion of relief funds, was buried in a minor committee, with Democratic chieftains openly boasting they will not permit it to come to a final vote in the senate.

This ban was exercised in spite of the fact that a half dozen prominent Democratic senators favor the inquiry, because of conditions in their own states.

Open warfare between the parties threatened as a result of Democratic action in blocking inquiries into the resettlement administration and government payrolls. The first of these inquiries was asked by Senator Barbour (R) of New Jersey, who charged millions of dollars had been "squandered on foolish and inconsequential projects" by Tugwell's organization, without a penny of expenditure ever being reported to congress. Democrats tabled his proposal, without giving him a chance to debate it.

Hurled Under Train

His father charged with a series of thefts from a hotel in which he had been night clerk for years, Bobby Rodetsky (above) set out with his mother, Mrs. Vincent Rodetsky, to visit him in New York jail. As they waited on the subway platform, Mrs. Rodetsky leaped in the path of the approaching cars and pulled the boy with her. She was instantly killed. By some miracle 2-year-old Bobby fell in the trough between the tracks. He has a fractured skull, but doctors say he will live.

'Master Mind' Eludes Police

Ellis Parker, Jr., Called "Brains" Behind Kidnaping Of Paul H. Wendel

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 29.—While police sought to trap Ellis Parker, Jr., in Newark today, Harry Weiss, Brooklyn cab driver, was telling District Attorney Geoghan that the son of the New Jersey detective was the "master mind" behind the kidnaping and torture of Paul H. Wendel.

Brought back from Youngstown, O., the indicted cab driver, who yearned to be a police officer, was subjected to an all-night grilling in Geoghan's office.

At the conclusion of the questioning, the district attorney told reporters:

"Weiss made a full confession. It corroborates in almost every detail the story told by Wendel himself."

While Geoghan was predicting the arrest and indictment of seven more persons, apparently as a result of the information provided by Weiss, the police, convinced that Parker has no intention of surrendering voluntarily, were busy laying a trap for him.

At the same time there were reports that another trap is being set in Philadelphia for Murray Bleefeld, who is also under indictment for the kidnaping.

Alumni Gathers At Westminster

New Castle And New Wilmington Grads In Annual Dinner There

SPECIAL PROGRAM FEATURES EVENING

With a dinner, a speaking and vocal music program and an orchestra concert as the features, members of the New Castle and New Wilmington chapters of the Westminster college alumni organization enjoyed their annual social get-together on the campus of their alma mater on Tuesday night.

The dinner was held at The Hillside, college dormitory.

Attorney Frank A. Hover was elected president of the New Castle chapter of the Westminster alumni during the evening and Dr. Elizabeth McLaughry was chosen to head the New Wilmington chapter during the coming year.

Sixty-five Westminster graduates and former students were seated at the dinner table in the dining room of the historic college dormitory when festivities began.

Once dinner was over, Attorney Hover introduced President Robert F. Galbreath of Westminster, who reported briefly on current college affairs.

Attorney Gilbert E. Long was the evening's humorous speaker and kept the crowd entertained from the start to finish. He spoke on the problems and needs of present-day civilization.

The election came at the close of the program.

Musical features included a student trio composed of the Misses Bailey, Stewart and Bell, accompanied by E. J. Johnston. Miss Grace Bell favored with a reading that entertained the guests.

After an informal period of chat at the close the entire alumni group was entertained at a brilliant concert given by the college orchestra.

Other officers chosen to serve the chapters were:

New Castle chapter—Mrs. W. D. Cleland, secretary, and Prof. F. L. Burton, treasurer. New Wilmington chapter—Emily Johnston, secretary, and Corrine Mercer, treasurer.

During the election Mr. Hover presided as acting chairman and Mrs. Russell H. Shields as secretary pro-tem.

BREVITY PICKED TO WIN KENTUCKY DERBY

Great Race Is Looked For In Annual Classic

Indian Broom And Grand Slam May Give Brevity Tough Race

EXPECT THRONG AT BIG TRACK

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 29.—There being absolutely no time to lose before everybody's doing it and the thing naturally becomes unfashionable, I do not propose to fall into the common error of picking Brevity to win the Kentucky Derby, for Friday release. I'm, in fact, picking Brevity now, just on the chance that the announcement isn't yet too late to retain some merit of novelty. By Friday Brevity probably won't be an opinion around this glorified gavotte of the horse tracks; he'll be an epidemic.

The way things figure now, the horse is to be one of the short prices of all Derby history, if the Downs are dry for Saturday's race. Even in the wet, they'll "bet" him. There's practically nothing else to do with him, unless you happen to be a rival trainer. In that case the only thing is to take out a game license in the regular way and shoot him. He looks that good before the race.

Has Lots of Speed

He has the speed to break fast and get out in front through the quarter mile run to the first turn. He has the action of a horse that ought to stay there, the long, free stride of Man O'War. He can; in fact, apparently, do anything on a race track, a statement that seems to be confirmed by the fact that he can even win for Mr. Joe Widener. The only Derby the latter ever won, as a matter of fact, was the time he beat everybody to the boat and got His Lordship as a house guest.

But it look: now as though Mr. Joe has bought himself a winner at last. Teufel is dangerous, but didn't get the worst of it in the weights in the Wood Memorial last Saturday. Granville is supposed to be a great stretch runner and this one here is two furlongs of heartbreak. Bold Venture is fast. So is Indian Broom, which ran to a world's record at a mile and a furlong, incidentally displacing the 1:48 1-5 that Brevity hung up in the Florida Derby. The Fighter is supposed to be good, but I doubt it.

Grand Slam Good

As for Grand Slam, he's supposed to be the "mudder's delight" and I should say that you can take Coldstream's third place against good horses in the Clark handicap as an indication that he won't be far off the pace at the showdown.

But in what probably will be a 12 or 13-horse race, you've got to go with the colt they all agree is good. After all, even in this age of gilded delusions, there's still very little to be said against unanimity.

Yankees Halt Indians With Shutout, 2 To 0

Ruffing Holds Touted Indian Hitters To Four Measly Little Bingles

PIRATES FOLD UP BEFORE PHILLIES

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, April 29.—It probably will take at least another two weeks to get a true line on the two major leagues.

By that time the morning glories will have begun to fade and the lads with real class will have begun to strut their stuff.

However, enough has already been seen to assure us that the Yankees are much stronger than they were last year, and will be stronger still when young Joe DiMaggio is able to break into the lineup.

Have Power.

The Yanks boast both power and pitching, to say nothing of defense and speed, and nobody but a chump paint them out of the pennant picture despite the admitted class of the Tigers, Indians and Red Sox.

What I like most about the Yanks is their power. From top to bottom of the lineup they carry men who can break up a ball game with one smash.

With a couple of those powerhouses on his roster, Casey Stengel would have his Dodgers making serious gestures at a pennant. As it is, the Dodgers are a four-hits-to-a-run club.

Yanks Top Indians.

The Yanks gave the Indians a sample of their latent strength yesterday. With Lloyd Brown and Charley Ruffing hooked up in a nice pitching duel, the teams moved into the fifth still in a scoreless deadlock.

Then up stepped Lou Gehrig the daddy of all iron men picked out one of Brown's choicest hooks and sent it whistling into the bleachers. One pitch one smash one run and as far as the Indians were concerned that one wallop meant the ball game for Ruffing who looked like something the cat dragged in on his first two outings limited the hard-hitting tribe to four hits and richly deserved his 2 to 0 shutout.

The Red Sox also pack plenty of punch as the White Sox will attest, but it is not hitched to such pitching as the Yanks can show. The Red Sox pounded a quartet of their pale hosed brethren for 16 hits, including a double, triple and homer by the powerful Jimmy Foxx, and needed them all to win, 11-8, for their own pitching was strictly of the camembert variety.

Athletics Win.

If Connie Mack could come up with two or three more Harry Kelleys, the old boy might go places. In his first start, the 30-year-old rookie blanked the Red Sox with three hits and yesterday he let the Browns down with six to ease in, 4 to 2. Russ Peters, a rookie third baseman, put the game on ice with a triple and homer good for three runs.

The Tigers also unloaded at Washington where Goose Goslin and Greenberg weighed in with homers to help Sullivan gain an 8-1 decision over Linke and Coppola.

Rain Spoils Two.

Rain spoiled an opening for the Giants in St. Louis and Dodgers in Chicago but the Phils dropped into Pittsburgh, spotted the Pirates six runs and then won out in the ninth, 9-7. The Phils rattled no fewer than 17 hits off the far-flung Pirate fences.

The Bees stopped the fast-moving Reds, 5 to 2, by tapping Derringer for 14 hits while the Reds could get no more than seven off Benge and Smith who replaced him in the ninth.

DeHarts Windup Basketball Year

Colored Boys Win 38 Games And Lose But Five In Successful Season

The DeHart A. C. colored basketball team has ended a most successful season, according to Walter Smith, coach and supervisor of the team. The team won 38 games and lost but five this past season for a very enviable record.

The DeHarts started the season with a 42 to 38 win over the Tubetown Tigers and also defeated the Bessemer Ex-High Stars 24 to 23 during the year for two of the biggest achievements. The DeHarts' scoring attack was very fine.

The record of the team speaks for itself. The DeHarts intend to have a bigger and better team next year. The following men were members of the team: "Gordie" Marks, James Clark, Norris Brown, Tom Farrow, "Big Dog" Roberts, James Hill, Herman Morris and "Flash" Engs.

The DeHarts appreciate the sportsmanship of the teams met this year.

BONNETTS HOPE TO WIN PENNANT

The Bonnetts softball team has high hopes of winning the City Softball league pennant this year. Perch Ross will be the coach of the team, with Andy "Coots" Venditto as manager and Rocco P. Viggiano as business manager.

The team is made up of former Unions, Saks and West Side Merchant players, to wit—Richards, Vigali, Merando, Pezzona, Clause, Mike and John Polenick, Dweyer, Joe Kelly, Maki, Lewellyn, Keder, and Henderson. Others in the lineup will be Teddy Koltz, Craig, John Teplica and Flier Mateja.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Washington & Jefferson College golfers hung up their second straight win of the season and kept a two-year record untarnished by defeating Waynesburg College's new forces, 7½ to 1½ yesterday at the difficult 18-hole layout of the Nemacolin Country club at Washington. Whitey Gould was medalist for the match, shooting a 75, three over par, in his play with Billy Goldberg, ace of the Yellow Jackets, who turned in a 77. Novert beat Chuck Groechell 1 up, for the Yellow Jackets only victory, while Warnick, of Waynesburg, and Butters halfed their match.

With May 12 not far distant and the Lawrence county loop set to swing into action that day, managers of the six clubs are hustling for players. Some of them already have been signed and from now on practice sessions will be held. The loop has been in existence for many years and indications are bright for a good season.

Fish arrived here this morning and another batch will arrive Thursday morning according to Lawrence County Sportsmen's Association President Karl Rohrer. The trout will be placed in local streams. The trout catch during the past few weeks has been poor. Reports also state the Slippery Rock is polluted.

After 21 years absence from the major league diamonds where he once pitched for world championship team, Casey Hegeman is preparing for his debut on Youngstown ball fields May 2, when he will take charge of a baseball school. Charlie Conway, former Castle Cord player, will be on Hegeman's committee.

ERIE YOUTH MEETS WITH AUTO CRASH

CINCINNATI, O., April 29.—Eugene La Monte, 21-year-old Erie, Pa., youth, suffered a fractured skull here today when his automobile careened over a highway embankment and piled up against a tree.

CROTON M. E. TO MEET

The Croton M. E. church softball team will have a meeting and practice session tonight at the Castle field at 6 o'clock. All those wishing to try out for the team are asked to attend. From all indications the Croton boys will have one of the strongest teams in the New Castle church softball league.

WILL HOLD PRACTICE

The Bonnetts softball team of the City Softball league will have a practice session tonight, Thursday and Friday at the B. & O. Field at 6 o'clock it was announced by Coaches Andy "Coots" Venditto, Tony Ross and Rocco P. Viggiano, who will act as business manager.

If the members of your family are tall and blankets are not long enough to tuck under the foot of the bed and snuggle up around your ears, too, put the wool blanket just to the edge of the mattress at the foot, then put a summer blanket folded in half lengthwise across the foot of the bed and tuck it under the mattress. Neither blanket will slip, and all that length and warmth are added to the regular winter blanket.

John D. Lawther, Westminster College, Gives Fine Message To Boys

Bessemer High Given Beautiful Tophy Cup As 1935-1936 Champions

Lawrence county high school basketball players, coaches and student managers gathered about 100 strong last night at the First U. P. church for the first banquet of its kind ever held in the county, and to say that the occasion was a big success would be putting it mildly.

Champions Honored.

The banquet was held to honor the 1935-36 championship Bessemer high school team. The winning team was coached by J. K. Fredericks and the genial Bessemer generalissimo came in for his share of the lions applause. As a part of the program Jay Rudolph of Union high, general chairman of the banquet, presented Poushey, captain of the Bessemer team, with the beautiful trophy cup emblematic of the county championship.

Lawther Speaker.

Charles "Bugs" Walther acted as toastmaster of the banquet. The first speaker was John D. Lawther, one of the country's finest basketball coaches. Lawther gave the boys a fine talk not only along basketball lines, but facts of life and points that will help them out in later years of life. The talk by Lawther was very much appreciated by the boys and also the members of the Lawrence County High School Coaches' association.

All of the coaches present were called upon for short talks as follows: Coach J. K. Fredericks of Bessemer, Coach Dave Morg Boyd of Union, Coach Johnny Eagleson of New Wilmington, Coach L. B. Hennon of Wampum, Coach George Phelps of Shenango, Coach DeWitt Emerick of East Brook, Coach Ralph Spears of Mt. Jackson and Assistant Coach Capezzuto of Bessemer.

In appreciation of his publicity and work in organizing the county coaches' association, Mr. Rudolph on behalf of the coaches presented Mr. Walther with a beautiful gift.

Will Become Annual.

The affair was such a big success that it will no doubt become an annual affair. There was considerable enthusiasm for the banquet as manifested by the fine turnout.

The dinner, prepared and served by the ladies of the First U. P. church, was very fine. It was the untiring efforts of Mr. Rudolph that made the banquet possible, and the coaches voted him a great big thanks.

The banquet was given with the proceeds of the recent New Castle high-county all-star game played at Washington high.

Castle Elect "Gabby" DeCaprio

Meeting in their clubrooms, South Mill street, South Side Castle club members formed plans for the coming softball season and at the same time elected Dominick "Gabby" DeCaprio, New Castle high star gridder, as manager. During the meeting, Walter Babe Palkovitch was elected as captain.

The Castles captured the junior championship last season and will be out to duplicate the feat. The team consists of Babe Palkovitch, Smokey Alexander, Nick Albert, Elias Moses, George Jim, Heims, Shorty Palkovitch. For games with the Castles call 1192 and ask for DeCaprio.

New Speed Record Set By Doolittle

(International News Service)

NEW ORLEANS, April 29.—A new transport plane speed record between Chicago and New Orleans had been set today by Maj. Jimmy Doolittle.

Flying against headwinds ranging in velocity of from 35 to 50 miles an hour, Major Doolittle set a 10-passenger Lockheed Electra down here last night 5 hours and 58 minutes after leaving Chicago, clipping an hour and 37 minutes off the previous mark.

Would Curtail Radio Reports Of Ball Games

Minor League Managers Putting Up Holler About Low Attendances

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 29.—P. K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs, the club that has remained radio's bosom friend for a dozen years, today reiterated his belief in the value of baseball broadcasts as the high moguls of the national pastime took what is considered to be the first step in curtailment of etherizing ball games.

Following a long conference with the presidents of the two major leagues, William Harridge and Ford Frick, William G. Bramham, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, and George M. Trautman, president of the American Association, Commissioner K. M. Landis issued the following order:

"Pending further notice all major and minor league clubs will refrain from making any additional commitments, arrangements or authorizations for radio broadcasts of ball games."

Although the meeting was called at the behest of Bramham following charges of several minor league clubs that fans were listening to broadcasts of major league games rather than attending games in their home cities, claiming this amounts to invasion of their territorial rights, the conference and injunctions were considered the pathway to a final settlement of the problem which has been seething within baseball's structure for many years.

St. Vitus Will Have Fine Team

One of the strongest teams in the City Softball league this year will be the Knights of St. Vitus, according to Buddy Marino and Nickie Gennock, manager and captain respectively.

Besides playing in the City League the Knights of St. Vitus will play such teams as Beaver Falls, Youngstown, Farrell, Butler, Sharon and others.

It is probable that the Knights will use the following lineup: Sammy Bullano, catch; Lee Giardo and Tommy Maielle, pitchers; Nickie Gennock, short; Buddy Marino, first; Pete Zingaro or Bob Palus at second; Benny Augustine, roving short. The outfield will have either Yerage or Guy Natale in left, Gabby DeCaprio or Charles Yerage in center and Frankie Copple in right field.

The Knights of St. Vitus will be made up of the former Capitola team.

Union A. A. To Meet Thursday

The final meeting of the year for the Union A. A. will be held on Thursday night at the Union School building. The meeting will start at 7:30 o'clock. Membership cards will be passed out and after the meeting the usual basketball and volley ball games will be played.

Missing Woman Found On Boat

Wife Of Millionaire Manufacturer In New England Found After Frantic Search

(International News Service)

HOPEDALE, Mass., April 29.—Socially prominent Mrs. Eben S. Draper, wife of a Massachusetts textile machinery manufacturer, mysteriously missing from a Katonah, N. Y., sanatarium, was found today aboard the steamship Georgic off London, Eng.

"I have just received a cablegram from Mrs. Draper from the S. S. Georgic in London," said her husband, millionaire manufacturer and Republican party leader.

"Mrs. Draper is perfectly well. Her ensuing plans are not yet determined. I hope the press, under the circumstances, will have the courtesy not to try to interview her or otherwise disturb her."

May Reappoint Throop Thursday

Terms of the city clerk, city engineer and city solicitor expire April 30. However, it is not imperative that council make reappointments or new appointments on May 1. The officers can be continued in office until such time as council desires to take action, it was learned today. Reports are that the present city engineer, Glnen R. Throop, may be reappointed May 1.

Stock Trading Narrow Today

After Reacting 1 To 3 Points In First Few Hours, Market Turns Dull

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, April 29.—After reacting 1 to 3 points in early dealings, the stock market today recovered moderately and settled into a dull and narrow trading range.

U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Republic each dropped about a point before recovering slightly.

General Motors and Chrysler regained half of their early losses. Rails were steady. N. Y. Central, Pennsylvania and Northern Pacific held slightly under their previous closings.

American Telephone broke 3½ points on top of yesterday's 2½ point drop. Westinghouse fell 3 points but came back half way. National Lead slumped 9 points. American Smelting and American Can moved contrary to the general trend for gains of about 2 points each.

Bonds turned lower after an irregular forenoon. Grains were off fractionally, while cotton was barely steady.

Canada Week Is Marked By Local Kiwanis Wednesday

Special Program Is Carried Out At Weekly Meeting Of Local Club

ELLWOOD CITY, April 29.—United States-Canada Week was marked by the Ellwood City Kiwanis club in a conspicuous manner at their weekly meeting Tuesday evening in the Trinity Lutheran church.

After a fine dinner at 6:15 the program was carried out under the direction of Ralph Main. It opened with the singing of "America" and "O, Canada," by the assemblage. Then there was the presentation of the United States and Canadian flags and the singing of "Two Empires by the Sea." Dr. H. S. Gold then gave a short five-minute talk on the history of the Kiwanis club, and Walter Landgraff read the Rush-Bagot Treaty. Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck read the inscription on the Harding Goodwill Memorial, located at Stanley Park, Vancouver, B. C., Canada.

The principal speaker of the evening was President Frank E. Moore, of the local Rotary club. He was introduced by Nelson Runyan. Mr. Moore gave the vital history of both countries and how they came to manifest a friendly spirit of relationship and cooperation. Their attitude peace methods should be a model for all nations. There are no forts or other military means at the boundaries of the two countries. They are as one. Mr. Moore, who spent many years in Canada in the employ of the Mathews Conveyor Company, gave a personal touch to his talk by recalling many pleasing incidents of peace and friendship that existed between the people of the United States and Canada.

Mrs. Ralph Evans Charming Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, April 29.—Mrs. Ralph Evans dispensed charming hospitality to the members of the Tuesday Contract club at her home on Second street yesterday. Mrs. Lee Hamilton of New Castle, Mrs. B. M. Lawther and Mrs. Ray Conner were special guests.

Bridge was the principal pastime of the evening with three tables in play. Mrs. Clarence Nelson and Mrs. Howard Jones were presented with the high score awards at the conclusion of the games.

A delectable menu was served by the hostess at an appointed hour. The club will meet again in two weeks.

E. C. C. Club Has Meeting Wednesday

ELLWOOD CITY, April 29.—Mrs. Charles Black delightfully entertained the members of the E. C. C. club yesterday at her home on Spring avenue.

A delicious luncheon was served at one table centered with daisies. Two tables of bridge occupied the attention of those present for the remainder of the day. Mrs. George Nicklas and Mrs. Frank Klindienst were found to be the prize winners.

In two weeks the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Coates in New Castle.

Club Meets With Mrs. Percy Lytle

ELLWOOD CITY, April 29—Members of the R. and J. club met last night at the home of Mrs. Percy Lytle on Spring avenue. Bridge was the chief diversion of the evening with two tables in play.

The score awards at the conclusion went to Mrs. J. G. Ferguson and Mrs. D. G. Williams. An appetizing luncheon was served at a later hour by the hostess with the assistance of her daughter Janet.

The club will meet with Mrs. J. G. Ferguson on Fourth street in two weeks.

B. V. M. Club Has Regular Meeting

ELLWOOD CITY, April 29.—The young men of the B. V. M. church met last night and formed their mushball team. About 28 were present on the occasion.

An election of officers was held and resulted as follows: President, Anthony Folino; vice president, Sam Ricci; secretary, Frank Pacella; treasurer, Thomas Port.

Arthur Sirianni of the local high school faculty and chief advisor of the club gave an interesting talk on "Co-operation of a Club".

HOSPITAL NOTES

ELLWOOD CITY, April 29.—Discharged Tuesday Mrs. Russell Schweingruber and baby of Zelienople, Mrs. Myrtle Moon of Bridge street, Mrs. John King and baby of Spring avenue, Mrs. Joseph Byro and baby of Crescent avenue, Mrs. George Greer of Seventh street.

Admitted: Dan Dros of Fourth street.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wagner of Ellwood R. D. 2, a daughter, this morning.

Man Dies During Epilepsy Attack

Joseph Penes, Of Bessemer, Expires Last Evening During Sudden Illness

Coroner Orville Potter was summoned to Bessemer last evening to investigate the death of Joseph Penes, aged 24, who succumbed during an attack of epilepsy, from which he had been a sufferer for some time.

Penes had been ailing for many years and had undergone treatment for the ailment in various hospitals, it was learned. His death occurred at 9:15 last evening.

He was born March 7, 1912, and had been a resident of Bessemer for a number of years. He was a member of St. Anthony's church. Surviving are his parents, Matthew and Frances Penes; two sisters, Mrs. Charles Soldo of Pittsburgh and Mrs. Joe Braidotti of Bessemer, and a half-brother, August R. Lupon, at home.

The body has been removed to the Mahoning funeral home pending arrangements for services.

Bank Of France Shares Go Down

(International News Service)

PARIS, April 29.—In the wildest session the Paris Bourse has experienced in a year, Bank of France shares today took their second plunge of this mid-election week, plummeting 675 francs in a few hours to a low of 6605.

French government bonds joined the bank shares in a general slide, due to fears of further left-wing victories in the run-off vote for the chamber of deputies Sunday.

To crumble graham crackers for any reason, put them into a large paper bag and roll with a rolling pin.

Gaston Post Is Back Of Banquet

Splendid Report On Ticket Sale Is Submitted At Meeting Last Evening

ACTIVITIES OF POST DISCUSSED

One of the most enthusiastic pre-banquet meetings of the Perry S. Gaston Post, which has been held in years, took place last evening, when arrangements for the coming National Commander's banquet were discussed, at the post meeting in the Legion home.

Commander James E. Moorhead turned the bulk of the evening over to Chairman Ivor S. Richards of the banquet committee. The report on sale of tickets showed the largest pre-banquet sale in years, and indicates one of the most successful banquets in years.

Reports from the outlying districts indicate a larger attendance in past years.

Major W. Fulton Jackson was named chairman of the Memorial Day activities for the post, and will represent the post at the general meeting called for Thursday evening at the Legion home.

Chairman A. L. Conn, of the Legion Junior baseball committee, reported that 80 candidates reported for the first practice session last Saturday, and a strong junior team is expected to be formed this year to represent the New Castle post in the district eliminations.

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

Conservatives Will Control

Steiwer As Keynoter Will Not Entirely Placate Senator Borah, Is Belief

PLATFORM MAY NOT FOLLOW HIM

Central Press
Washington Bureau
1900 F street

Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 29.—As previously remarked in this column, the Republican managers appear to have picked Senator Frederick Steiwer of Oregon, as their Cleveland keynoter with a view to placating Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho.

But do they imagine that Senator Borah will be satisfied with a teaspoon of liberality in the form of Senator Steiwer in the keynoter's role in comparison with two whole tureensful of conservatism in the form of Representative Bertrand H. Snell of New York, and ex-Representative John Q. Tilson of Connecticut respectively, as permanent chairman and parliamentarian of the G. O. P. convention?

If that mixture goes down with the Idaho statesman he is easy to please—and he hasn't that reputation.

A MILD PROGRESSIVE

Steiwer, to be sure, as also has been said before, is a very mild progressive and a close legislative and perhaps personal friend of Borah's.

But all that a convention keynoter does is to make the initial speech.

The platform doesn't have to follow what he says.

The nominee doesn't have to be the individual he indicates.

Generally the keynoter, the platform-framers and the nominating influences all are of one mind, but this time maybe it will be otherwise.

MAY CAUSE SPLIT

If Steiwer makes a pro-Borah speech such managers as Representative Snell and Colonel Tilson certainly will disregard it.

That will cause a split.

And if Steiwer is not vehemently pro-Borah's program the Idaho solon assuredly will remain unreconciled.

Borah will be alienated in either case. He will "take a walk."

That is what the G. O. P. managers want to prevent. But the compromise they offer? It isn't much of a compromise. A weak-kneed liberal offered to Borah! An ultra-conservative control claimed by themselves!

ULTRA-CONSERVATIVES

Congressman Snell?

He is a likable old cheese-maker from Potsdam, N. Y. But politically and economically he is reactionary—not to say conservative.

His nickname is "Hard-boiled Bert."

And the convention's parliamentarian, Colonel Tilson?

The colonel is as likable as Snell, but he was leader in the house of representatives in the most ultra-conservative days of G. O. P. control.

Both are 100 per cent Old Guardsmen.

Steiwer is 10 to 15 per cent a liberal—no radical whatever.

CONTROL MACHINERY

At the Republican convention?

Steiwer will make his speech. How liberal it will be is problematic.

Then Representative Snell will assume authority. His rulings will be dictated to him by Parliamentarian Tilson. If Parliamentarian Tilson is momentarily off the job his place will be taken by Lehr Fess, son of former Senator Simeon D. Fess of Ohio, one of the most conservative statesmen who ever sat in congress. Sons often are different from fathers, but Lehr was parliamentarian of the house of representatives when (perhaps not because of the fact that) his father was a leader of the majority party in the senate.

A CLASH?

All this is not to reflect adversely upon conservatism.

But it seems to threaten a clash between conservatism and liberality at the coming Republican convention.

In the curriculum of the early universities, the first three of the seven liberal arts, which embraced grammar, logic and rhetoric, were known as the trivium.

On Court House Hill

County commissioners, acting as a return board, will meet in Court Room No. 1 on Friday at noon to start counting the vote cast at Tuesday's primary election.

County Treasurer Joseph H. Hartland today sent out the tax statements for the First and Eighth Wards. These are the first wards to be completed in the city.

Cash in the poor fund is running very low, according to County Controller Frank W. Hill. The amount on hands today is only about $1,500. Unless taxes begin to come in faster it will be necessary to borrow more money.

One thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight city tax liens have just been renewed in the office of Prothonotary John A. Edgar. The liens were filed originally in 1931 and represent delinquent taxes for the years 1929 and 1930.

The Home Owners Loan Corporation reports that it paid out $224,918,000 to states and municipalities in back taxes on properties on which it acquired mortgages. The back taxes paid on properties mortgaged in Lawrence county has helped out materially in meeting the running expenses of the county.

So far no objections have been filed to the applications for beverage licenses, according to County Treasurer Joseph H. Hartland. The old licenses expire on June 1, and if there are no objections, they will be renewed without hearings.

Under the will of the late Patty L. Beman, of the Sixth Ward, which has been entered for probate at the office of Register and Recorder William R. Hanna, decedent leaves his estate to Lewis E. Beman, who is also named as executor.

County Health Officer J. Frank Stevens, reports that an outbreak of chickenpox in Little Beaver township, is well under control, and that the cases are all getting along nicely. There is very little sickness in the county at present.

A petition in behalf of the estate of John R. Zook, deceased, for rule on the heirs of Jared Hamm, deceased, of New Wilmington, to bring an action in ejectment has been granted. It grows out of a tract of land about which there is some dispute.

May 2 is the last day for filing accounts of common pleas court, register of wills and widow's appraisements for the June term of quarter sessions court. The grand jury will meet on Monday, June 1, and quarter sessions on Monday, June 8.

The naturalization department at the prothonotary's office has been kept busy during the past month, taking applications for citizenship. Naturalization court is scheduled for May 25 and 26. Indications are the class will be a record-breaker.

Will of the late Walter Lawrence Harris, of Ellwood City, has been probated at the register and recorder's office. To his wife he leaves one-third of his estate and to his mother, Jennie Harris, two-thirds. Thomas F. Harris and Harry A. Harris are named as executors.

Nearly all of the election boards had a good supply of unused ballots left over when the polls closed last night. They were returned to the county commissioners' office this morning along with the election returns. In all there were 58,960 ballots printed.

Few Gather To See Bulletins

Inexplainable Lethargy Surrounded The Primaries Of Tuesday Locally

With a light vote recorded in the primaries in the city and county on Tuesday, the situation was reflected in the lact of interest in the outcome last night.

The crowd that surrounded The News office to see the returns flashed on the screen probably the smallest that has witnessed any election bulletins in years.

It is difficult to explain the apparent lethargy that surrounded the primaries yesterday.

Perhaps all of the election excitement and enthusiasm is being saved for the major battle of the year which will come in November.

Stitched handbags of taffeta for daytime wear add a dressy note to your new ensemble. They are available in a number of styles, and are especially effective in black.

ADDRESSES INDIAN WOMEN

Mrs. Margaret Sanger, advocate of birth control, was the guest of honor and featured speaker before the All Indian Women's conference, meeting recently in Travancore, India. Mrs. Sanger discussed birth control with Mahatma Gandhi and Tagore, Indian poet and philosopher, while in India. She is on a world tour.

There is no sign of the shirtwaist dress going out. Although there has been quite a lot of talk about getting away from this particular style, still it bobs up fresh and almost as numerous as ever. A slight departure is the new two-piece dress with jacket blouse, which is becoming very popular, but still leans toward the shirtwaist type.

WANT TO LOOK YOUNG?

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must get at the cause—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound as a substitute for calomel to act on the intestines, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are gentle in their action yet always effective. They help bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c, 30c, 60c.
